PREFACE

In this compilation are included the more important documents, known to be in existence, relating to the history of Yale University, of a date earlier than that of the present charter, of May, 1745.

The extant records of the Trustees for this period are given in full; but certain other more formal material is intentionally omitted; of this character are, for example, conveyances of property to and from the Collegiate School; and other legal papers; records of the admission of students, of the assignment of rooms in the College building, and of degrees conferred; lists of donations to the Library; accounts of the Treasurer; and Laws for the government of students.

Yale University, July, 1916.

I. Proposals for a University

[From the University Archives]

These (undated) proposals were sent from some friend or friends in Boston, before the movement for a College in Connecticut had reached any definiteness,—perhaps in the spring or early summer of 1701; and may thus be regarded as the earliest extant document in Yale history. It cannot be proved, however, that this paper had any influence in determining the course of events. Some slight resemblances, in the suggestions made, to the recommendations in the document next following, favor the theory of a kindred authorship.

A photographic copy of the first page of this manuscript is given in the New England Magazine for December, 1901 (vol. XXV, p. 430).

Proposals for Erecting an UNIVERSITY in the Renowned Colony of Connecticut:
Humbly Offered by an Hearty (tho' unknown)
Well-wisher to the Welfare of that Religious Colony

I. Let there be called a SYNOD of all the Consociated Churches in this Colony.

The Synod, (or Council of Elders and Messengers from the Churches,) may as yet be Called by the Civil Government, upon the Motion of some Eminent Pastors.

Or, if That way should fail, why may not as many of the Pastors as can come together, modestly write a Circular Letter unto the Churches, intimateing their desire, of their sending their Delegates unto a Synod (att a proper Time and Place agreed on,) upon this great Occasion of settling an University, for the propagation of Literature and Religion among them.

II. The SYNOD being Assembled, Let the Work of that Venerable Assembly be, To resolve upon an University, that shall be, The School of the Churches; and upon the LAWS, by which the said University shall be Governed.

Let these LAWS declare, What shall be the Qualifications of them that shall be admitted into the Society;

What shall be the Studies therein followed, & how managed;

What shall be the Manners of ye Students, and how Rewarded, or Censured.

And upon what Accomplishments the Persons there Educated, shall go forth, with Ample Testimonials, Recommending them to the acceptance of the World.

III. Wee cannot præsume to give Degrees, Pro more Academiarum in Angliâ,—nor are the Degrees of Bachelour of Arts, and Master of Arts, in the Terms they are now Ordinarily given, much more than Empty Titles.

A Diploma, or Testimonial, (Signed by the Præsident, & the Tutors of the University, and by Three of the Inspectors,) asserting the Qualifications of him that Receives it, will be as Good as a Degree, in the Honourable Thoughts of Reasonable Men. And it is hoped, A Society of Such Persons, thus founded and formed, may without presumption, give such a Testimonial unto those that shall under their Education deserve it.

If the Young Gentlemen, will not be satisfied without Titles equivalent unto a Baccalaureus, and Magister, it will be easy to gratifye them.
He that goes forth Qualifyed with a Testimonial, and intending the Service of the Churches, may be Stiled, Instructus Ecclesiae.

He that goes forth intending to serve his Countrey, in any other Capacity, but that of a Divine, may be stiled, Ornatus Patriae.

Let there be no such expensive Commencements, as those in other Universities.

But let the President, and the Tutors, with the Inspectors, appoint still, what Time they please, in ye Year, for a Solemn, & Rigid Examen, of those that are the Candidates of Approbation.

Let it be considered, Whether the Time for the Scholars going forth, Instructi, or, Ornati, should be limited unto the Term of their Continuance Four, or Five, or more Years, under their Education.

Would it not be better, for the Rules of Qualification to be sufficiently strict, and Fixed? And then a Scholar that shall come up to them, sooner, may go forth an Instructus, or an Ornatus, with an earlier Harvest of His Dilligence. And the Slothfull or Stupid may stay (as 'tis fitt they should) until their Merits may Challenge their Testimonial.

But then, the Examen must be Impartial.

IV. Lett the SYNOD Choose, at least, the first President. If it seem too great a Trouble, for the Churches to come together, as often as a Successor may be to be chosen, Quære, Whether the Inspectors may not be trusted with the Choice?

Only then, Lett the Inspectors write Letters to all the Consociated Churches, Reporting whom they have Elected; and How, and Why. And if one Third of the Churches do signify, by Letters, to the Inspectors, that they do not approve their Action, Let them then proceed unto an-other Election.

Quære, Whether the President must always be chosen for Life, (or at least, Quamdiu se benè Gesserit:) Or, Whether (at least upon the Difficulty of obtaining a more continued supply,) an Eminent Pastor may not be borrowed for Four or Five Years, from his Church; and his Church be in the mean time supplied, wth Candidate of the Ministry: The President himself coming to them as often as He can to dispense all special Ordinances.

The Work of ye President shall be, Ordinarily once a Day to Entertain the Scholars in a publick Hall, with Prayers, and such other Exercises, (Whether Expositions of the Scripture, or Lectures in Divinity, or Church-History, or somewhat Else,) as may be most serviceable.

And frequently to Examine the Conduct of the Tutors, and the progress of the Scholars.

And Execute the Discipline of the University, according to the Laws of it.

And Preach publickly in the University-Town, as often as He can.

To such Encombrances, and such Entertainments, will the President be obliged, That He must have a considerable Salary. Untill those Methods be taken (which may soon be taken,) whereby such a Salary may be Raised, Why may not the Synod Resolve, That each of the Consociated Churches do its part: And, That it shall be treated as a Censurable Scandal for any particular Person, under the Church-Watch, to refuse His Duty, in the General Contribution? It will be so little, among so many Churches, and Persons, that it will be scarce Felt by any, but such as are of a very Quick sense in such Matters.

V. Lett the Pastors of such Twelve Churches, as the Synod shall pitch upon, be, for the Time being the Stated Inspectors of the University.

And any Seven of those Twelve, be a Quorum.

Only, let none be allowed for to Act as Inspectors, untill they Subscribe certain Articles, relating to the Purity of Religion, that shall be by the Synod agreed upon.

And Let none be allowed, as President, or Tutors, without subscribing those Articles.

Lett the Inspectors Visit the University Twice at least in a year, and assist the Præsident in Regulating all Things, not only then, but also as often as He shall send for them.

Let the Præsident with the Inspectors, Choose the Tutors, and give Directions to them.

Two Tutors may be enough at first. But how shall they be maintained?

Some way must be Thought of, that the publick may pay for their Board. Some such way, as that which provides a Salary for the Præsident.

For their further subsistence, lett there be a convenient Summ Sett upon the Heads of all that are under their Tuition.

VI. There have been many Famous Universities, which have had no Colledges.

Yea, One of the most famous Universities now in Europe, hath Seven or Eight Hundred Students in it, and yet they have no Collegiate Way of Living, but Board here and there in the Town, where they can.

There needs but one Large Room for the stated meetings of all the scholars.

The Synod shall determine the Town, that shall be the Seat of the University. By all means, Lett it be a Sea-port Town.

The Scholars may board att Houses in the Town, where they may be Best provided for.

Only, Lett not the Scholars Board in any Families, but such as the Pastor, and other officers of the Church, may under their Hands allow, as fitt (in regard of their Exemplary Piety,) for that service of Boarding Young Men, that are to be the Hope of the Flock.

Lett the Præsident & Inspectors of the University, Limitt and Retrench the price of Boarding, if any of the Inhabitants begin to oppress the Students in this matter.

If these, or the Like Proposals, may be received, by a Colony famous for True Religion, and in which there are many Pious and Prudent Gentlemen, who can’t but foresee the Vast Consequences of such an Undertaking, as is here proposed; There yett remain many Considerable Things, to be Humbly Offered, relateing to the Laws of their UNIVERSITY, when there shall be (which the Lord Grant) an happy Opportunity for it.

To the Reverend

Mr. Noyes, of Stonington,
Mr. Buckingham, of Say-brook,
Mr. Pierpont, of New-Haven.

II. LETTER OF INCREASE MATHER

September 15, 1701

[From the University Archives]

The writer of this letter had been excluded, nine days previously, from the presidency of Harvard College, for declining to remove from Boston to Cambridge; and was in consequence the more disposed to favor the project of a new institution.

The superscription of the letter is wanting; it was probably addressed to the Rev. James Pierpont, of New Haven, while the reference in the opening sentence was perhaps to the Rev. Thomas Buckingham, of Saybrook.

Boston, Sept. 15, 1701

Revd. & dear Sr.

Not long since a Minister in ye Colony was pleased to desire my Advice concerning an Academical School designed to be erected in ye Colony. I shall suggest a few particulars to you.

In ye Universities in Holland & other foreign Countries, they do not live a Collegiate life, but board in ye Town where ye Academy is; by taking ye Course you may save more ye. a 1000lb in building an House—only tis necessary ye shd. be a Large room hired to attend Disputations, orations & other publick exercises.

A President & two or 3 Tutors may be sufficient for ye ordinary good govermt. of ye School for Academical Learning. If for ye making of Laws, Election of officers &c. yr. shall be 7 Inspectors appointed it may do well, esp'y. if these be ye Pastors of ye next neighboring churches.

Publick Commencements in or. Colledge have of late years proved very expensive & are occasion of much sin. That may be done privately as well as publickly, As many Times in ye universities in England they have no publick Acts but give degrees privately & silently.

The Presidents & Professors in ye Protestant Universities in France were maintained by ye Churches; And ye several Churches were directed by ye Synods wt. they should contribute in order ye unto.

If ye Civil Government, before yr. Charter is taken from ym, shall settle a revenue for ye maintenance of such a school, tis probable ye property will not be taken from you tho Government should.

These things are wt. at present occurr to my Thoughts, wch (as also wt. I have written to Mr. Buckingham of Seabrook) take in good part.

I commend you & yr. undertaking (in wch ye yelfare of yor. Colony & Posterity is greatly concerned) to ye grace of Christ, & remayn, Sr.

Yors. to my power

III. LETTER OF SAMUEL SEWALL

September 17, 1701

[From the University Archives]

Chief Justice Sewall was graduated at Harvard in 1671, and was thus a classmate of Samuel Mather, one of the original Trustees of the College. He had also been for one year a fellow-undergraduate of Abraham Pierson (Harvard 1668), another Trustee.
Sir,

The Letter subscrib’d by Mr. Chauncey, Buckingham, Pier-son, Pierpont & Saltonstall, bearing date Augt. 7th. came to hand Augt. 26. And your own dated Augt. 26, I rec’d 7r. 13th. at my return from Bristow. I gave the inclosed to Mr. Secretary,¹ and we confer’d notes. But it has been a very hurry-ing time with us by reason of the Governour’s power being devolved on the Council,² and the sitting of the Genl. Court the beginning of this Moneth.

I have been thinking, that considering the present distress,³ it may be best to doe as little by the Governmt as is possible with attaining the End. And therefore should not be eagre in building a College or settling Revenues by a Law. But let the Scholars board in the Town, as it is in Holland: and only build a Hall wth. Chamber over it for a Library. Unless you can hire a large House that may accommodat the President, and those Ends also. And so let the Act only contain Author-ity for such a Person, by himself & Tutors under him to Instruct Youth in Academical Learning, and give them De-grees, as the late Reverend & Godly Learned Mr. Charles Chauncey was wont to doe at Cambridge, and as was accus-tomed to be done under his Presidentship. And all persons admitted to any Degrees shall have the same Honor & Respect shown them that Students have or ought to have had who rec’d Degrees at Harvard College from the s’d. Charles Chauncey, or from any other President before or after him in Harvard College at Cambridge above-said. And let the Act oblige the President to pray and expound the Scriptures in the Hall Morning and Evening de die in diem, and ground the Students in the Principles of Religion by reading to them or making ym. Recite the Assemblys Confession of Faith wch.

² Lieutenant Governor Stoughton, who had been Acting Governor of Massa-chusetts (in succession to Sir William Phips, who died in 1695), had died in July, 1701.
³ A bill had been brought before Parliament in the preceding April, to annul the charters of the New-England Colonies, and serious consequences were feared.
is turned into good Latine, as also the Catechises; and Dr. Ames's Medulla. And the Students shall obey the President and Tutors, and conform themselves to such wholesome Orders as shall be appointed subscribing them at their Entrance. And Let the entire Course of Academical Exercises be maintained and the performance of them exacted with all imaginable Strictness & Severity, without dispensation to any.

Mr. Secretary presents his Service to you & the Gentlemen you joind with in your abovementioned Letter. We account our selves honoured in that you have imparted to us a matter of so great Concernment, and hope within these few days to send to you somthing more mature & in form either by the Post or some other good hand . . . . . .

My humble Service to you & ye Gentlemen concernd with you, & to Mrs. Pierpont from Sir,

Your humble Servt.

Sam. Sewall.

I mention the Confession of the Assembly of Divines; bec. Arminianisme is crept even into the Dissenters Annotations, as may be seen upon Hebr. 2, 9, sᵈ. to be done by Mr. Obadiah Hughes.

IV. Letter of Gershom Bulkley

September 27, 1701

[From the University Archives]

The author was a graduate of Harvard in 1655, who had been settled in the ministry in New London and in Wethersfield, but now devoted himself to the practice of medicine, and to law and politics.

His eminent ability was generally conceded; and it is probable that his advice in the present case was desired, as being likely to give in their strongest form the objections which could be alleged against the proposition.

His wife was a sister of Israel Chauncy, one of the Trustees.

Revd. Srs,

Yo're designe is so good yt. if I might & could, yet I would not wittingly deceive you; & go you must give me leave to tell you yt. I have made as much search in ye statutes & elsewhere, as my present incapacity will allow me, but cannot find yt. wch. satisfys me, or (I thinke) will satisfye you, in answer to yo're Querues.

The best encouragment & direction yt. I can find, is in 39 Eliz. 5, compared w'th. 13 Eliz. 17, (for ye founding & incorporating of Hospitalls &c) & w'th. ye Lord Cookes exposition of sd. 39 Eliz. 5. (wch. is in his 2d. Instit. p. 120, &c.) & upon 21 Jac. cap. 1. (Ibid. p. 726,) whereby ye 39 Eliz. 5, is made perpetuall, & some addition made to it: & upon 43 Eliz. 4, (Ibid. p. 707,) whereby provision is made for ye due improvem't of donations made for such pious & charitable uses, & wherein schooles of learning are expressly mentioned. All which notwithstanding, other statutes do disable dissenters or Non-conformists from ye teaching of youth; against wch. yet me thinkes ye Act of Indulgence passed An. 1. of ye King yt. now is, should afford some Remedy.

Now my opinion in every thing is so liable to objections, yt. it behoves me to be slow in shewing it: yet I am so willing to promote so good a worke, yt. I shall adventure to say thus much: Viz. That I do not thinke ye Gen'll Court will be forward to act in it at present; & I doubt it would but issue in a disapoint to you at last if ye should, & possibly in an Accusation against themselves at this time. We all know yt. ye King & Parl't. are above us, & go I should thinke yt. it will be much better to petition his Ma't. to grant a Liberty, ratified by Act of Parl't., for ye founding of a Colledge &c according to ye Tenor of ye statutes abovesd., & under ye favor of ye sd. Act of Indulgence. Tis an old saying, New Lords, new Lawes, & all ye world is mutable; but I thinke this is ye most likely way to prevent a future defeate, if it can be obtained: if not, we are but where we were before, & possibly a little time may enable us better to see what is next best. I wish you would peruse ye statutes aforesd. wth. ye Lord Cokes exposition aforesd., wch. you may do in a little time, & so far to ye satisfaction, or direction at least, yt I hope you will not repent it, or thinke ye time lost. So commending you & this affaire to ye conduct & blessing of God, I am

V. LETTER OF ELEAZAR KIMBERLY

October 1, 1701

[From the University Archives]

The author was a native of New Haven, and had been for most of his life a schoolmaster. From 1696 to his death in 1709 he was Secretary of the Colony of Connecticut.

Newhaven Octbr. 1st: 1701:

Reverd. Sr.:

According to my Promise to you I did Procure for Mr. Bulkley the Statutes at Large, and he hath Considered of the Questions propounded to him, and the Result of his thoughts concerning them is herein Inclosed. I have not Time to Peruse his Papers, but I doe apprehend that all his discourse is grounded upon the Statutes of the Realme of England. I doe apprehend the Questions propounded by the Reverend Elders are very weighty and farre too high for me to Resolve, Yet I doe not apprehend that the Resolution of them is to be grounded upon the Statute Lawes of England, for I am fully of the opinion of a person Learned in the Lawe who not Long Since declared in the Court of Assistants that the Statutes of England and acts of Parliament are not in force in the forreign Plantations, Excepting only such Statutes &c wherein the Plantations were named. And I doubt not but Lands may be given for the promoting of Good Literature in this Land without any offence to the Statutes of Mortmain, which were ordained onely to prevent Extravagance & Excesse &c; and I doubt not but the Kings of England will always be ready to Promote Good Learning in all their dominions, and to continue any Estates that are given for that use without any alteration as I observe his present Majestie hath done in the Charter of the Massachusetts Province. Sr. by Reason of my Illnesse and other Emergencies I have had no time to consider of any of the Questions propounded by the Reverend Elders, and if I had had more time, my opinion concerning them would have been of Little worth unless I had the advantage of learned authors for my direction, which I have not, but Sr. I suppose that worthye Mr. Bulkly hath given such Light in these affairs, that there is no need for me to say any thing. Sr. in Great hast with my hearty desire that so good a work as is now under the Consideration of the Reverend Elders may prosper and succeed I take Leave, and shall ever Remain,

Rever'd Sir,

Your most humble Servant

for the Reverend Mr. Pierson.

VI. LETTER OF JOHN ELIOT

[From the University Archives]

The writer was a grandson of the Apostle Eliot, who after graduating at Harvard in 1685, had entered on the ministry; but after removal to the house of his uncle, the minister of Guilford, Connecticut, he had taken up the legal profession, and had become active in political life.

In 1701 he was a leading member of the General Assembly. As a resident of Windsor, he was a parishioner of the Rev. Samuel Mather, who was one of the original Trustees of the College, though inactive on account of broken health.

This letter was doubtless written in the early part of October, 1701.

Reverend Sr.

Yours of the 17th. Sepbr. I received. I thank you for communicating to me that great design. Were there no nearer reasons the weight of the matter the shortness of the time you allow me and the want of the thoughts of others to correct and improve mine disable me offering any that are worthy your desire. You first enquire whether our Government can erect a Collegiate Scool which by Law can't be overset. Sr. I think such a Scool may be erected which cannot be overthrown by Law Regularly Executed. (In some measure to maintain which under a future Goverment a wise and resolute assembly may be a good means.) My reasons are these. To erect such a Scool is neither Repugnant to the Laws of England nor an entrenchment on the Kings Prerogative. No act or Law (according to my sence of the matter) in any of the Plantations is deemed to be Repugnant to the Laws of England unless it be contrary to an act of the Parliament of England wherein such Plantation is expressed or evidently Intended. And I know no act of Parliament sais such a Scool may not be erected in the Plantations. Neither do I think It is deemed at home an intrenchment on the Prerogative of the King tho many here are suspicious it is. For manifest occasion has been given to declare it and such like things so if it were so, not only from the former erecting and incorporating the Colledge at Cambridge about which there has been so many Transactions at the Council Board, But also from the Erecting Societies by Law both in Boston and New York in their several Towns, priviledging and enabling them to dispose of Land, to sue and be sued and in many other things to act as incorporated companies. So that unless Prerogative greatens more than of late it has done, or unless hereafter, which is a hazard very necessary to be provided against, our assemblys are so modelled as to repeal their own act (if they prove so good as to make one) It is hopefull such a scool may stand. Here I'le offer one thought whether one privilidge to be granted to the Governors of s^d Scool should not be to send two to represent the s^d Scool in the General Assembly as the Universities in England have, by which they and so we may have great advantages. Your second Question is concerning securing and manageing Donations. Sr. The best way I can at present think on Is to have them given to a third person or persons in trust to the use of s^d Scool to be managed and disposed by the major part of s^d 8 Elders and s^d Master for the time being. But because every one that may give will not have skill to do it well, It will be very convenient to insert certain Provisoes in the act too Large here to set down. As to the Title of the Master of the s^d Scool, It seems to me to be of no greater consequence than this, That which shows Least of Grandeur will be Least obnoxious. As to your Fourth Quere I am much at a loss in my own thoughts, Yet I'le offer That not standing on a Royall foundation we cannot give authentick or Legal Degrees. Something instead of them of good use and incouragement amongst ourselves we may. But without a great deal of prudence in that matter, Our enemies will take advantage to injure us. To your fift, The placing goverment in those 9 has a prospect of very happy Consequences. To limit to an age may prevent the inconvenience of of their being all superannuated which when numerous may easily and perhaps almost always hapen. To your Last Sr. I think Private Benefactors may so direct the use of their Donations to particular persons officiating in such a Scool or business and to the particular services therof at the discretion of such persons as shall ever be known by some distinguishing carecter, as to be of very good effect, but not equall to an Establishment by Law, for defect of power of goverment and such priviledges not in the power of benefactors to give. To improve ye advantages of both ways will not be too much. Nothing in our compass is to be omitted to prevent future hazard and to fix a thing of such Consequence upon sure and lasting foundations.

You see Sr.

I am your obedient servt.

VII. \textbf{Letter of Samuel Sewall and Isaac Addington}

October 6, 1701

enclosing a draft of a Charter

[From the University Archives]

These documents, sent in pursuance of the promise made in Judge Sewall’s letter of September 17, are in Addington’s hand, while the Rev. James Pierpont has contributed some additions and emendations to the text of the enclosure, which are here indicated in footnotes.

Boston, Octobr 6\textsuperscript{th} 1701.

Gent

We crave your pardon, That we have made you wait long for so little. We might frame an Excuse from the present circumstances of Affairs, and say, Multa nos impedierunt: But there is another cause that made us slow and feeble in our progress, not knowing what to doe for fear of over-doing. And that is the reason there is no mention made of any Visitation, which is exceedingly proper and beneficial: All humane Societies standing in need of a check upon them: But we knew not how to call or qualify it, but that in a little time it might probably prove subversive of your Designe. We on purpose gave your Accademie as low a name as we could that it might the better stand in wind and weather, not daring to Incorporate it, least it should be liable to be served with a Writ of Quo Warranto.

We pray you to accept of the few inclosed minutes for an Act, and should have travelled further in it, if your Instructions or our own invention had dictated to us, not knowing well what Scheme to project, because we could not tell how far your Government will encourage the designe.

We should be very glad to hear of flourishing Schools and a Colledge at Connecticut, and it would be some releife to us against the sorrow we have conceived for the decay of them in this Province. And as the end of all Learning is to fit men to search the Scriptures that thereby they may come to the saving knowledge of God in Christ: We make no doubt but you will oblige the Rector to expound the Scriptures diligently morning and evening.

Praying God to direct and bless you, beyond what yourselves do understand or hope for

We take leave and remain

Srs.

SAM SEWALL
ISÁ. ADDINGTON

To Mr. Thomas Buckingham Minister of the Gospel at Seybrooke.

Connecticut in New England.

An Act for Founding of a Collegiate School.

Whereas several well disposed and publick spirited Persons, of their sincere regard to, and zeal for the upholding and propagating of the Christian protestant Religion by a succession of Learned and Orthodox men, have expressed their Earnest desires That a Collegiate School be founded and suitably Endowed within this his Majesties Colony of Connecticut, For the Educating and Instructing of Youth in good Literature, Arts and Sciences; That so by the blessing of Almighty God they may be the better fitted for publick Employment both in the Church and in the Civil State.

And have manifested their willingness to contribute towards the charge of such School.

To the Intent therefore That all due Encouragement be given to such pious Resolutions, And that so necessary and religious an Undertaking may be set forward and supported.

Be it Enacted by the Governour and Company of the said Colony of Connecticut in General Court assembled, And it is Enacted and Ordained by the Authority of the same, That there be a Collegiate School forthwith founded and set up in the Town of within this Colony, And that A. B. and C. Masters of Art and Ministers of the Gospel, and E. F. Gent being all Inhabitants within the said Colony, be and hereby are nominated and appointed Trustees for the said School; with full power to contract agree for, erect and

1 Add "by petition."
2 For "a Collegiate School be founded and suitably Endowed," read: "full Liberty & priviledge be granted for the founding and suitably Endowing a collegiate School."
3 Add "unto certain undertakers."
4 For "have," read: "sundry having."
5 For "charge," read: "encouragement."
6 For this entire paragraph read: "Be it Enacted by the Governour and Company of the said Colony of Connecticut in General Court now assembled And it is Enacted and Ordained by the Authority of the same; That there be full liberty, priviledge & right granted unto A. B. and C. Ministers of the Gospel, being all Inhabitants within the said Colony, & now proposed to us as Partners in £d. undertaking for the said School, to erect, set up, form, direct, order, improve, establish, & at all times for ye future in all suitable ways to encourage the same, in such convenient place or places, & in such form, manner & Rules as to them shall seem meet & most conducive to the aforesaid end thereof, and to Imploy the money which shall be granted by this Court, or otherwise contributed to that use accordingly from time to time & at all times henceforward." set up such house and housing in aforesaid as shall be necessary and convenient for the holding and keeping of such School, and to furnish the same for that end, and to Imploy the money which shall be granted by this Court, or otherwise contributed to that use accordingly.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the beforenamed Trustees together with such others as they shall associate to themselves, so as not to exceed the number of \(^2\) in the whole, and their successors, to be from time to time nominated by themselves as any one or more of those first named or associated shall happen to dye, Be and hereby are further Impowered and Authorized from time to time and at all times for ever, to have the oversight, direction, rule, Order and Government of the said School; And to provide, place and settle a Rector with Tutors and other Officers proper and necessary for the teaching, Instructing, ruling and governing of the Schollars that from time to time shall be sent thither for Education, And to make and constitute such Rules, Orders and Laws for that end, as are usual and customary in such Societies; so as such Rules, Orders and Laws be not repugnant to the Laws of the Government; As also to confer degrees upon such Schollars educated there, who by their good manners and proficiency in Learning shall be judged worthy of the same, as is usual and accustomed at Harvard Colledge in Cambridge within the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England.

And whereas the principles of the Christian protestant Religion are excellently comprised in the Confession of Faith composed by the Reverend Assembly of Divines sitting at Westminster, And by the Learned and Judicious Dr. Ames in his Medulla Theologiae, The Rector of the said School is to give in charge, and take special care that the said Booke be diligently read in the Latin Tongue, and well studied by all Schollars educated in the said School.

And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid

\(^1\) For Trustees read: "'Partners & undertakers.'"

\(^2\) Insert "'eleven.'"
That the said Trustees and their Successors be and hereby are further Impoured to have accept take acquire & purchase any Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments to the use of the said School, not exceeding the value of five hundred pounds per annum, and any Goods, Chattels sum or sums of money whatsoever, as from time to time shall be freely given bequeathed devised or setted by any person or persons whatsoever upon, and to and for the use of the said School, towards the founding Erecting or Endowing of the same, And to Sue for recover and receive all such gifts, Legacies, bequests, annuities, Rents issues and Profits arisings therefrom and to imploy the same accordingly. And out of the Estate Revenues, Rents, profits and incomes accruing and belonging to the said School, to support and pay the Rector, Tutors and other Officers their respective annual salaries or allowances.

VIII. Offer of James Fitch

October 16, 1701

to give land and materials to provide for the erection of a College building

[From the University Archives]

Major Fitch, of Plainfield, Connecticut, was at this date, and for many years, one of the Governor's Assistants, or Upper House of the General Assembly; and his offer appears to have been designed to facilitate the passage of the Charter. He was a son of the first minister of Norwich, Connecticut, and one of the largest landed proprietors in the Colony.

Subsequently, the land now offered was the subject of a prolonged legal controversy; but it has not seemed necessary to print these details.

In that it hath pleased ye Lord our God as a token for Good to us & children after us To put it into the hearts of his faithfull ministers to take soe great paines, and be at soe considerable charge for setting up of a Coledgiat School amongst us & now for farther promoating, of this God pleasing worke, I humbly freely & heartily offer, on demand to provid glass for a house, and if people doe not come up to offer what is reasonable & needfull, that I will then provid nails of all sorts to be used in building a house & hall. 2ly I give a farme, 637 Aers of land & when I come home I will send ye draft and laying out to Mr. Dan'l. Taylor that he may make such a Deed proper in such a case; the farme I value at 150£. I will allsoe take some pains to put it in a way of yearely profitt. 30£ charge I hope will bring 20£ per yeare in a little time.

X. LETTER OF SAMUEL MATHER

[From the University Archives]

The author was a nephew of Increase Mather, and a classmate at Harvard College of Judge Samuel Sewall. He had preached for some time, in Milford and in Branford, Connecticut, before going in 1681 to Windsor, where he continued until his death in 1728. The condition of his health prevented him from taking active part at any time in the business of the College; though he continued nominally a Trustee until superseded by legal action in 1724.

Windsor, Oct. 27, 1701.

Rev'd. Srs.

I have been ill off late and now cannot write with my own hand; wherefore I use another, to signifie unto you, in answer to your Lines, that my heart is much in that matter of a Collegiate Schole, & will do w't. I can to further it. My mind is fully fixt in that New-haven town Plat is ye best place for such a Schole. I have not been able as yet to discourse ye neighbouring ministers concerning yt. matter. This all, att present, from your ffriend & fellow Labourer in the Gospel of Christ.

XI. LETTER OF JAMES NOYES

October 28, 1701

[From the University Archives]

The author, son of the Rev. James Noyes, of Newbury, Massachusetts, was born in March, 1640, and graduated at Harvard College in 1659. He began to preach in Stonington, Connecticut, in 1664, and continued there until his death in 1719. He was the senior member of the Board of Trustees of the Collegiate School.

He had attended the meeting of the General Court when the charter was granted; but in the present letter excuses himself from coming to the first Trustee meeting.

His brother and classmate, Moses Noyes, the minister of Lyme, was made a Trustee in 1703.

Stonningt. Octobr. 28th. 1701.

Reu'd. St. Yours came to hand subscribed by the other Reu'd. Gentl'n. Vnto them & you I giue my seruice w't. hearty thanks for your kindness when w't. you. In answer to your letter, I return that I am aged crazie my will is more than my streneth. We rod early & late coming home & I haue not been well since I came home. I know noe call I have to come or any trust put in me as to that matter, further then voluntarily for my self I am engaged; to me it is a journey over two rivers, & I am at the extreame part of the Collony. I haue not seen Mr. Treat since my return. Prouably my brother will be with you. I doe hereby desire & impower him to gie out of my books at his house my full proportion, & in nothing I would be behind hand in so publick a good & shall take all opportunities to promote it but hope Mr. Saltonstall a young active man will excite others of this County, my remoteness disadvantageth me to Conuerse wth. them. I humbly praye the god of heauen to direct & spirit you in the matter (that are intrusted & haue a full Call thereto) & also to succeed the motion wth. his smile thereon, for his glory & the publick interest, & also I beleive what you doe therein will be accepted of god & men & will at last haue a full reward, in wch. I would put in for a share according to my poore capacitie, under many disaduantages whoe must always humbly subscribe my self

Your real friend & very servant

Ja. Noyes Sen^r.

I send to you because I haue a letter at the post house in wch
I can putt this & you are more in the waye of the post then
Mr. Buckingham I suppose.

XII. Letter of Samuel Sewall

October 29, 1701

[From the University Archives]

Mr. Woodbridge, who is mentioned in the last paragraph of this letter, was named as an original Trustee; but was not present to take part in the earliest conferences of the Board.

Boston; Octr. 29, 1701.

Sir,

Your Letters of the 15th. & 16th. Inst. are come to hand wch. gave Mr. Addington and me a great deal of pleasure, to see that you had so soon got an Act pass'd for the erecting of a College in your Colony; and to have Mr. Buckingham’s own Hand as a sure Testimony of his being alive; after the Rumor we had of his being dead; which made us sad.

It would be an ample Reward of any thing we have done for you, if you would send us a fair authentick Copy of the Act: wch. we desire; as also of the Place where the College is to be, so soon as you have Appointed it. . . . . .

Present our hearty Service to Mr. Chauncey, Buckingham, Pierson and Saltonstall.

Mr. Timo. Woodbridge remains lame here by reason of a Humor fallen into his right Legg. We are generally in health.

I am Sir, your Servt.

XIII. PROCEEDINGS OF THE TRUSTEES

November 11, 1701

[From an early copy of the original minutes in the University Archives]

At a Meeting of the Collegiate undertakers holden at Say Brook Novembr 11th Ano Dom.\textsuperscript{ni} 1701

Present the Rev\textsuperscript{d} Israel Chauncey, Thomas Buckingham, Abraham Pierson, Samuel Andrew, James Pierpont, Noadiah Russell, Joseph Webb

Whereas it was the glorious publick design of our now blessed fathers in their Removal from Europe into these parts of America, both to plant, and under ye Divine blessing to propagate in this Wilderness, the blessed Reformed, Protestant Religion, in ye purity of its Order, and Worship, not onley to their posterity, but also to ye barbarous Natives: In which great Enterprize they wanted not the Royal Commands, & favour of his Majtie. Charles ye Second to authorize, & invigorate them.

We their unworthy posterity lamenting our past neglects of this Grand errand, & Sensible of our equal Obligations better to prosecute ye Same end, are desirous in our Generation to be Serviceable therunto—Whereunto the Liberal, & Religious Education of Suitable youth is under ye blessing of God, a chief, & most probable expedient. Therefore that we might not be wanting in cherishing the present observable, pious disposition of many wellminded people to Dedicate their Children, & Substance unto God in such a good service, and being our selves wth Sundry other Rev\textsuperscript{d} Elders not only desired by our godly people to undertake as Trustees for Erecting, forming, Ordering, & Regulating a Collegiate School, for ye advancement of such Education; But having also obtained of our present Religious Goverment, both full Liberty, & Asistance by their Donations to such an use, tokens likewise that particular persons will not be wanting in their benefience, Do in duty to God, & the weal of our Countrey undertake in ye aforesd design. And being now met according to the liberties, & Aids granted to us for ye use aforesd. Do Order & Appoint that there shal, & hereby is Erected & formed a Collegiate School, Wherein shal be taught ye Liberal Arts, & Languages in such place, or places in Connecticut as the sd Trustees, with their Associates, & Successors, do, or shal from time to time see cause to Order. A report to the Governor of the Colony of the progress of the scheme which he had helped to its passage through the General Court.

Say-Brooke, 15 10br., 1701.

Honorable Sr.

Considering the Countenance, It hath pleased yo^r. honor, to afford unto the designe of founding a Collegiate Schoole, within this Government, I have thought it no lesse than my duty to informe yo^r. honor what proceedings have been made in that affaire, since the Cort.

Seven of the Trustees, mentioned by the honorable assembly had a meeting, at this towne 12 Nobr. last and a very Comfortable unanimous meeting wee had, very well agreeing upon the person, who under the name of Rector might preside in, and take the charge of sd. Schoole (viz) the Revrd. Mr. Pierson. wee alsoe had no great difficultie about the place (viz) Say-brooke (in case no Considerations comes in to alter or thoughts) that appearing to bee the place for the best accomodati° of the Colonie in generall, and adjacent places; whereup° Mr. Nathaniell Lynde by subscription engaged a legall deed of his house in the Town plat with eight or ten acres of land Adjacent, and three or four other persons subscribed to the value of fifty pounds in money: provided the sd. Schoole bee at Say-brooke.

A letter from the Trustees was left with mee to the people of Kelingworth, and I have been there and offered it to them; I the last weeke received their answr°, the summe of which, is that they doe not see it their duty to consent unto the parting with Mr. Pierson. I doubt if they should persist in that answr° it might bee an occasion to worke some hindrance to, and possibly some confusion about that so good, and greate a worke: yet or° god whom wee desire to serve is able to make darknesse to bee light before us and unto him wee desire to looke.

Sr. This very briefe account I thought my duty to offer to yo'. honor, humbly requesting that correction or further direction that in yo'. wisdome you shall thinke propper—which with the tender of my humble service, desireing god to bee with and blesse you in all yo'. publicke and more personall parts of duty is all at present fr Sr. yo'. honors very humble servant in a letter from the westward, I find these sayings which I thinke best to transcribe to yo'. selfe verbatim.

Addressed to the Rev. Gurdon Saltonstall, the minister of New London, and pastor of Governor Winthrop.

Say-Brooke 25. ffigb. 1701/2

After hearty Condolence of ye governors sorrowe, and prayers yt. he may be spared in ys. or. criticall hour; however yt. he and you may bee prepared for the divine good pleasure. These may serve to suggest whether it would not be best to jogge Mr. Noyes and Saltonstall, to propose to the Governr. that hee would testifie his regard to the Collegiate School. Hee has under god given it breath, and a tender beginning, his benevolence would doubtlesse norishe it to farther strength; bee an honorable good worke, and doubtlesse acceptable unto god: its pity he should forget it, or it loose his kindnesse for want of a word.

I thought meete to hand these sayings to yo:r. selfe, and leave them to yo:r. and Mr. Noyes prudence to make of them what you thinke good. I have neither Skill nor Corage in manageing such affaires. . . .

Please Sir to accept o:r. services to yo:r. selfe and ladies, and son, and all friends,

I am Sr. yo:r. humble servant

XVIII. Letter of Thomas Buckingham

April 27, 1702

[From the University Archives]

The Mr. Taylor mentioned in this letter was Daniel Taylor, of Saybrook.

Say-Brooke 27. Aprill, 1702

Honored Sr.

I procured Mr. Taylor to draw a draft of a deed of your farme to ye Collegiate Schoole, and carried it to N. Haven, for correctio. and emendatio.: ye first fault found with it was yt it was to a Collegiate Schoole in Say-Brooke: ye second was yt yo. Consort, her name and consent was not in it. Of these I thought good to give intimatio. that so you may send mee her name, and her consent, and if you doe with her consent to have it to ye Collegiate Schoole in Connecticut without fixing any particular place or no. That so wee may not labor in vaine. A strong designe hath risen up to carry it farther westward: it is not yet fixed; whether the continuing it in an hovering posture bee to advantage time will discover. . . . . .

Mr. Pierson hath not yet given his answr. positive about his remove; hee at present taketh care of appearing students at Kenelworth, and upon signification of his resolve to remove it is agreed that care bee taken for his accommodation in Say-Brooke . . . . .

Please to accept o. hearty service to yo. selfe and ladie.

I am Sr. yo. humble servant

XXI. AN ACT OF THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY
October, 1703

[From the printed Colonial Records, vol. 4, p. 440, Hartford, 1868]

It is ordered and enacted: That no schollar being a student in the Collegiate School, shall be entertain'd in the publick list of male persons, nor be rated for his head; . . and that the persons of all such schollars shall be exempted from watching and warding and all other such publick service, during the whole time that they shall continue in the said school.

XXII. AN ACT OF THE GOVERNOR AND COUNCIL OF CONNECTICUT
October 21, 1703

[From the printed Colonial Records, vol. 4, p. 454, Hartford, 1868]

The Governor, with his Assistants in Council, forming the Upper House of the General Assembly, held also separate sessions, in the intervals between the sessions of the General Court,—as in this case.

Whereas the Rever'd. trustees of the Collegiate School erected within this Colonie have pursuant to the lawe, title Briefs, pag. 11th, made application to the Govern'r. and Council to obtein approbation for the raising such a summe or summes within this Colonie by a brief or such like method as shall be needfull for procuring and upholing a tutor, and for further promoting of the said school by building or otherwise: the Council having taken the said motion into consideration doe see good to approve of the same, and doe hereby allow and impower the said rever'd. trustees to make use of any such methods in the nature of briefs throughout this Colonie for the end or ends aforesaid: and furthermore the Govern'r. and Councill considering the very hopefull progresse the rev'd. trustees have already made in the said affair, and the comfortable appearance that the said school under the prudent conduct of the s'd. trustees will (through the divine blessing) conduce to the advancing of the interest of religion and generall good of this Colonie, doe therefore hereby recommend the aforesaid approved measures to all persons within the said Colonie, not doubting but there will be in all a generall readinesse in their respective stations, and according to their respective circumstances to forward so good a worke.

Present

Mr Buckingham
Mr Pierson
Mr Woodbridge
Mr Andrew
Mr Pierpont
Mr Noad: Russel
Mr Samll Russel

Order'd that the Collegiate Treasurer pay to the Rev'd Rector the Sum of thirty five pounds in Country pay in Consideration of His Labours in s'd. School.

It is further Requested that the Rev'd. Mr Buckingham Do in Behalf of the Trustees, Signify to Sr Hart The present Tutor our thanks for his hitherto Service: And that we Request his Continuance there, and for His incouragement do offer him fifty pounds in Country Pay at Country price per annum and so in proportion for such time as he shall see Cause to remain a Tutor, The money for the pupils Included in s'd sum.
For the preventing of irreligion idleness and other immorals in the Students it is ordered yt Every Non Graduated Student without sufficient Reason absenting from the publick worship of God on Sabbaths or Publick Lectures in the town, or fasts or Thanksgivings Shall be amerced By The Rector for Every such Default not above Eight pence; for Every omission of College prayer without sufficient Reason The delinquent shall be amerced By sd Rector not above two pence Each time; for Every omission of appointed Exercises The Delinquent Shall Be amerced, by sd Rector or his proper Tutor not above four pence for Each default; for other immorals The Rector is hereby Desired, according to his wisdom, To punish By publick Rebuoke or Imposition of Confessions, or admonition, or amercement not Exceeding five Shillings for Each Crime, according to the merit of the same: and we further order that Record Be made of such delinquents and from time to time there Be Delivered to the parents or Guardians of Such Persons an account of the sum Such Students are or shall Be amerced for the aforesaid faults.

Ordered that the following memorial be Sent with the Brief to all the towns in the Colony where it may Be proper To improve the Same.

God having as a Token for Good, Disposed our Good people to Encourage The Settlement of a Collegiate School which Through the Good hand of providence hath been prospered for the time as much as might Reasonably be Expected, the Trustees unto whom the Government hath Committed the Care of that affair have thought it fit in the first Place to take notice with Due thankfullness to God of the Liberal offers made by Sundry Gentlemen and well disposed persons of Late Manifesting their Readiness To Incourage a Design so manifestly Subservient to the interest of Religion as well as to the weal of our people and their prosperity; and next from a sense of that trust Reposed in the Trustees, and of the just Expectations of the Country, That we should Consult as far as is Reasonable The accommodation And Benefit of the Colony in General, we judge it Seasonable to Propose to Benefactors that have offered or Shall, That they would Advance Such Sums as God Shall Incline ym. to in the Service of Sd. Design with a Regard to the publick and General Conveniency Which ought to be Considered By all, and at the Same time to Signify What further Sums they Shall be ready to advance If that the Trustees may in Complyance with their trust Consult the particular Accommodation of Such Benefactors.

It was farther ordered yt the Collegiate Trustees pay or Cause To be paid, an hundred pounds in Country pay unto the Rev'd Rector or his order at or before the 25 Day of March next Ensuing the Date hereof, which is on the Consideration, that he Remove himself and family to Say-Brook, and there settle for the Better Service of the Collegiate School. XXIV. Statement of the Trustees to the Students
February 23, 1704
[From the University Archives]

In the handwriting of the Rev. James Pierpont.

To the Collegiate School in Killingsworth by the Trustees att a meeting in Brainford feb 23: 1703/4

A memorial:

Whereas by the good hand of God or Country have been moved to promote a Collegiate Society in this Colony, & have seen cause to designate ye care of ye same with sundry of
y\textsuperscript{r.} [=their] Ministers, with full power & authority according to y\textsuperscript{r.} best discretion to erect, regulate & att all times, to inspect & order ye s\textsuperscript{d.} Society so as may according to y\textsuperscript{r.} judgm\textsuperscript{t.} best of all (thrû y\textsuperscript{e} divine bless\textsuperscript{z}) answer ye ends designed,—as we must with thankfulness to [God] acknowledging the hitherto success & hopeful appearance of ye enterprise, so we account it or\textsuperscript{r.} duty according to ye trust committed to us, carefully to caution ag\textsuperscript{st.} such spirits & methods, as have a tendency to discourage so great & happy an undertaking.

It may be sufficiently known that according to ye reasonable & laudible usag\textsuperscript{e} in such like societys the nomination & appointment of ye Rector, & Tut\textsuperscript{r.} or Tut\textsuperscript{rs.} needful in this School Appertains to ye Trustees as those accounted capable to judg who are most fitt for such stations, & obliged in faithfulness to introduce, support & encourage those against whom sufficient objections are now made.

There\textsuperscript{r.} we esteem it or\textsuperscript{r.} proper province to provide for this School such Tut\textsuperscript{r.} or Tutors as are or shall be from time to time needful, & the same to support & encourage in ye service until they shall see cause to remove or untill bef\textsuperscript{r.} att least 2 thirds of ye whole number of Trustees, such reasons shall be offered, as they shall judg sufficient object\textsuperscript{ns.} ag\textsuperscript{st.} ye continuance of s\textsuperscript{d.} Tut\textsuperscript{r.} or Tut\textsuperscript{rs.}, where\textsuperscript{r.} having an account of some discontents in some of ye students for ye time being in relation to ye present Tut\textsuperscript{r.}, until we shall have in an orderly method ye reasons of them laid before us, as we cannot but hope that, too trivial exceptions will be soon rejected, by those whose interest & duty it is to cherish ye tender state of ye Society for ye own profit, so att present we desire & expect that the students according to ye several degrees pay those regards we. are proper not only to ye Rev\textsuperscript{rd.} Rect\textsuperscript{r.} & unto ye p\textsuperscript{rs.} Tut\textsuperscript{r.}, Sr. Hart, whose introduction we well approve, are thankful for his hitherto service, desire his further lab\textsuperscript{rs.} in that capacity, & hereby assure him that support in his trust, & encouragem\textsuperscript{t.} for his lab\textsuperscript{rs.} we are capable of.
XXV. Letter of Thomas Buckingham

[From the University Archives]

Rector Pierson appears to have intimated to Mr. Pierpont that a more satisfactory modus vivendi might be arrived at by the payment of more money for his services.

Revʳnd. and Dear Sr.

Yoʳs. per my son, came to hand last night, having this good opportunity, I thought good to signify that I do not know what Mr. Pierson wrote to yoʳ. selfe but for my own part, I neither heard nor thought of a meeting of the Trustees to make any Adition of money to the Rector. hee intimated not a word to me of any pecuniary workeing his way with his people or for Transportation, &c. If I did miswrite or yoʳ. selfe did mistake the case, it is meete that wee come to a right understanding: I do believe some disappointment with reflection some where will bee which if it could be prevented is desireable.

I hope to bee more large by my son; at present I may not enlarge, because the bearer waiteth, onely to signify that wee are by the good hand of god in competent health and to desire you to accept from us both or. hearty respects to both yoʳ-selves and yoʳs.

XXVI. LETTER OF ABRAHAM PIERSON

September 21, 1705

with the answer of the town of Killingworth

[From a copy in the Killingworth Town Records]

To the Inhabitants of Killingworth:

Sirs,

Whereas I perceive that there is a misapprehension of my Answer at New haven to the Reverend trustees of the Collegiate School, which was latly published, in part among you, I do declare as followeth, viz, that in their motion to me there were two things;

1: their Desire that I should take the Care & Conduck of the said School.
2: that I should Remove with the sd. Schol to the place by them appointed for it.

to the 1. of these I Answered as you have heard; the true meaning whereof was, that I Durst not Deny a Divine Call to attend that work, so far as was consistant with my ministerial work among you: and accordingly I have endeavoured practise ever since. To the 2nd of them, not Discarning a present call thereunto, after much perswasion & pressing to it, my Answer was to act therin as God should open my way: in which opening of my way, I ever included yo'r consent to my removal and never obliged myselfe to Remove without it, & by your consent I mean your Genaral and Joynjt consent, and not nernly a major part of you consenting; that as through Divine favour I have lived among you in peace, now about 11 years, so if I be removed from you, which is not at all of my seecing, I may leave you in peace, & have hope that the God of peace will be with you, and as a testimony of your genarall and joynjt consent to my Removal, (if I do remot,) I expect your ingagement by sufficient sureties to Reimburse and accoding to agreement, without which I shall not part with the house, & without this ingagement I shall not thinck that I have a sufficient expression of your Consent to my removal.

Abraham Pierson.

September 21: 1705.

To the Reverend Mr. Abraham Pairson

Reverend Sirs,

In answer to the writing of September ye 21, 1705, given in to us by John Crane wherein in you do declare that the motion of the Reverend trustees to your selfe was, that you wold take the care of the Collegiate Schoole and: 2d to Remove with sd. Schoole, to the first said your Answer was that you Durst not deny a Divine call to attend sd. worke so far as was Consistant with your ministerial worke amongst us and accordingly have practised, To which we do declare that it is our oppinion that it is not, or like to be Consistant with your ministeriall worke amongst us to attend sd. School as heitherto. To the 2d. you say you Ever Included our Consent to the opening of your waye, to which we Answer that we shall not endeaever to act in that matter any firther than we haue allready Don.

This voted in a towne meeting November ye 2, 1705.

XXVII. Letter of Abraham Pierson

January 12, 1706

[From the University Archives]

As the result of this circular letter to the Trustees, Phineas Fiske, of the class of 1704, entered on a very successful tutorship.

Reverend Sirs

Service, and due respects premised. I suppose you may haue observerd the insuccessfulnesse of our endeavours in seeking to obtaine Mr Whitman to be a tutor here, by his being called to farmingtown. that failing, I had hopes, provision would be made for us, on that account by your meeting this week and that failing I haue no other way to relieve the present necessity, but to offer the case to your selues, where you are, and desire your speedy and effectual care thereabout. Sir Whitlesy hath as substitute to Mr Hart, attended the freshmen, but is not satisfied to go on so, and the freshmen are not satisfied to be without a fixed tutor. So that there is a necessity of fixing a tutor without delay. One of the freshmen viz Sumner hath deserted us, and is gone, designing (as I hear) to leave off his learning, and more of them may draw off, if they have not a settled tutor, by the want whereof, they may seem to be neglected, as to what they reasonably expect. if we send not to cambridge (which is by some of yourselves serously objected against) it may seem to fall between Sir fisk, and Sir Whitlesy, both good scholars and capable of such an emrouement, though one of them hath more seniority both in age and standing, than the other, and also hath bin now a considerable time absent from the School, and familiarity with the scholars, and lesse lyable to be objected against by the scholars. Whether one of these, and which of them, or some other, you incline to, and pitch upon, I desire to know, as soon as may be. and if you pitch upon Sir fisk, I desire that he may be treated with, about it, by one of yourselves, and his coming hastened. I desire that this letter, with what you shall please to add thereunto, may be transmitted from one of you to another, as far as fairfield, and your sentiments communicated, and please to let me know your resolution, if it may be by the next post. We must haue a majority of the whole concurring: if your minds be known and concurring, probably more will concurr with you. Sir Whitlesy is by bodily infirmity made lesse constant than he would be, in attending the freshmen.

Sirs, your humble servant,

Abrahe: Pierson

Kellingworth, jan. 12, 1705/6.
XXVIII. Draft of Resolutions Submitted to the Trustees

[From the University Archives]

These undated resolutions, in the handwriting of the Rev. James Pierpont, were probably drawn up in September, 1706; as the records of the Trustees for that period are wanting, it is uncertain whether they were actually passed.

Ordered that the Rev'd. Rector, Tnt & Students in ye Collegiate School att p'sent p'siding in Kennelworth be removed unto ye Town of Say-brook, early next spring, pursuant to a former act of ye Trustees made for ye settlem't of sd. School there, att a meeting held Sept 30: 1702: & accordingly request ye Rev'd. Mr. Buckingham [& Rector] to take care that the donats. yt. are or shall be subscribed for ye reparation of ye house given for use of sd School be laid out for yt. and when & as he shall see cause.

having originally determined to render ye liberal education of students in ye Collegiate School as easy for parents as we may, we further order that diplomas or Licences shall be granted to ye candidates as appointed, & forbid all other fees, gratuities donations to be made by any of ye students unto those that have for ye time being ye inspection & governmt. of sd School besides twenty shillings pay to ye Rect for each person receiving sd diploma or licence.

XXIX. Votes of the Town of Killingworth

November 7 and December 24, 1706

[From the Town Records]

Rector Pierson died in March following.

[From a copy in Sewall's Letter-Book, printed in the Collections of the Massachusetts Historical Society, vol. 1, 6th series, p. 354, Boston, 1886; with corrections from an earlier MS. copy in the University Archives]

Sir,

I have sent the five Volumns of Pole's Synopsis Criticorum, per Mr. Simon Smith, for the use of your Collegiat School. They have been Transported from Boston to Woodbury; and back again. If it please God they get well to Saybrook, I would have them rest there, and move no more. My Service to you, and the Gent'n. Trustees, desiring your Acceptance of this Token of my being a Wellwisher to the Prosperity of your College; tho possibly, it may import the less increase of our own, I hope the Interests of Christ's Kingdom in general, will be promoted; wch. is that we should aim at. Jeremiah Dummer
May 22, 1711

[From a copy printed in the Rev. Dr. Leonard Bacon's
Historical Discourses, New Haven, 1839, p. 189]

Dr. Bacon probably obtained this extract from some member of the Pierpont family; but the location of the original is unknown.

The writer was a graduate of Harvard in 1699, and from 1710 to 1721 was Agent of the Province of Massachusetts in London; he also served the Connecticut Colony as its Agent from 1712 to 1730.

This letter contains the earliest known reference to any attempt to interest Governor Yale in the Collegiate School which now bears his name.

To the Rev. James Pierpont.

London, 22d May, 1711.

. . . . . . Here is Mr. Yale, formerly Governor of Fort George in the Indies, who has got a prodigious estate, and now by Mr. Dixwell sends for a relation of his from Connecticut to make him his heir, having no son. He told me lately, that he intended to bestow a charity upon some college in Oxford, under certain restrictions which he mentioned. But I think he should much rather do it to your college, seeing he is a New England and I think a Connecticut man – If therefore when his kinsman comes over, you will write him a proper letter on that subject, I will take care to press it home. . . . . . .
XXXII. An Act of the Connecticut General Assembly

October, 1712

[From the printed Colonial Records, vol. 5, p. 353, Hartford, 1870]

An Act for encouragement of Learning.

Be it enacted . . . That the collegiate school at Seybrook, for maintaining a rector and tutors, and for their further encouragement in the education of youth, (which by the blessing of God affords divers instances of that good success that may be of great advantage to this Colony,) shall receive this present year out of the Colony treasury the sum of one hundred pounds in money or bills of credit of this Colony, instead of one hundred and twenty pounds in pay formerly granted to the said school.

XXXIII. Letter of Jeremy Dummer

January 23, 1713

[From a copy in the University Archives, made in 1789, under the direction of President Stiles, from the original, then in the hands of Evelyn Pierpont, of Woodbury, Connecticut]

Dr. William Salmon, of London, who died in 1713, had traveled in New England in early life.

Rev'd. & Dear Sr.

. . . . . . Tis with regret I must now acquaint you that all my labour & pains with Dr. Salmon are at an end, for when I had brought him to consent to give his Library to yr. Colledge an Apoplexy took him off before he had time to make a new will; and so an old one took place made several years since, by which he gave that great valuable Library to an absolute Stranger that he had seen once or twice, & took a fancy to. I have endeavour'd to retrieve this great loss, by begging a Library for you among my friends; & tho my Acquaintance with men of Learning & Estates is very generall, yet I did not expect to succeed so well in this Charitable enterprize, as I now find I am like to doe. For I have got together a pretty parcell of books already for you to begin with, & I hope in a years time to send you a very valuable collection, with the names of the Benefactors...

XXXIV. Extract from a Letter of Jeremy Dummer

May 5, 1713

[From a copy in the University Archives, made by Edward C. Herrick, perhaps about 1850]

This letter was addressed to the Rev. James Pierpont, of New Haven.

Whitehall, 5 May, 1713.

. . . . . . The Library I am collecting for your Colledge comes on well. Sir Richard Blackmore, (to whom I delivered the Committee's letter,) brought me in his own chariot all his works in four volumes in folio, and Mr. Yale has done something, tho very little considering his Estate and particular relation to your Collony. I have almost as many benefactors as books, which makes the collection troublesome as well as expensive. Sr. John Davy will give me nothing notwithstanding his promises, but it may be he intends to send what books he gives himselfe. . . . . .

XLI. A REPRESENTATION FROM HARTFORD OF THE STATE OF THE COLLEGIATE SCHOOL

May 10, 1716

with the action thereon of the General Assembly

[From the printed Colonial Records, vol. 5, pp. 550-551, Hartford, 1870]

As appears below, the Trustees were requested (on May 17) to appear before the Assembly on Wednesday, May 23. The Assembly did not adjourn until June 7, but the Trustees do not seem to have put in any appearance.

To the Honourable the Governour, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, in Hartford, May 10th, 1716.

As the generous concern which this honoured Court have exprest for the promoting of learning in the people under their government, especially in that encouragement which they have given for the erecting and subsisting a Collegiate School in this Colony, is matter of great satisfaction to all such as reflect thereon and do rightly understand the true interest of a people; so, on the other hand, the present declining and unhappy circumstances in which that school lies, and the apparent hazard of its being utterly extinguished unless some speedy remedy be apply’d, afford but a melancholy speculation to such as are acquainted with it. The consideration of this has excited in some, who heartily wish and seek its welfare, a desire to find out some expedient for its relief; and as the want of money has always been one reason of its continuing so long in an unsettled posture, so, to provide this without being further burdensome to the publick, it has been proposed to the people of this town, (as we understand it has been to some in other places,) to signify by their subscriptions what they are willing to contribute on this occasion. Our people have manifested a laudable disposition to forward so good and great a work, and have, in conjunction with other well minded persons, advance’d such sums of money as by a due improvement may hopefully put said school into a flourishing condition, which we thought ourselves obliged, out of regard to the interest of the school, to represent to this Honourable Assembly, and, together therewith, their and our request that it might be fixt here; and if it appears to this Honourable Court that the erecting said school in this place may be more likely to conduce to the end for which such nurseries of learning are establish’d, than the continuing it where it has hitherto been, we humbly hope that this Honourable Court will be pleased to allow us their countenance and assistance in it. And we beg leave to suggest some of those reasons on which we found our opinion of its being so, which are these, viz. Hartford is not only more in the center of the Colony, but is also surrounded with many considerable towns, upon which account it may easily be supposed that the number of students will be much greater than if it were at any other place which has not the like situation; besides several persons of distinction in the neighboring Province have assured us, not only that they will contribute towards the settling the school here, but also that they will send their youth hither for their education. There is already subscribed for that end betwixt six and seven hundred pounds; we also have good reason to expect other very considerable donations, which will make up a thousand pounds and upwards. We have, moreover, a fair prospect of having the school supply’d with able and sufficient tutors. And we pray this farther favour from this Honourable Assembly, that there may be a committee of both Houses appointed to consider of this matter, and that we may have the liberty to be present with them, that we may give further satisfaction in what is demanded of us.

T. Woodbridge.
T. Buckingham.
Samuel Woodbridge.
Samuel Welles.

In the name of many others.

A Resolve of the Assembly, in response to the above:
Upon the representation of the Reverend Mr. Timothy Woodbridge and Mr. Thomas Buckingham and others, that the Collegiate School at Seybrook is in a languishing condition, and moving to this Assembly for a committee to hear from them the circumstances thereof:
It is Resolved by this Assembly, That the several gentlemen, the trustees of the said school, be forthwith notified that this Assembly desire the said trustees to meet in this place on Wednesday next, that they may shew to this Assembly the difficulties, and what may by them be thought expedient to be done therein . . . . .

XLII. Appeal for Contributions in Promotion of the Settlement of the School in New Haven

[From copies in the University Archives]
The University has copies of this appeal, circulated in New Haven, Derby, and Stratfield, respectively, with the names (mainly autographs) of contributors, and the amounts offered.
The subscriptions are given below, in the order of the places named; probably only a part of the total number of subscriptions in New Haven is included.

We whose Names are hereunto subscribed upon the most serious and deliberate Considerations concerning the present State of the Collegiate School are of Opinion ye if it cannot be continued at Saybrook, then it is very convenient if it be settled at New-Haven and therefore do recommend it to all who are generously inclined to promote such settlement of sd. School that they will please to subscribe what Sums they will contribute towards the Settlement and Support thereof at the Town of New-Haven so seasonably as that it may be offered at ye meeting of ye Trustees at ye next Commencement.

At a Meeting of the inhabitants of the Town of Hartford held in Hartford December 18th, 1716.

Voted that whereas the General Assembly of this Colony having sometime since given power to certain Trustees to erect a Collegiate school in this Colony, and to determine the place of its settlement, and having also contributed to its yearly maintenance, and given a very considerable sum of money to the building a house for the entertaining of scholars

And whereas the counties of Hartford and New-London, being more in number than the rest of the government, and paying the greatest part of the money given for the subsisting the Collegiate school, and having furnished the said school with the greater number of scholars, had reason to expect that in appointing the place of the school, good respect should be had to them therein; but finding it quite otherwise, and that the settling thereof at New Haven is attended with great difficulties, such as cannot be easily overcome, it being so very remote, and the transporting any thing by water thither being so uncertain, there being but little communication between these counties and New Haven; and understanding that at a meeting of the major part of the Trustees, at Hartford last May, which major part, by the charter given to the Trustees, have full power to act, did then determine that if they could not universally agree to the place of settlement of said school, when they should meet at the next commencement, at Saybrook, then they should refer the nomination of the place, to the meeting of the General Assembly next October following, those of the Trustees that dissented from the settling of the school at New-Haven, were under the necessity, in faithfulness to those counties for whose convenience they were concerned to inform the General Assembly of the same, but there being then nothing issued, we do for ourselves declare our dissatisfaction with the settling the Collegiate school at New-
remonstrate against the same, and desire that the General Assembly that shall be in May next, may be moved, that by an act, they make a full settlement thereof, and that it be a part of the instruction of our deputies at the said General Assembly, to offer this our remonstrance and endeavour that the Collegiate school may be settled in a place that shall be judged by them most suitable, and where it may be best subsisted, and most accommodable to the greatest part of the government.

L. A Remonstrance Against the Settling of the Collegiate School at New Haven

[From a copy in the University Archives made in 1717 by Tutor Samuel Johnson]

This paper was circulated by the Rev. Timothy Woodbridge and the Rev. Thomas Buckingham, the two Hartford Trustees. The date was probably in January, 1717.

The Genll. Assembly of this Collony having some time given power to certain Trustees to Erect a Collegiate School in this Colony and to Determine the place of its Settlement, & having also Contributed to its yearly Maintainance & given a very Considerable Summe of Money to the building an House for Entertaining of Schollars. And whereas the Counties of N London & Hartford being more in Numbers than the rest of ye Government & paying the Greatest part of the Money given for the Subsisting the Collegiate School, & having furnished the sd. School with the greatest Number of Schollars, had reason to Expect that in apointing the place of the School Good respect should have been had to them therein.
But finding it quite Otherwise, & that the Settling thereof at N Haven is attended with great Difficulty, such as cant be easily overcome, it being so very remote & the Transporting any thing by Water so uncertain, & there being so little Communication between these Counties & N Haven. & Understanding that at a Meeting of ye Major part of the Trustees at Hartford (which Major part by the Charter given to the Trustees have full power to act) did then determine that if they Could not Universally Agree to the Settlement of s'd. School when they should meet at next Commencement at Saybrook then they should refer the Nomination of the place to the Meeting of ye Gen' Assembly next October following. Those of the Trustees that Dissented from the Settling the Collegiate School at N Haven were under a Necessity in faithfullness to those Counties for whose Conveniency they were Concerned to inform the Gen' Assembly of the Same, but there being Nothing Issued: We do for our selves declare our Dissatisfaction with the Settling of ye School at N Haven, by only an Equal part of the Trustees, & hereby Remonstrate against the same & desire that the Gen' Assembly that shall be in May next, may be moved that by an Act they may make a full Settlement thereof, & yt. it be part of the Instructions of yr. Deputies at the s'd. Gen' Assembly, to offer ys our remonstrance & Endeavour yt. the School be settled in a place, that shall be judged by them most Convenient & where it may be best subsisted & most accomodable to the greatest part of the Government.

Rev'd. & Worthy Sr

I have your letter of May Last before me. . . . . . . I am sorry I cannot yet Send you the rest of the books with the Catalogue, but hope to do it by the fall, having a promise of Several large benefactions not yet come in. I should be glad however in the mean time if some oration at your Commencement might take notice of what Books you have already receiv'd (I mean onely in General words) & acknowledge your obligations to yo'r Friends here, & that then a proper paragraph of it might be prepar’d for the Boston Gazett, & the Gazett sent over to me. I could perhaps make use of this contrivance to the great advantage of the Colledge, besides it is a necessary peice of gratitude in you, & as requisite for my acquittal . . . . .

I wish you much health & happyness & am With very great Esteem & respect

LIII. Remarks on the Remonstrance against Settling the Collegiate School at New Haven

February 22, 1717

[From a contemporary copy, by Tutor Samuel Johnson, in the University Archives]

The signers of this document were the acting Rector, Samuel Andrew, of Milford, and a neighboring Trustee, Samuel Russel, of Branford. An endorsement ascribes the authorship to Rector Andrew’s son-in-law, Jonathan Law (Harvard 1695), of Milford, a lawyer, and Judge of the Superior Court.

Some Remarks upon ye Unjust representation Contain’d in a paper unfairly Dispersed thro’ the Counties of N London & Hartfort (according to Information) Called a remonstrance against the Settling those Affairs in a true & clear Light.

The Remonstrance is attended with somthing of Inconsistencies Mistakes & Misrepresentations. The Declaration is Inconsistent with the Supplication.
The Remonstrants say truly that the Genll. Assembly have given power to Certain Trustees to determine the place of the Settlement of the Collegiate School, & that the major part of them have full power to Act, for further Confirmation w⁰ of these are the Clauses of ye Charter or Act, viz⁷ in such convenient place or places as to them shall seem meet & most conducive to the Ends affors⁹, that the afore named Trustees or the major part of them, have & shall have the Oversight, Liberty, Power & Privilidge, to furnish Direct Manage & Improve the sd. Collegiate School so erected & founded by ye. Tis strange these Gentlemen should desire the Genll. Assembly to settle it in such a place as to them should seem meet. Brethren, I speak after the manner of men, tho it be but a mans Covenant, if it be Confirmed no man disannuleth it, or addeth thereto. Gal. III. 15, 16, 17. By the same Rule every Order of the Trustees may be defeated, every Contra remonstrant will be of opinion that when the Genll. Assembly shall do this thing they shall practically say to the World & to his Majesty, that all these Elections & other Acts may by Application to him under whom they hold thier Charter be avoided & defeated. Let none desire the Assembly to do that to thier Grantees which they would not Others should do to them viz Destroy their Charters & Charter privileges.

The Remonstrants are mistaken in the very thing on which they ground thier Dissatisfaction, viz that its Settled at N Haven by only an equal part of ye Trustees. At N Haven were convened Eight Trustees, & but one capable of action absent. Of those who were present 5 were for N Haven, 2 Absolutely against it viz the Upriver Trustees who at Saybrook in September last voted it Advisable to remove the Collegiate School to Hartford, as the Memoirs of the September Meeting expressly shew⁹; the other declared that in Case the Collegiate School must be removed from Saybrook then he was for its Settlement at N Haven.

Mr. M—r of W—r then was and for a long time had been uncapable of any Concernment with it but while Capable declared himself for N Haven in a letter to Mr. Pierpont yet to be seen. As for Mr. N——ys of Stonnington then Absent, The Trustees at s^d Meeting had Certain Information that he was for its Settlement at N Haven & took the first Opportunity to manifest his Consent with the five for the Settlement at N Haven, & signed thier Agreement with his own hand.

Hence, than these things nothing can be more plain viz: 1 That the Active Trustees were but nine if that which was wanting cannot be numbered of w^e five is y^e Maj^r part. 2 that if the Trustees would remove the Collegiate School from Saybrook there were 6 for N Haven. 3 If the Trustees cannot act without meeting together 5 was the major part of them Conven’d. 4 That if the Trustees may act without a Convention then the majority is fully supply’d by the above^d subscription. Since the Cause of the Dissatisfaction is taken away tis Charitably hoped that the Effect will Cease.

The motives of the Settlement are not truly represented. Indeed if those were the only things that ought to have been Considered & were true they ought again to consider of the matter.

In reference to the Number of ye people Ought they not with the Conveniency of ye people to have some respect to the flourishing State of the Collegiate School? And is there not a prospect that the Western Governments who have no such means of Education among them should contribute more to the Advanceing the Intrest of the School than ye Eastern who are so wel furnished at home? Doth the Lesser Luminary of ye Heavens ever appear with so great a lustre as when she is furthest from the Sun unless the Interposition of the Earth Eclipse her Glory? And as to the Inhabitants of ye Goverment, are not the Greater Number of the principal Towns on the Sea Coast? And as to the Towns on the river, is it not easier for them to come down than for all the rest to go up? And as to the Travail is not N Haven much nearer the Center than Saybrook & very little further distant than any other place that could have been pitched upon?

As to the Money there is no such great Odds in the public List as is pretended to, most Certain it may be presumed, that there is much more difference between the lists of the two western Counties and either of the other, than there is between the two other Counties put together & the western.

And farther if the money should weigh so heavy the Contributions ought not to be considered in which the western far exceeded, neither is it a fair Computation between three Competitors to wrekon two against one.

And as to the Number of Schollars its not so much to be considered what has been as what may be hereafter—these and other Circumstances were well weighed in the ballance by the Trustees settling the School at New Haven.

One thing more is aledged in Objection by the remonstrants which being Considered this paper may be dismissed to speak for it self.

It is the Act of the Trustees at Hartford. This Act is said to be made by the major part of the Trustees, who by Charter have power to act. Surely if the major part of the Trustees had power to Act then they have still; the proposal was that the Assembly should nominate ye place which implyeth that the Trustees shall settle it. They never intended a Settlement by any Other Authority than that by w^e. it is now settled; the whole Society could not make such an Act, as should divest the majority of thier Authority; if this Act hath a tendency to make the Consent of all who have voices of Assent or Dissent necessary, or to render the Acts of the majority invalid, it is contrary to the nature & State of ys. Society as appears by thier Charter, which is a private law to the Society, against which they are therein forbidden to make any Statute or Order. It is contrary to the law of all Societies, It is contrary to the Common Law of England, & directly contrary to the 33 Hen. Cap. 27 which saith that the Act of the more part of every College or Corporation within the realm and in every place shall bind, tho any should have sworn to the Contrary, y^t. all may act in one Conformity of reason.

It is not to be doubted but we as in duty bound have acted our Consciences in the matter of the settlement of ye Collegiate School according to the trust reposed in us and can any Expect that we should Comply with a minority when others will not comply with a Majority.

LV. MEMORIAL TO THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY

May, 1717

[From the original in the State Library]

In the handwriting of Mr. Woodbridge.

To the Honourable Gouernr., Councill & Representatives in Generall court assembled May 9th. 1717 A Memorial Respecting the State of the Collegiate School.

In April 1716 there was a Meeting of the Trustees of ye Collegiate School att Saybrooke, & Scholars were then under great Dissatisfaction with their Tutors. Many things were Proposed in order to ye Quietting of ye scholars, and Endeavours used to bring them to a Complyance with them, yt so they might have continued together at Saybrooke but they could not be Prevailed with, and what was offered to them did not Remove ye difficulties. Att length it was Proposed to choose a 3d. Tutor which was complyed with by ye Trustees, ye as a matter of satisfaction to ye scholars it was Proposed by us yt ye dissatisfied Scholars might be under ye care and Instruction of ye sd. Tutor & if it could have been gained yt was a Probability of ye Scholars continuing att Saybrooke, and although we Laboured in it, it was refused by ye Trustees. This being ye last likely remedy, & not attaining, ye School was soon reduced, ye greater part of ye Scholars leaving of it and many of ye Parents as well as themselves unwilling yt should return thither again. Of this broken Estate of ye School we made a Representation to this Honble. Assembly in May last Praying yt some place might be Fixed for its continuance and some farther Care might be taken for its Support. Our Petition was accepted by this Honourable Assembly, and ye other Trustees of ye sd. School sent for. Six of us met, ye major part of ye Trustees then alive and yt number according to our Charter was Sufficient to Determine any Act proper to them: We then came to an amicable agreement, and brought our selves under obligations & concluded a contract on these conditions yt we yt had applyed our selves to ye Generall Assembly should leave any farther prosecution of obtaining ye determining ye Place of ye School till ye commencement which we agreed should be held att Saybrook ye Sept. following, and yt then ye Trustees yt met should determine ye place of ye School & it was on ye other hand agreed yt if ye Trustees then Present should not agree universally to ye Place, yt then it should be Referred to ye General Assembly in October following, to nominate ye Place: So yt yt is a plain contract yt those Trustees yt Entred into it and oblig'd themselves by it can not Possibly by any act of their own Violate it without ye Concurrence of those on whom ye Conditions did Equally lye & ye concessions belongd to. [2] there is herein no Invading any right or Priviledge by charter granted to ye Trustees seeing ye nominating ye Place is only desired of ye General Assembly and ye Power still Remaining in them, to fix it. [3] Neither is yr. ye least invasion made upon yt. common right of societies by an Endeavour to Enable a minor part to overrule ye major, seeing all yt. was agreed to by ye Trustees in May last was yt. if yr. was not a universall agreement att Saybrooke, ye General Assembly should be advised with either to concurr with ye Settlement ye major part of ye Trustees should have made, or to nominate to ym. a more convenient Place: and indeed if ye above mentioned contract had not been made, it had not been any thing beside ye duty of ye Trustees to have informed ye General Assembly with ye Place they had agreed to & to have given ye Reasons for it they knowing yt. yr. was a great dissatisfaction in ye Government att yt. time with ye Schools continuing att Saybrook. And as to ye act of ye Trustees att New haven in Octobo. last for very Just Reasons we did not concur with others for Settling ye School att N:H nor can wee look upon our selves obliged by it, it being done by five of ye Trustees yr. being ten in all, two absent & three dissenting. When those five had agreed yt. Newhaven should be ye Place of Settlement for ye School and had passed by Vote yt. ye Case of ye School should not be laid before ye court wee Waited upon ye Court and Informed them wt. our agreement was & wt. was done by ye other Trustees then met and yt. three of us Dissented from it and Prayed ye Interposition of ye General Assembly yt. a Place so inconvenient to ye greatest part of ye Government might not be ye Place of ye Collegiate School but yt. they would direct ye Trustees to what was more Equall and Just, wc. is now our Earnest Desire. And after ye last Meeting of ye Trustees att Newhaven in April last as we are informed 6 of Eleven subscribed to it. Of one of them we have this to object yt. he was under 40 years of age when appointed or chosen to yt. Trust, wc. is directly inconsistent with our Charter wc. says no Person shall be Elected to ye Place of a Trustee under 40 years old: Upon ye whole we conclude [1]
yt. we cannot in faithfullness to our trust consent to y® Settling of y® Collegiate School att Newhaven, it being so Inconvenient to y® Greater Part of y® Government & dis-satisfying to them. [2] yt. we are no ways obliged to Submit to y® act of y® Trustees in Settling y® School att N:haven, not more than an Equal part consenting to it. [3] Upon a disagreement among y® Trustees tis by their own act Referred to this Honl. Assembly to nominate a Place; & these things render it necessary yt. this Assembly take notice of it.
[1] If they should not it will be left as matter of grievous Contention in y® Government and will be Encreasing. [2] Without an Act of this Assembly the yearly Salary cannot be demanded of y® Treasurer it being by an act of y® Assembly appropriated to Saybrook. [3] y® Determination of this court will put an End to the Controversy. Lastly, we Pray yt. y® last Years Salary given by this court for y® Support of y® Tutors be granted by an act of this Assembly to be divided amongst y® several Tutors in proportion to y® number of Scholars they had under their care. And your memorialists shall as in duty bound Pray &c.

Finding by Sad Experience yt. wt. hath been done towards y® Removing y® Collegiate School from Saybrook to New haven hath occasioned greater dissatisfaction among y® Scholars and yt. Parents than they ever manifested against its being att Saybrook, so yt. I Despair of its being Settled in

LVII. Letter of Gurdon Saltonstall

June 6, 1717

[From the heliotype copy in the \textit{Ancestry and Descendants of Sir Richard Saltonstall}, p. 210. Cambridge, 1897]

This letter of the Governor of the Colony was addressed to the Senior Trustee, the Rev. James Noyes, of Stonington.

\textit{N Lond. June. 6. 1717}

Rev\textsuperscript{d}. & Dear Sr.

I have your kind Letter of ye 3\textsuperscript{d}. Instant, by your Son, and am much obliged to you for It. There was nothing concluded by ye Court about the Colledge. for my own part I did not intermeddle, but the Upper House had severall debates upon the Bills about the College we came up from the Lower House, we were but two. (if there were more they died where they had their Originall & came not up to Us.)

Four of the Gentlemen of ye Assistants ye\textsuperscript{t} live upon the Shore, Viz Mr. Christophers, Mr. Curtice, Majr. Eells, & Capt Fowler, were absent when ye Matter was put to Voat in ye Upper House, and yet It was not carried in ye Affirmative. So ye\textsuperscript{t} I think ye\textsuperscript{e} Majority of that House, will be unwilling to oppose ye\textsuperscript{e} Management of the Trustees. While they tell me a Majority of ye\textsuperscript{e} Lower House, inclined to have the Colledge built at Saybrook. I had a good Correspondence with Mr. Woodbridge, who, as I came out of town, moved me to desire a Meeting of the Trustees; I told him I could not think It would be of good Consequence for such a Motion to begin with Me, but If He would move, I would give It wt. Favour I might; and offered him If He would write to take Care of a Lettr. to You, Who would probably discourse with Me about It. But He declin'd; This is all the Account I am able to give You. And for my own part, I find my self easily acquiescing in the Prudence of the Trustees, and Shall be always so perswaded of It, as not to insert my Self into their Affairs, till I see further Reason for It.

I am, Rev'd. Sr. Yr. most humble Servt.
I bless God You are recovered from yr. late Indisposition.

LVIII. Call for a Trustee-Meeting
July 10-18, 1717

[From the University Archives]

The usual time for the Commencement ye currant year drawing near, & the Trustees having settled an Annual meeting on each Commencement: We give notice to all ye Trustees, (yr. the Collegiate school being by Act of Trustees Settled at Newhaven) the next Commencement is appointed there to be on the 2d. Wednesday in Septemb'r. next, and we do desire the Trustees not to faile attending sd. meeting then to consult the promoting the relief of ye school from its present difficulties.

Althô it seems to me, by a natural & necessary Resultance the Collegiate School being settled regularly at N Haven, & the Education of the Students there also determined & provided for that the Same place is at the Same time appointed the Seat of the Collation of Collegiate honours, yet if there be indeed need of a more Explicite determination thereof, I fully consent and agree, that at N Haven where the sd. School is settled & there only Collegiate preferments on well-meriting Students be publickly pronounced & I agree to a full meeting there on the time above notifeyd appearing to answer the Occasions of sd. School.

LIX. LETTER OF SAMUEL ANDREW

[From the University Archives]

As the contents show, this was addressed by the Rector to Tutor Samuel Johnson, of the class of 1714, at New Haven. Joseph Noyes, of the class of 1709, son of the Rev. James Noyes, the Senior Trustee, had been ordained pastor of the church in New Haven in July, 1716.

Worthy Sr.

Having received two Letters from yoursele about your Classe’s taking their second degree this Commencement, I could not speedily answer to the first, whether there would be any such time, or when or where it would be, if there was any such thing; as to the other inquiry, whether it would be expedient for any of yourselves to seek a second degree at such a time, it was not meet for me to direct in that matter; your own inclination to it must guide and direct you; the place where the Commencement may be, can be no discouragement to some, and I know not why it should be to any, seeing New Haven cant be Judged inferior to Saybrook, unless because the Last’s being the birth place of some should give it the preheminence in their Judgment; but it seemed most probable to me, that my possible concernment in the matter might be the greatest discouragement together with the unsettled state of the school, and the great opposition against New Haven; as to myselfe, I have Laboured with the Trustees, that a more suitable person might be improved to give degrees, not being ambitious either of the Honour or advantage, and should have absolutely refused, if it had not been such a time; wherein differences among ourselves might have blasted our present design; 'tis something difficult for me to offer Questions, which have not been formerly disputed, but I shall offer the inclosed to yourselves, from which you may choose such as are best pleasing, which have not been Lately debated according to the best of your remembrance; for my memory is too brittle to keep Long in mind things of such a nature, being concerned with greater matters; with all due regards to the Rev'd Mr. Noyes and yourselfe, praying that the onely wise God would bless your Labours for the advancement of religion and Learning among the students in the Collegiate school at New Haven, I am, Worthy Sr.

Your very humble servant

Samuel Andrew

LXI. Memoranda in Behalf of the Retention of the School at Saybrook

[From the original in the State Library]

These notes, in the handwriting of Justice Daniel Buckingham, of Saybrook, are found on the back of his copy of an extract from the Records of the Trustees for April 3, 1716, made on October 3, 1717, and given above.

Amongst the Matters of fact Relating to ye Establishment of ye Collegiate School at Say-brook It may well Be Considered: yt ye Settlement there was made in a way of Covenant with ye donors & People There And that it is so, please to see Mr. Lynde his Large Donation By deed Conditioned that ye School Be and Remain at all Times to be at Saybrook: and as to particular personal donations Please to Juge of Major Jno. Clarke & Justice Danl. Buckingham. These donations were Recieved By ye Trustees in manner & forme and Improved to ye Schools use. Now a Covenant is a mutual agreement between certain Partyes upon Conditions and These conditions Being Performed By one and accepted by ye other: thence ye party so Recieving is Become Bound and Cannot be discharged By any act of his own But is a covenant Breaker without fulfillment on his part or Release on ye others part and this is ye very Case which still Renders it more Impracticable to Remoue ye School from Say-brook.

Principal money with Interest Being Returned Don't fulfill ye Covenant for it don't answer The End and designe of the donation and so don't Discharge and acquit from wrong and Injustice.

Some men By Their Last wills made Bequests to ye School Leaning the fulfillment to some one of their sons making his part of ye Estate Proportionably Bigger, in which Case ye Refunding of such donation cannot Be made to ye Equal Benefit of ye Coheirs But a wrong is done irreparable.
Observe yt. ye within acts are done by Eight of ye trustees, whose vnanimous and Joynt act Implyes their Confirmation of ye act already shewn Relating to the Settlement.

Observe that Mr. James Noyes is allowed to act Seperately To Remoue ye School to Newhaven But Mr. Saml. Mather Rather than he Shall act Seperately is Excluded acting at all.

LXII. AN OPINION ON THE REMOVAL OF THE SCHOOL FROM SAYBROOK

[From the original in the State Library]

In the handwriting of Justice Daniel Buckingham; probably written to influence the General Assembly in October, 1717.

To what has bin offered touching ye Removal of the Collegiate School from Say-brook to N: Haven I desire vnder Correction humbly to add my opinion: which is Breifely contained in this one proposition viz yt. ye sd. School having bin once Regularly setled at Say-brook, & consonant to ye Sacred Ends thereof Became a Locall fixed Thing and not to be Remoued thence By any act of ye Trustees Justifyable by their Charter.

That ye sd. School has Bin fixed at Say-brook: See diverse acts viz an act made at Say-brook November 11: 1701, also an act made at Kennelworth Septh. 30 1702 and an act made at Say-brook Septh. 14th. 1715:

That ye Settlement so made was Regular see the Majority of ye Trustees signing the acts.

that ye Settlement so made, was consonant to its sacred Ends See ye opinion of ye Trustees in ye act of November 11: 1701 In which act there was a proviso for other considerations yt. Possibly might occur and offer themselves, and without which ye act was Positive and absolute. Observe yt. no other Considerations did offer them Selves and for this see ye two other acts so yt. ye act Becomes absolute.

Now yt. ye School so setled Becomes Local and not mone-able By ye Trustees is Evident if we consider yt. this Being done the Sacred End and designe is obtained so far as it Relates to Settlement: and nothing now Remains to Be done But to maintaine &c And so far as ye End and designe is obtained the trustees Comision is fulfilled, their worke done & their Power ended. Secondly please to consider yt. ye Power of ye Trustees is Restrained to doing: and not Inlarged and Extended to, vndoing and destroying what is once well done: But what is it to moue from place to place a School once well setled But to pull down and destroy as well as to build & to plant. further, Please to consider yt. if ye Trustees by Charter may once move ye Collegiate School Because they think fit Being once Setled as afores', then doubtless they may proceed to do it as many Times, and to as many places as they shall think fit. Which if we suppose, it then follows Either first that they have power to command ye Colonyes Purse for its Carrying on and Support, Which is contrary to common Justice and Repugnant to our common Charter Right and priveledge, So yt. this assembly could not Grant them such power, for all the acts of this Court yt. are not calculated for ye common Good of ye Colony But contrary therunto are void in them selves and ought to Be declared so. or Secondly it follows that the Colony Taking Exception against such unreasonalbe Removal may withhold any further publick donations, and Then what is Like to Become of the School. Surely Tis Like to Languish to death vnless thirdly we suppose that vpon such Removals from Time to Time it shall be supported By private donations & contributions, which is as much as to say yt. ye Trustees By Charter have Power to setle a Collegiate School according to ye sacred Ends thereof and therin to Improve Both Publick and private donations, and this Being well done to ye answering ye Expectations of all both Publick and private, and then may also at their pleasure set same to sale vnto such persons or places as will give most money for it, All which is so far Repugnant to Sence, Reason, Common Right and Justice yt. if it were in their Charter it were void.
LXIII. Orders of the Two Houses of the Connecticut General Assembly, Respecting a Hearing of the Trustees

October 12-15, 1717

[From the original Journals, in the Secretary of State's office, and other original papers in the State Library]

It should be stated that it is difficult to determine the exact order of all the documents presented at this session of the General Court, though many can be dated from the Journals.

Whereas Sev'rl. of the Rev'd. Trustees for the Collegiate School Lately set up in this Government at Saybrook Did, at the Sessions of This Court on the 9th. of May 1717, Inform this House that they Were Dissatisfied wth. ye Conduct of the other Trustees in Appointing & in such Manner Ordering the s'd. Collegiate School to be Removed from Saybrook to N. Haven, it being Inconsistent as they alledge with their Charter, & with their Just & Lawfull Agreements, as Well as with the Publick Interest, & Peace of this Government, as by their Memoriall does at large appear, and Wheras some Generall Resolves were hereupon made, which this House did then Justly Expect should be taken notice of by ye s'd. Trustees, at Least so far, as not to have acted or ordered any thing In Opposition thereto without asking the Farther allowance or advice of this assembly, in a Matter of so great & Gen'rl. Interest & Consequence, Which s'd. Trustees have not Thought fit to Do,—Now the better to Understand what is farther to be Done in this Important Affair This House does Resolve & Order That the Trustees be Desired & directed to Come as Speedily as may be to This Assembly to Shew the Reasons of Their Late Proceedings and Particularly Why they or any of them Have Ordered a Collegiate School to be Built at New Haven, without the Allowance or Knowledge of This Assembly.

Passed In the Lower House
Test Elisha Williams Clerk.

Dissented to in the Uppr. House
Test Hez: Wyllys Secry:

The following substitute, with an accompanying Resolve, was passed by the Upper House:

This House Observing that a considerable dissatisfaction has been Taken at the carrying on of the Collegiate School at New Haven and being desirous that all Endeavours for the Advancement of Learning might if possible be Universally acceptable Do therefore Order the Secry to write to the Severall Trustees of the School desiring them or as many of them as can with any Conveniency to meet at the s'd. Town as soon as may be during our present Session, that from their Information concerning their proceedings in the said affair Wee may the better contribute to the procuring of that Generall Satisfaction Relating to so good a work which is so much to be desired.

Ordered that the Charge of their Travelling hither Subsistance here and Return home be defrayed out of the publick Treasury.

Resolved that Major. Burr and Major. Talcott carry a Message from the board to the Lower House with our proceeding upon this Bill Relating to the Trustees of the Collegiate School and shew them the ground Wee have gone upon in disenting from that Bill, and what Wee have passed in Stead thereof whereby Wee hope Wee may in the most peaceable manner obtain that Oportunity with the Trustees which may be of Use to us in composing the dissatisfaction that has been taken at their proceedings.

This was accepted on the same day by the Lower House.
LXIV. Message of the Upper House of the Connecticut General Assembly to the Trustees

October 22, 1717

[From the original, in the State Library]

This message was sent back by the Lower House, with a substitute, as appended, from the Journal of that House for the same day.

Majo'r. Burr and Majo'r. Talcott are appointed by this Board to Wait upon the Reverend Ministers Trustees of the Collegiate School assembled in this Town with the following Message.

That this House taking Notice of great Exceptions alledged by severall persons, against their proceedings, in the managem-ment of the said School (pursuant to what they had undertaken by the grant of the Assembly) And particularly against their fixing the School at New Haven (By reason of which Exceptions many disorders have hapned, and great Contentions have been Occasioned) thought it proper,

That an Account of their proceedings in the said Undertaking should be Communicated to us, By which means Wee might be better able to Resolve on Suitable Methods, to Still the disquietments, that have arisen, and prevent such for the future.

It is therefore hereby Recommended to the sd. Trustees, that they Lay before us as Soon as may be a representation of their proceedings in Carrying on the Affairs of the said School, and Erecting an House for it, in the sd. Town, That from a View thereof Wee may give Such publick directions, as shall be found Needfull, and Take such Measures, as may be Necessary, for the preservation of Order and Peace.

Passed in the Upp'r. House

Test Hez. Wyly's Sec'y.
A Bill sent to ye Upper House, appointing Majr. Bur, & Majr. Talcot, to Acquaint ye Rev'd. Trustees of ye Collegiate School yt ye Assembly having Taken Notice of ye Difficulties &c. wth. wch. ye Affair of ye Collegiate School is attended,—To recommend to ye sd. Trustees yt ye as soon as may be Lay before this Assembly a representation of yr. proceedings in carrying on ye Affairs of ye sd. School, & Erecting an House for it in N. Haven, &c.

LXV. MEMORIAL OF THE TRUSTEES TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

October 22, 1717

[From the original in the State Library compared with the first draft, by the Senior Trustee, James Noyes, in the University Archives]

A Memorial of the Trustees of the Collegiate School in Newhauen in Connecticut in New England, relating to their undertaking & proceeding therein.

We the vnderwritten Trustees of the sd. School, not a little affected to heare that any dissatisfaction hath beene taken at our Proceedings in erecting the same, doe in this manner make them publick, in hopes that our so doing will give satisfaction to all that wish well to ye good work vnder our Care.

Persuant to ye Charter or Grant whereby we were encouraged & fully & compleatly impowred to vndertake the erecting of a Collegiate School in some Conuenient place or places, as to us should seem meet, in the sd. Collonie, & soone after we had obtained that grant, thò we had not a stock sufficient for building a suitable house for the Students, Yet we had consideration of a suitable place for it, & agreed it would be best to erect it in some town on the sea side, not further eastward then Saybrook, or Westward then Newhaven, & resolved that such students as offered themselves, should be received at Killingworth, under the care of the late Reuerd. Mr. Person, whom we appointed Reet. which was accordingly attended.

Some years after, the School was removed to Saybrook, where endeavours were used to erect an house for the s'd School, but we were obliged to desist for want of sufficient stock for such an undertaking.

While the School was in these circumstances at Saybrook, an unhappie discretion in the School occasioned the remove of several Students, notwithstanding all our endeavours to keepe them there. We hoped to redress this disorder by building an house for the students there, being encouraged to it by the generous Contributions of the Government of the s'd Collony & of some particular persons which we concluded ourselves able to make a beginning in the work & accordingly resolved upon it.

But soone after we met with unexpected opposition against settling the s'd School at Saybrook, which continuing (after we had vsed many endeavours to remove it) we considered the state of that affaire, & at length (according to our discretion, the Rule of our doings mentioned in our Charter three several times) we pitched upon Newhaven (which is within the compass of the places agreed on at the first) to build an house in for the s'd School, where we have raised one convenient & capable of receiuing 40 Schollars, & hope to haue the same ready to receive the students in a short time.

We were induced to fix upon Newhauen for the place of the School, from the comueniency of its situation, agreeableness of the air & soile, the probability of providing will be necessary for the subsistence of the Schollars as cheap or cheaper then at other places, together with many other weighty considerations, to us satisfying, wherunto may be added the largest sums by farr subscribed by particular Gentlemen for building an house for the School in the s'd Town, which are appropriated by the doaners to that place, & without which (notwithstanding the sum granted by the Collony) we could not go through with so chargeable a work.
We trust that this briefe account of our proceedings (so well known to seueral Gentlemen in the sd. Collony) will be thought satisfactorie by all impartial persons; & not only remove wt. offences may have been taken at them, but invite the well-minded (after many examples wch. we must always mention wth. Gratitude & honr.) to favour this Infant Nurserie of Learning, wch. by the blessing of heauen hath not proved vnfruitfull.

From our particular Acquaintance with the passages afore mentioned, or from Satisfaction received from Records, or other good Information of some of our selues, we have suffixed our names, Dated in Newhaven Octob. 22d. 1717.

LXVI. Observations and Remarks by Timothy Woodbridge and Thomas Buckingham on the Acts of the Trustees in October, 1716, and April and September, 1717

Submitted to the Connecticut General Assembly

October 22-23, 1717

[From the original, in the State Library]

Some Observations on ye following Acts & Resolves Shewing ye invalidity of them.

The action of the Meeting of October 17, 1716, on Question 3, settling the School at New Haven, is quoted. Then follows:
Observation. The Reasons on wch. we deny this act to be legal & valid are, that when it was passed there were at least nine Trustees in Being (as may appear by yr. names here mentioned) and but four of them concurring in it at that time, Mr. Ruggles being excluded out of that number by not being legally chosen. As to Mr. James Noyes's consent to that act at such a distance and so long after we conceive it can be no confirmation of it.

The Trustees concurring in this act

Mr. Samuel Andrew
Mr. Samuel Russel
Mr. Joseph Webb
Mr. John Davenport.

The Revd. M's.

Trustees not concurring

Moses Noyes
Samuel Mather
Timothy Woodbridge
Tho. Buckingham

The action of April 5, 1717, on Question No. 3, re-affirming the action above named, is quoted. Then follows:

Remark) As to this Act it may be observed yt excepting ye person above excepted, there is only one half of ye Trustees before mentioned with ye new one added in October last Consenting to it.

Trustees not Consenting

The Revd.

Moses Noyes
Samuel Mather
Timothy Woodbridge
Tho. Buckingham
Stephen Buckingham

The action of September 11, 1717, validating the election of the Rev. Thomas Ruggles, is quoted. Then follows:
Observation. With respect to this Act it may be observed that there is no new act by which Mr Ruggles is Chosen and associated to ye Trustees but only a declaration of their judgment concerning him in there own Case. It may further be observed that the Revd Mr Adams of Newlondon who was nominated & Chosen by a majority of ye Trustees ym. present is denied even by themselves to be one of their number merely on ye account of his not being fourty years old (as the Charter directs) at ye time of his Election, so far as we know.

The action of September 13, 1717, confirming the Acts of April 5, is quoted. Then follows:

Remark) The Same Observation may be here made as above viz. yt yr. is but a moity of ye Trustees as before named Concurring in this Act.

It is a Question with us Whether a person Regularly Chosen a Trustee Ceaseth to be one without an act of his own and ye Trustees for his Removal, and Whether there be any provision made in the graunt of ye Court for such an Act, which with all above written is humbly submitted to ye Judgment of this honourable Assembly

I Moses Noyes desire to suspend my opinion concerning some things in these Answers particularly concerning the reverend Mr Rugles, yet if opportunity be given I desire to offer some Plea in behalf of Saybrook.

LXVII. RESOLVES OF THE UPPER HOUSE OF THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY

October 23-24, 1717

[From the original in the State Library]

Upon Consideration of the Memorial presented to this board by the Reverend. Mr. Woodbridge & Mr. Thomas Buckingham Containing Severall Coppies of Records of the proceedings of the Trustees of the Collegiate School, with remarks upon them, whereby Exception is Taken to Severall Votes, passed by the said Trustees (by which they have fixed the sd. School at New Haven) as not being passed by the Majority of the said Trustees, and so not according to the power by Charter Lodged in the sd. Trustees,

This House desirous to Compose the differences that have arison upon those proceedings among the Trustees themselves, Have debated the Questions Controverted as Laid before us, by those remarks which are three; and resolved them as follows:

1. Wether the Trustees of the sd. School or the Major part of them, are in Order to their passing an Act in form according to Charter obliged to Convene. Grounded upon the remark that the Rever<sup>ad</sup. Mr. James Noyes who Concurrd. to an Act passed by Severall of the Trustees thô he was not present with them (by which that act had the Concurrence of the Majority, and So is Supposed not to act Regularly), or according to the Charter, granted to the sd. Trustees.

Resolved in the Negative.

2. Whether one of the Trustees by the providence of God deprived of the Exercise of Reason, and so Continuing, ought to be Esteemed as one Capable of Consenting to, or dissenting from any of the acts of the Trustees, so that he may be Esteemed as acting for or against any resolve, or doing, of the sd. Trustees. Grounded on the Case of the Rever<sup>ad</sup. Mr. Samll. Mather.

Resolved in the Negative.

3. Whether a person althô Chosen before the age of 40 Years Yet after he was of the age of 40 Years Admitted & Associated by the sd. LXVIII. Extract from a Letter of John Winthrop

October 24, 1717

[From a copy in the Collections of the Massachusetts
Historical Society, 6th series, vol. 5, p. 351, Boston,

The author was graduated at Harvard in 1700, resided in New London, Connecticut, and was a Fellow of the Royal Society in London. This letter was addressed to his father, Judge and Major-General Wait Winthrop, of Boston.

The writer's uncle, John Winthrop the younger, Governor of Connecticut, who died in 1707, had left by his will, dated March, 1702, £100 to the Collegiate School so long as it continued in Saybrook; but the estate was still in litigation.

. . . . . . There is great disturbance in ye Collony about ye Colledge. The last year Mr. Stonington Noyse was violent for keeping of it at Saybrook, or else he sd. they should loose ye old Gov^rs. legacy to it; but since his son is settled in Mr.
Pierpont's place and house, he has, wth-out leave or ord^r.
from the Assembly or Trustees, moved it to New Haven, & ordered a building to be erected for ye purpose, wch. is almost finished. The Assembly disapprove of his doings, and have sent for him to answer for himselfe, wither he is gon.

LXIX. Message from the Upper House of the Connecticut General Assembly

October 25, 1717

[From the original in the State Library]

Ordered that the following Message be sent from the board of the Upper House to ye Lower House

Mr. Speak'r. & Gentlemen Deputies

Att your desire this Board concurr'd. to send for the Rever'd. Trustees of the Collegiate School and desire of them an Account of their proceedings with which Some have been disatisfyed.

Wee design'd. that the Message to call the Trustees hither, might have gone from this Board only, but when You desired wee might act in Concert, Wee agreed and the Message was sent Accordingly.

As soon as Wee had their Memoriall Laid before us, Wee Immediately Considered it, and Transmitted it to You for Consideration. And Wee no sooner received from the Rever'd. Mr. Woodbridge & Mr. Buckingham Some Exceptions to some proceedings of the Trustees, but having Considered them, Wee sent them down by the Subscribers themselves to Your House. Having debated what Seem'd. most Materiall in those Exceptions, and come to Resolves thereon, Wee Transmitted them to Your House, with a desire to be Informed, whether You would Expect any thing further from the Trustees, or otherwise Wee might signify to them that they might return to their respective Churches.

Thus Wee have gone on in Concert with You according to Your desire and are surprized to hear that before any return made to this board or Signification whether You concurr with us in our resolves or not and without regard had to thus Concerting together which You desired, You have admitted pleadings and arguments upon the Subject of the Memoriall Laid before us, without allowing us the Opportunity of being with You, therein, in Concerting that affair with us pursuant to Your own desire, and ye agreement of both Houses.

Wee are Truely desirous to Unite our Endeavours with You in Compassing the differences that are so pernicious to us, and do in a strange manner, distroy the peace of our Land, and after Wee had agreed to act in Concert therein, whatever may be Suggested to the prejudice of that agreement (untill the Houses have by their own Consent altered it) must needs be of Very Evill Consequence.

Wee desire therefore to know whether You are yet agreed that wee should have a Joynt Consideration, of what Wee sent to the Trustees, and are ready to act in Conjunction with you.

LXXI. Answer of the Trustees to the Observations and Remarks on their Acts in 1716 and 1717

October 25, 1717

[From the original in the State Library]

This paper was read to the Upper House of the Assembly on October 26, and transmitted to the Lower House.

The answer of the underwritten Trustees of the Collegiate School in Connecticut at New Haven unto the observations and remarks given in by the Revd. Mr. Timo. Woodbridge & Mr. Tho: Buckingham unto the Generall Assembly of Connecticut now sitting in New Haven, to show the invalidity of several acts agreed upon & consented unto by the more part of all the Trustees of s'd School in being.

The Observation made on the Act of October 17, 1716, settling the School at New Haven, is quoted. Then follows:

Our Answer to the above Observation.

The Act excepted against must be Valid, if Mr. Ruggles be a trustee & associate, & if Mr. James Noyes his Signing the s'd Act confirm the same, & if Mr. Samuel Mather should be not a Trustee. But 1. Concerning Mr. Ruggles, it may be argued that he was a Trustee on Octob: last, even in the Account of these Reverend Trustees Dissenting, as may appear from their Memorial signed by their own hands May 9th 1717 containing these words in the 24, 25, 26, 27 lines "and "the other Trustees of the s'd School sent for, Six of us mett, "the major part of the Trustees then alive, & that Number "according to o'r. Charter was Sufficient to determine any act "proper to them." Now the Trustees then mett are well known to have been the Revd. Mr. T. Woodbridg, Mr. S. Russel, Mr. J. Webb, Mr. J. Davenport, Mr. Tho. Buckingham, Mr. Th. Ruggles, & these Names some of us are Sure will be found in the Votes & agreements of the Meeting at Hartford May, 1716.

Upon it We say, If Mr. Ruggles was indeed a Trustee (as the s^d. Memorial must be understood to say) on May 1717, we know not, how the s^d. Mr. Ruggles can be Excluded as not legally chosen on Octob. 1716, when Mr. Ruggles his present age is 46 years & above an half more.

2. Concerning Mr. J. Noyes his Signing s^d. Act, We find in the Copies of the Primitive Records in o^r. hands the Signing & Consent of a Trustee absent at the time of ye meeting who being after acquainted with the doings of the Trustees, hath signed & his Concurrence entred. As Such a signing in the original or primitive records of our meeting hath been accounted valid, so do we also account Mr. J. Noyes's our last Octob^r. act to be valid.

3. Concerning the Rev^d. Mr. S. Math^r. being a trustee, We offer, that Since that Rev^d. Gent^n. hath for many years past been frequently reported to have been disabled in his Understanding, not Capable of the Voice of Rational assent or dissent, unto us that Rev^d. Gent^n. hath not been a Trustee during such disability nor hath he appeared at any of our meetings for many years past. We may acknowledg it to have bin some Encouragement to us on s^d. October meeting to find in Lettr^ of his to Mr. Pierpont (now in o^r. hands) that he declared his mind to be for the Settling the Collegiate School at Newhaven, when no one might question his being a Trustee, & capable of Rational Consent.

further We observe

That the Observation saith at least nine trustees in being, & where are entred Trustees Concurring & Trustees not Concurring, there appear but eight names.

That Suppose there were at least nine trustees in being & no more (as the Observation insinuates) & only four not concurring (as the Observation expresseth) it must needs follow that five Trustees of the nine did concur, and so there is a Majority of trustees settling the Collegiate School at New Haven by the s^d. act Octob. 1717.
But admitting Mr. Ruggles to have been & to be a Trustee, which is the Truth in or. account for diverse years past, it is then Evident that Six Trustees have consented to the Settling the s'd. School at N Haven—& admitting the s'd. Mr. Mather being disabled to have been then no Trustee, We offer the Catalogue as Just

The Remark of the dissatisfied Trustees on the action of April 5, 1717, which confirmed the above-mentioned action of October, 1716, is quoted. Then follows:

Our Answer to the above Remark.

Admitting what is aforesaid concerning Mr. Ruggles & the Rev'd. Mr. S. Mather, it will appear that more than an Equal part of the Trustees, yea more than a meer Majority of the Trustees have together confirmed our act Apr. 1717, for to us it seems this Number of the consenting Trustees is just.

The Observation on the action of September 11, 1717, validating Mr. Ruggles's election, is quoted. Then follows:

Our Answer to the s'd. Observation last named concerning Mr. Ruggles.

We say 1. the Copy of ye last Act being perused, it certainly appears to be the Act of Six Trustees, unquestionably the majority of o\textsuperscript{r}. whole body, who have by their own hand writing declared on Record, the s\textsuperscript{d}. Mr. Ruggles to have really & actually been a Trustee for diverse years past, which at least implies their acknowledging him an Associate, & at least amounts to a then-associating of him, in case there were need of it. These words in s\textsuperscript{d}. Act viz. (We all account him a Worthy Trustee & Associate) we trust will be accepted by all to be as much as if we had said, We all nominate him to be a Trustee & Associate, the case calling for it.

But We do affirm him to have been a Trustee diverse Years past. But against this They object that this is Our judgment in our own Case. Upon it, we ask, who can better declare such a matt\textsuperscript{r}. than so Undeniable a Majority of all the Trustees in being or that can be mett in Conventions, unto whom certainly belongs to Associate, the Rest of the Trustees having been before notified. Who can doubt whether the Majority of the Trustees so saying one is a Trustee, can be interpreted less than their choosing & appointing One for a Trustee?

2. We desire the Words before noted in Their Memorial to be considered, which by a necessary interpretation shew that themselves so accounted of Mr. Ruggles, he being certainly one of the Six mett at hartford May 1716.

3. Besides, if our Records were in our hands, which we would have had, but they are still detained from us, We make not the least Question, but it would appear for above Six years past, that Mr. Ruggles, who was then above forty years of age, his name would be found entred at the Beginning of the Acts of such meeting together with the Names of other the Trustees then Convened & also his name would (we doubt not) appear with other the Trustees Signing the Acts of s\textsuperscript{d}. Meeting, which we account equal to a Nominating him as Associate, or Associating him, w\textsuperscript{ch}. imports a Joyning or taking into fellowship & Company. No particular way of Associating being in o\textsuperscript{r}. Charter sett down, so that the Trustees are left intirely at their own Liberty in what way it may seem meet to them to associate.
Now \text{w}\text{n} the Name is Entred \text{w}\text{th.} \text{oth}\text{r.} Trustees name at the Beginning of the Acts of any \text{o't.} Meetings, there is the Designation Nomination \& Approbation of such a Name as a Trustee, \& the signing of the same Name \text{w}\text{th.} \text{oth}\text{r.} Trustees at the End of said acts sheweth both their Approbation \& his Acceptance.

2. Concerning Mr. Adams, whom all of us value \& honour: We affirm there will not be found in the Records of \text{o't.} then meeting any vote about Mr. Adams being a Trustee, nor can we count an \text{Equal Numbr}\text{r.} of the Trustees in the account of these dissenting Gentlemen who inclined to Mr. Adams being Trustee, not for want of Respect to that Gentn, but not then of age.

Besides from that time till now, Mr. Adams Name hath never appeared in any of \text{o't.} Meetings at the beginning or End of \text{o't.} acts.

Further \text{o't.} Confirmation of the Settling of the Collegiate School at N Haven on Oct. 1716 & repeated Apr 5, 1717, is done by more than a \text{Moiety} of the Trustees may appear by this Comparison.

In the handwriting of the Rev. John Davenport, of Stamford, who had become a Trustee in 1714.

An Acco" offered by the Subscribers concerning the Collegiate School having bin at Saybrook & its removal to N H.

As we acknowledg s" School to have bin at Saybrook & several acts or votes of the Trustees for it, So we do solemnly & seriously assert or" own Innocency & that we were not the Cause at the first of Removing it as may appear

1. ff from our Records Apr. 1716. if we had them, when in the great Confusions of the Scholars We yielded to the Dissatisfyed Trustees, that such Scholars as would might have liberty to be nearer their own homes for tuition. And it was then concluded as a means of accommodation to go on to build the house for the School there w" all convenient Spied.

2. ff from the petition of the Dissatisfyed Trustees presented to the Gen1 Assembly May 10, 1716.

3. ff from the Letter sent to us under the hand of the Secrv, whereby to the Surprize of us all We were desired forthwith to appear at hartf., because the School at Sayb. was in a Languishing State, & might be best relieved by removing it to hartf., w" our hopes were by the doings of April about a month or six weeks before, the Spirits of all the Trustees were quieted & well agreed for the Schools being at Saybr.

4. ff from the Earnest & Vehement opposition of the Dissenting trustees then met at or" Conference there unto the Schools being at Saybr. & by the gen1 [report?] then at hartf. a Dark reflection was Laid upon Saybr. as a place altogether unfit for the School.
5. ff from or. acts of Saybr. Sep 1716.
6. ff from or. appearing at N H. Oct. 1716 at the Council Chamber, after our act for the School being at N H., where it was proposed in the names of all the Trustees consenting for N H. that We would then Render Null or. sd. act of Settling sd. LXXIII. REPRESENTATION OF MOSES NOYES TO THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY

October, 1717

[From the original in the State Library]

This Memorial was read to the Upper House on October 26, and transmitted to the Lower House.

To the honoured Generall Court assembled at New Haven, Octob. 10, 1717

Wheras the case of the collegiate School, is by others laid before you I humbly crave Liberty to offer to your consideration whether it may not be advisable, as a good expedient to remove al dissatisfaction and restore peace, to lay in the ballance against the claim of Newhaven, the claim of Saybrook which is by many thought to be more weighty and just.

1. Because it was by the primitive Trustees to whom it was immediately committed by many repeated acts, settled at Saybrook as appears by records.

2. Return was made to the court, and so accepted by them as that they have declared that the sallary is granted to the School at Saybrook expressly in the printed book of Laws. It was virtually published to the world in the printed Theses which w^r designedly sent to England, to procure donations of books, and were successful. The five hundred pound also given by the court, was given to it upon information that it was fixed at Saybrook as also other donations, and a School in another place canot claim any title to them, for as much as it is not the same nor a legitimate heir.

3. I am not satisfyed, that the charter doth grant power to the trustees to remove the School after such a settlement made as was at Saybrook For that would inform that they might keep it in effect and estate for ever. They had a house there though not so great as that frame at Newhaven.

4. The inhabitants of Saybrook complain that they are hardly dealt with, and that the Trustees have given too great a shew of breach of promise or covenant with them, and I humbly [        ] Mr Stephen Whittlesay and Mr. Peter Pratt may be heard upon that head.

LXXIV. Reasons for the Votes of the Lower House of the Connecticut General Assembly upon the Acts of the Trustees

October, 1717

[From the original in the State Library]

From the handwriting these Reasons are shown to have been composed by the Rev. Moses Noyes, of Lyme.

The Reasons of the Lower House for their votes upon the acts of the Trustees and their dissent to the bill of the Upper house thereupon are 1 Because Their Charter makes them partners not one body politick 2 The power of a Majr part given in the charter is expressly to furnish direct manage order improve and incourage the s\textsuperscript{d} Collegiate Scool so ordered and formed as is before ordered and not to form erect and fix the place

And supposing the Trustees were incorporated then The Reasons of the dissent of the Lower house are 1 Mr Mather has not been proved incapable—as much or more has been said for him as against him. 2 The act of the Trustees concerning Mr. Rugles was not intended to be a chusing and associateing of him at the time of s\textsuperscript{d} act but a declaration that he was a worthy Trustee altho it was conceded that at the time of his Election he was not 40 years old and consequently not then Qualified by charter

3 The act of Mr. Noyes after the meeting of the partners or association was over was a Consent without Conference, Counsel without Consultation and a Resolve of the highest importance without debate which is thought to be irregular and dangerous and tends to promote faction and division amongst the partners or in the association and besides it supposes that there may be a lawfull act of an association without associating or an act of an assembly by subscription without assembling
We humbly propose whether there is not some imperfection in the charter that ought to be mended that it may be a lasting foundation of good to this government.

LXXV. A Reply to the Reasons for the Votes of the Lower House of the Connecticut General Assembly upon the Acts of the Trustees in Settlement of the School at New Haven

October, 1717

[From the original in the State Library]

The authorship of this paper is not known.

A Reply to ye Reasons of ye lower House.

Allowing ye Trustees to be considered as Partners We see clearly that our own laws have provided that they shall govern by ye Majorities as Towns, Proprietors, Owners of Shipps. Now these are not bodies corporate yet as ye Common law allows are as it were incorporate to do some things without which the could not well manage.

2. The power of a Majority given in ye Charter is expressly to furnish ye School with a good House, a considerable Article in ye Catalogue of a Schools furniture, admitting all must agree to form and erect. Its clear that every thing and ye School it self must be formed and erected in order to ye being fixd in any place. fixing is a subsequent Act to formation and erection. Its not ye Erection of ye House but ye School.

3. You agree that if Mr. Mr. be uncapable of ye trust that he must not be numbered with them and object only against the truth of his Incapacity, of wch. every one must judge as he finds or is perswaded.

4. Admitting Mr. R was not 40 wth. nominated or pitched upon yet being admitted and actually associated when and after he was 40 became a lawfull Trustee thô it had never been after demonstrated by a further Declaration.

Many have given Consent without vocal Conference, Counsel without vocal Consultation. A little variation in Situation is not of ye Highest Importance. Many Debates are managed by writing. Its necessary in every Constitution wth. ye Circumstances are such as that ye Inconveniences which may happen for want of a Convention are greater ym. may happen by yr. Acting without Convention, that their Constitution should be such as to allow of yr. acting without a Convention of yr. bodies so that yr. minds are present and agreeing. for wch. Reason doubtles these Gentlemen are not by yr. Pattent obliged to a Convention.

LXXVII. PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN REGARD TO CONFIRMATION OF THE REMOVAL OF THE SCHOOL TO NEW HAVEN

October 28, 1717

[From the original in the State Library]

The Board [i.e., the Upper House,] having considered what was offered in the publick hearing of the Trustees, on Saturday last, and finding alledged or objected therein on the Side of the Trustees, dissenting from the acts of the Rest, in Removing the School from Saybrook to New Haven, & Erecting a House for it, But what was laid before this Board by the Rever^nd. Mr. Woodbridge and Mr. Buckingham under their hands Viz$: that the s^d. Remove was not made, and s^d. House Erected at N: Haven by a Lawfull Majority of the s^d. Trustees, Wee have again considered the same, and do thereupon declare, that these Objections are not of such Weight, as to Maintain what they are brought for, but that on the contrary, the proceedings and doings of the Trustees, by removing the s^d. School from Saybrook to N: Haven, which the dissenting Trustees have appeared against, have been done by a Majority of the Trustees, And Wee hope that since there has been so full and clear an opening of that Mannagement & Vindication of it from many Misrepresentations, Whereby the Minds of divers persons have been greatly Agitated and much distressed in a strange and Unusuall manner; all dissatisfied persons will rest Contented in the Setlement of the School, and providing for it at NewHaven, as being done by those that have the Care of it committed to them: and that too the appearances of Severall remarkable passages of

LXXVIII. Argument of the Upper House of the Connecticut General Assembly for their Action in Favor of the Settlement at New Haven

October 29, 1717

[From the original Journal in the Secretary of State's Office]

The Occasion of our desiring the Reverend Trustees of the Collegiate School to acquaint us with their proceedings in Erecting said School and building a house for it in N. Haven was the difference that had arisen among themselves and the great Contention it hath occasioned among the people, many persons Concerning themselves to have the house for the Colledge set up, in this place or that place, as it suited their fancy or Interest; the End we aimed at was by giving such advice and directions as it might be found proper to reconcile the Trustees, to Restore the Peace of the Land, and Encourage the good work under the Care of the Trustees. Upon a full hearing of the Trustees and Consideration of their representation and State of the said School We have considered the principal End of this Enquiry Viz that with the peace and good will of all as far as may be, the Collegiate School may flourish under the Care and Conduct of the Trustees, And We could heartily Wish it were possible that Every Individuall Person in the Land might be pleased with the place of Carrying on this Work, but as this (considered that wherever it stands, some men will think it more and some less Convenient for themselves in particular) is never to be Expected, We therefore lay it aside, and think with our Selves what probably may be grateful to them, that have been Sincerely in the Interest of the School and heartily wish its prosperity wherever it may be carryd. on and what will most conduce to the Rendering this School a lasting blessing to us. Wee Overlook therefore even what has been objected by some of the Trustees, against the doings of the other in this matter, Viz that they have not acted by a Majority in Erecting Removing and building a house for the said School at N: Haven, not because it seems difficult to determine whether they have or no, for Wee Judge they have, but because it does not seem to be of such Importance. ffor its Evident that the Trustees really beleived that they might act without Convening; That Mr. Ruggles was an Associate with them; That Mr. Mather was disabled from being so, tho contrary to what has been objected, and that in this perswasion they have acted for many Years, and supposing what they have done to be (In respect of what has been objected) Irregular, Yet its possible they have done what will well conduce to the End aimed at, the advancement of Learning among us, And if they have missed in not Acting by their Majority or Universality or in any other point of form Wee are to give our advice upon what they have done, not to distroy the End proposed Viz promotion of Learning, and to Encourage it. Our so doing will we hope end in the peace desired for certainly the Multitude of particular persons in our Severall Towns, if we Encourage this good work in such place as Wee think Convenient, will not be Uneasy because they cant- have it nearer to themselves. the Case then is Really this, The Trustees supposing themselves to have power in their Charter, have by their Majority at least Erected a School at Killingworth, removed it to Saybrook and at Length to N: Haven which they Judged in all respects most Convenient and most Sutable for them to pitch upon, here they have built a house and are in preparation to finish it, which they hope to do speedily, and Entertain in it about 40 Schollars.

Upon this Our advice and direction is, That not Troubling themselves with the Questions of Right that have arisen in this debate and caused so long Contention, The Trustees be directed and advised to finish their Undertaking acting therein by the Majority of their Number. Our Reasons are If it be so that what they have done with a good Intention may by the blessing of God attain the End and Support the School and be a happy means of furnishing us with men of Learning Wee ought to Encourage their hearts and Strengthen their hands in this good Undertaking. And Wee cant but hope that what they have done may under this Encouragement prove a great blessing to us. If we do discourage by our advice the Carrying on of this work, there may be great danger that we fail of the End it self, that neither these present Trustees, nor any other Sutable persons will be willing to Engage in such another Undertaking; the Animosities which have on this occasion arisen among us, may very probably prevail and End in the Subversion of much good, and we agree that these Resolutions should be delivered to the Trustees as our advice to them, which we hope may be of Use to them and may be profitably observed untill such Time as it may please God to provide some other way wherein the good work committed to their Care may be carryd on more to the advantage of the good End proposed and the said Trustees be Indemnifyed and Secured from any dammages comming to them, by what they have already done in the Mannagement of the affairs of the School, and bringing what they have begun to a good perfection.

LXXIX. PROPOSAL OF THE UPPER HOUSE OF THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY FOR A CONFERENCE ON COLLEGE AFFAIRS
October 29, 1717
[From the original in the State Library]
This House considering the affair of the Collegiate School, as Laid before this Assembly, the Importance of it, to the Publick Weal, and Peace, the great Expence Wee have been at, by the Length of the Debate, The Earnest desires of the Trustees, to be discharged from their present attendance, the Obstruction this gives to other buisness, The Mischeif of Suffering this Contention to remain, Do therefore agree to a Conference of both Houses, that by Mutuall Consideration and assistance, We may the better resolve, what advice & direction It may be best for us to give, Towards Restoring good Order and Peace, in Relation to the Mannagement of the School.

LXXX. PROCEEDINGS OF THE TWO HOUSES OF THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY, ON THE DETERMINATION OF A PLACE FOR THE SCHOOL

October 29-30, 1717

[From the original in the State Library]

It may be noted that the earliest recorded use of the previous question in the Connecticut Assembly is that mentioned here.

Voted by y's. House yt. after some Consideration of a Place proper for the Settlement of the Collegiate School under ye Present Difficult Circumstances of it, they will proceed to bring in their Votes, for ye Place of Building ye Collegiate School which is to be Determined by a Majority of ye Votes which are to be brought in in Writing.

After ye Consideration of ye Matter Mr. Speaker called for ye Votes of ye House for a Place to settle the Collegiate School, & ye House brought in their Votes, 35 of which were for Middletown, & 32 were for NHaven.

Majo r Burr, Majo r. Eells and Mr. Law a Committee of this board [i.e., the Upper House] Ordered to receive the Reasons from the Committee of the Lowr. House upon the Subject of the Collegiate School, Laid before this board what they rec'd from the Comitte of the Lowr. House as follows—

An Account of the Vote of the Lowr. House concerning the Election of Middletown, for placing the Collegiate School and the grounds of their proceedings therein.

Several principall members of this House Moved that this matter of the place of the Collegiate School might be brought to an Issue, and Urged the Necessity thereof and declared that if the Maj or. part of this House did Vote another place for the School then NewHaven, they would set down Satisfyed. After some Considerations it was moved that a previous Question should be put whether the Vote of the House upon the sd. matter should now be Taken. Some debate being had it was Voted in the Affirmative and after Considerable Time spent in considering and debating upon all Circumstances and Conveniences respecting a place, the House brought in their Votes in writing, and pitch\textsuperscript{c} upon Midletown. The Necessity of bringing this matter to an Issue by this Assembly is founded upon those Considerations besides what has been Intimated in the Reason of our former Votes. 1, The different Opinions of the Trustees concerning the Conveniency and Justice of the place, as well as the manner of Ordering. 2, the discouragement the School will Ly under without a determination. 3, The Peace and Satisfa\textsuperscript{c}ction of the Country, Its reasonably hop\textsuperscript{d} will follow from an Equall and Just determination.

And Likewise what the Committe of Board offered in answer to the afores\textsuperscript{d} Reasons, Viz:\textsuperscript{c}

Its doubted whether the Reasons given be sufficient to Warrant the Vote of the Lower House for fixing ye place for ye School---

1. Because it cannot be expected that all ye Trustees or members of any other Society should be all of ye same mind in all ye. Determinations, Unless ye matter were decided to be wrong.

2 Bec: ye Determination of ye place by those to whom it does not so properly belong, with ye like or greater Difference in Opinion will not Abate ye Discouragement.

3 Bec: It cant be reasonably hoped that peace and Satisfa\textsuperscript{c}tion should arise out of a more slender Majority in ye Decision by ye Assembly to whom it dos not so properly appertain as by ye clearer Majority of ye Trustees. Neither can that Decision be lookt upon so equal and just as this of ye Trustees whose proper work it is.

[Final action of the Upper House]

Ordered that the following Message be Entered in our Journall and sent to the Low\textsuperscript{r} House

Mr. Speak\textsuperscript{r} and Gentlemen of the Low\textsuperscript{r} House

It is now many days that Wee have been Taken up in the affair of the Collegiate School, and after many Endeavours by Votes and by Committees, without any prospect of Uniting in any Conclusion Wee proposed to You a Conference of both Houses which you have declined. Conference being an Ancient Custom of this Assembly, in Cases wherein the Houses cannot otherwise come to a Conclusion in any matter before them, Wee have searched our Records and cannot find that this House Ever refused a Conference when You moved for it and as Wee can't think there should be any Sufficient Reasons to deny what has been so Customary, Wee recommend it again to You that Wee may have Opportunity in Conference, to communicate our thoughts to each other, since Wee have no prospect in any other way to Understand what it may be fit for us to do to put an End to the Contentions that have been too long in the Colony about the Collegiate School.

LXXXII. Resolves of the Connecticut General Assembly

October 31, 1717

[From the printed Colonial Records, vol. 6, pp. 30, 38, Hartford, 1872]

Att a Generall Assembly held at New Haven.

A Question being put, whether under the present circumstances of the affairs of the Collegiate School, the Rever'd Trustees be advised to proceed in that affair, and finish the House, they have built in New Haven, for the Entertainment of the Schollars belonging to the Collegiate School: Resolved in the affirmative.

Resolved by this Assembly, That in lieu of one hundred and twenty pounds in pay formerly granted by this court for the encouragement of the collegiate school, and to be drawn out of the publick treasury, there shall be the sum of one hundred pounds in bills of publick credit distributed among those that have instructed the scholars belonging to the collegiate school, the year past, both at Wethersfield, New Haven and Seybrook, in proportion, according to the number of scholars taught by them.

LXXXIII. LETTER OF THE TRUSTEES

October 31, 1717

[From the original draft in the University Archives]

This letter was addressed to Jeremy Dummer, the Colony Agent in London. It is in the handwriting of the Rev. John Davenport, of Stamford, and the signatures are autographs.

Right WorP-full Sir

We have Remaining grateful Resentments of yr. Generous Donation of an handsome Number of Books to furnish yr. Library, indeed not yet prepared. We are in hopes of having shortly perfected yr. Splendid Collegiate House, which was raised on the 8th. Instant. We behold its fair Aspect in the Market-place of New-haven, mounted in an Eminent place thereof, in length ten Rods, in breadth 21 foot, & near thirty foot upright, a Spacious hall, & an Equally Spacious Library, All in a little time to be Splendidly compleated. It was some months past farr from our tho'ts, that the House would have been built in any other Town than Saybrook; but great Dissatisfaction taken by some of our own Number hath occasioned a Dark Cloud of Reflexion on that place as Unfit for the School, by whom also vigorous Endeavor have been used, that hartford or some place near it might be the Seat of Literature in yr. Colony, which all of us underwritten could not admitt as Convenient for the so great Distance from the Sea-Side.
Wherefore Necessity obliging us to Remove it from Saybrook, the Greater part by farr of Our Number have agreed upon the Large & Pleasant Town of New-haven to be the kind Alumna to bear in her Arms, & cherish in her Bosom the Infant Nursery of Learning in Our Government.

We easily perswade ourselves, The Design of yo\textsuperscript{r}. Liberal Donation was to lend a Generous hand to advance the Interest of Learning in Our Colony & particularly to brighten the Countenances of the Trustees, under whose Oversight the School hath flourisht & we hope, yet will: not to furnish many illiterate families in Saybrook with a stock of Books each, as We have heard the uneasy spirits of that Town incline & seem resolved, from an Opinion that yo\textsuperscript{r}. Donation, Right Wor\textsuperscript{p}.full Sir, is the Propriety of the School in that Place; which if yo\textsuperscript{r}. Intention Justify, we are sorry, that ye Shelves of our famous Library should appear ashamed for want of yo\textsuperscript{r}. Books further to beautify them.

The affair of o\textsuperscript{r}. School hath been in a Condition of Pregnancy. Painfull with a witness have been the Throwes thereof in this General Assembly. But we just now hear, that after the Violent Pangs threatening the Very life of the Babe, Divine Providence as a kind Obstetrix hath mercifully brought the Babe into the World, & behold a Man-child is born, whereat We all Rejoyce, & when Yo\textsuperscript{r}. Hono\textsuperscript{r}. heareth the Same, We are perswaded, that yo\textsuperscript{r}. Hono\textsuperscript{r}. will bear a part in Our Joy, that, with the Countenance & Concurrence of the Gen\textsuperscript{l}. Assembly, both of the Upper & Lower House the Carrying on of the Collegiate house in this Celebrated Town of New-haven be proceeded on & forwarded & finished by the Care of the Trustees with all Convenient Speed. Now We Rejoyce that our Settling the Collegiate School at N Haven is favoured with so Ample Approbation as that of the two Houses, & now there is an hopeful Prospect of the Peace of the Colony, which hath been so threatened on said Settlement, We shall also rejoyce to understand by a Line from yo\textsuperscript{r}. Hono\textsuperscript{r}.; that we have not mistaken yo\textsuperscript{r}. Donation to be made unto the Trustees for the use of the Collegiate School, wherever the same were finally settled, & particularly at N Haven, the place of the Remains of an assured friend of yo\n. Hono\n, the Reverend Mr. Pierpont, a most obliging, capable & Industrious Undertaker for the School, decd, whose great Serviceableness we cannot loose the Sence of. We cheerfully & gratefully acknowledg the many kind offices of the Liberal Benefacto\ns. of o\n. School, & shall with all thankfulness receive further Donations of Such Generous Gentlemen, who thr\o the Influence of Heaven may cast a Smiling Aspect upon our Nursery. We shall not give further trouble now, after unfeigned wishes of yo\n. Hono\ns. prosperity, & acknowledgment that we are

Right Worshipful Sir

LXXXIV. HISTORICAL REMARKS CONCERNING THE COLLEGIATE SCHOOL

begun November 20, 1717, and continued at intervals to June, 1719

[From the University Archives]

The author, Samuel Johnson, a native of Guilford, was graduated in 1714, and entered, in October, 1716, on a Tutorship, which he filled until September, 1719, when he was called to settle in the ministry in West Haven. His later career as an Episcopal missionary in Stratford, and as President of Kings College, is well known.
Some Historical Remarks
Concerning the Collegiate School of Connecticut in New Haven

Written in part Nov. 20, 1717, per S. Johnson.

It was 15 yrs. age, namely the 9th day of Octobr. 1702 That Several Worthy Gentlemen of this Colony of Connecticut, Considering the want of Learning and Learned men both in Chh & State, and the Great Difficulty & extream Charges of Educating Children at Harvard Colledge in Cambridge, it being so very remote from us, & the Like, did prefer a petition before the Genl. Assembly of this Colony for Licence to Erect a Collegiate School for the Instructing Young Men in the Liberal Arts & Sciences, which They by virtue of thier power by Charter from the Crown of Great Brittain might Grant. Whereupon The Assembly taking it into Consideration saw Cause to make an Act, Grant or Charter therein Conveying full right, Liberty & Privilige to these Gentlemen, to Erect, forme & Direct such a School, in Such Convenient place or places as to ym. should seem most meet, & in a word committed the whole of the Affaire to them to be mannaged according to thier best Discretion as by yr. Charter appears.

These Venerable Gentlemen, Trustees pursuant to thier Act, met together sundry Times faithfully Consulting & determining what should be most Convenient to be done in the Affair and first If I misremember not at SayBrook and Chose a Rector viz Mr. Israel Chauncey of Stratford, agreeing (at least a Majr. part of them) that the School should be at Say-Brook, & that Mr. Chauncey remove his family thither. But Mr. Chauncey declining it they then chose Mr. Abraham Piersen of Kennelsworth and Concluded that for as much as they had not Sufficient Money to build directly at SayBrook therefore the Students (as many as did Appear) should repair to Kennelsworth till providence should further open a Door for the Settlement of ye School, intending when that should be to Consummate the Settlemt of it at SayBrook. Whereupon they founded Laws and Orders for the Governmt. & mannag-ing of the School, & Chose Mr. Moses Noyes & Samll. Russel Trustees, & there appearing some number of Students they Chose Mr. Danl. Hooker of H. Coll. to assist Mr. Pierson in Instructing and Governing the Students as Tutor, who after Some Abode in ye Work, leaving it, they Chose Mr. Jn'o. Hart, to be the Tutor who with Mr. Pierson pursued the Instruction of Youth for 2 or 3 years, Good Education being now attainable in the School, & after his Departure into the Ministry Mr. Phineas Fisk was Chosen to assist as Tutr. about ye yr. 1706. & so things continued Till some Time the next yr. (If I am right informed) The Revd. Mr. Pierson Died. W'upon the Revd. Trustees met together to Consult the Affairs of the School, & Chose the Reverend Presbyter Mr. Samuel Andrew of Milford to be the Rector Ordering part of the Schollars to wait on him for thier Instruction at Milford till the End of the Year; Mr. Fisk by the Order of Some of them with the Other Classes going over to Saybrook where they had designed to be, & thus it Continued till Commencement 2d Week in Sept. when the Reverend Trustees met & Chose Mr. Hale of Harvd. Coll. to assist Mr. Fisk at Saybrook without a resident Rector, Mr. Andrew attending only atCommencements, & managing them; And thus Affairs were till next year when Mr. Hale upon some uneasiness went away and they chose Mr. Azariah Mather to be Colleague w'th. Mr. Fisk who continued with him in ye Work till Commencement 1710 when (Mr. Buckingham the Past'i. of Saybrook Chh dying) Mr. Mather was chosen thier Pastor in his room & ordained, upon which The Revd. Trustees chose Mr. Joseph Noyes Tutor w'th. Mr. Fisk (& Mr. Ruggles Trustee) who with Mr. Fisk Managed the Affairs of the School, till Commencement 1713 when Mr. Fisk left the School, being called to Hadam, & thereupon the Trustees chose Mr. William Russel Tutor, and he continued at the School that year at the End w'of (his Father ye Minister at Middletown having died) he was called to the Ministry in his room When at Commencement 1714 The Trustees chose Mr. Samll. Russel Tutr. w'th. Mr. Noyes, and Mr. Jno. Davenport Trustee (In Mr. Russel's room,) and by those two Tutors. affairs were managed that year, till the next Commencem't. Sept. 1715 in w:e. year by the bountiful & liberal Donation of Divers well Spirited Gentlemen in Brittain procured By Mr. Jeremiah Dummer Agent for this Colony, we had a very valuable and considerable Library of Choice Books Sent to us. And at this Commencem't. Mr. Noyes was called to New Haven in the room of the Venerable Trustee Mr. James Pierpont, & Mr. Benjamin Lord was chosen Tutor w:th. Mr. Russel. The next Winter after w:e., in Decemb'r. or Jan'y, there arose an unhappy Dissention in the Colledge, the Schollars finding fault with thier Tutors, (w:e. tho' rather too young yet unworthy of the Aspersions cast on them by the Schollars,) as Insufficient and this Murmuring of the Unruly & Ungoverned Schollars advanced to a Great heigth blown up (as was on but too good Grounds thought) by some Gentlemen up on Connecticut River, & also by some belonging to Saybrook Town, who wished not well either to the School's being at SayBrook, or to the Tutors or both. As also great fault was found with SayBrook as a place not Suitable for the School, & thus the Tut:rs. were disgraced & the Town became odious throughout the Colony—and this mutiny could not be heal'd tho many Gentlemen took pains with the Schollars for y:t. End.

Affairs being thus The Trustees agreed to meet at SayBrook April 1 week 1716 to Endeavour the Reconciliation of this Difference, present M:rs. James Noyes, Moses Noyes, Samuel Andrew, Samuel Russel, Timothy Woodbridge, Thos. Buckingham, Thos. Ruggles, who made diligent Enquiry concerning the Causes of ye Disturbances, and what was allledged was the Insufficiency of ye Tutors, and altho' all that was allledged against them was Judged not Sufficent to oblige ye Trustees to make another Choice or any further provision for ye Instruction of ye School, yet that they might make things the more Easy, they allowed the Dissatisfied Schollars to repair to such instructors as they might be satisfied in, till ye Commencement, where ye pleased—and Ordered in ye mean time that Buildings might go forward at SayBrook, hoping that might quiet the Schollars.
Immediately upon this, many of ye Schollars repaired to thier respective homes & w't. they might have Instruction to thier minds, a considerable number of them gathering at Wethersfield, Some of ye Trustees expecting things might be making ready for ye buildings. Instead thereof ye was the next May an unaccountable petition presented to ye Gen'l. Court, representing the State of ye School & desiring that it might be removed from SayBrook & Settled at Hartford, which caused a mighty Commotion in ye Assembly, & great Concern. The Trustees were sent for to ye Court, and of y'm. came Mr. Russel, Mr. Webb, Mr. Davenport & Mr. Ruggles, Mr. Woodbridge & Mr. Buckingham being then present. They two last had preferred that strange and irregular petition, unknown to the other Trustees. The Trustees thus met at Hartford consulted & conferred with the Assembly, opposing Mr. Woodbridge & Mr. Buckingham thier petition, & Desiring the Assembly not to take it to ye. Consideration till Octo're. Court at N. Haven & agreed that unless they could Universally agree on ye next Commencem't where ye School should be Built, then they would Desire the Assembly to nominate a place for it, and thus Matters being in Suspence, a few Schollars remained under Mr. Russel & Lord at Saybrook, & that Summer Mr. Lord seing how things were disposed, laid down his post, Mr. Russel yet continuing till Commencem't. Sept. 1716 when he laid down his also. At this Time the Trustees consulted further w't. to do relating to the Settlem't. of the School. Those that were not present at Hartford dissented from the Agree'm't then made, and they made attempts to Settle it by thier Agree'm't on Saybrook, But Mr. Wood-b---ge & Mr. B---m voted for Hartford, but not being able to bring any thing to pass they agreed to meet at N. Haven Oct. 1716 at the Time of the Gen'l. Court, then & there to determine where the School should be Setled. And it may be remarked that between the May & Octo're. Courts, there were various Towns w't. bid for the School—Saybrook 12 or 1400 pounds, Hartford endeavoured but could make no hand of getting Money, at least not so much as they could think worth ye mentionning, At N. Haven were 15 or 2000lb gathered by Subscriptions, hoping on each hand that the Money gathered might be a temptation to bring ye School yre.

Things having been at Commenmt reduced to the posture mentioned, the Trustees having agreed so to doe, met accordingly at N. Haven at ye Time of ye Genll Court Oct. 1716, present Mr. Moses Noyes, Mr. Samll Andrew, Samuel Russel, Joseph Webb, Timothy Woodbridge, Thos. Buckingham, Jnll Daventl, Tho. Ruggles, & because the Elder of ye Trustees dissented from the Hartford act, having not been legally warned to ye Meeting, Therefore the first Question was, whither that Act of universalaty made at Hartford was binding & whither therefore they were oblieged to address the Genll Court? This Question considered was voted in ye negative by all but Mr. W——ge & Mr. B——m—& the Upper House was consulted with what to do who advised by no meanes to address the lower House. This Act thus being dissolved the SeaSide Gentlemen lookd on themselves free from all obligation to address the Assembly and therefore the Question returned whither the School should be removed from SayBrook, considering the Circumstances of it, & the Odium brought on SayBrook, and the difficulty of procuring Instructns & Governns for it &c? (now herein all agreed but Mr. Noyes the Moderator) & if so whither it be moved from SayBrook & Settled at New Haven & this was voted in ye affirmative by the Revd. Messieurs Mr. S. Andrew, Russel, Webb, Daventl & Ruggles, Mr. W——ge & B——m against it, Mr. Noyes for it if it must be necessarily removed from Saybrook, which necessity he could not see. Thus therefore 5 against 3, being so great a majority the Seaside Trustees esteemed reasonably the School was Settled at N. Haven & therefore proceeded to conclude for the Buildings & many acts were passed relating to them & they chose Mr. S. Buckingham of Norwalk Trustee & Mr. Samll Smith & S——Joh——n Tutors & the latter accepted & the former Mr. Smith was sent to, & engaged to come, & thus things were hopefully settled, the Schollars of ye Seaside & two from the upper County repaired to N. Haven & the young Tutor accordingly came to do his part & got into a posture of business. Mr. W—ge & B—m did indeed go to the Court but got nothing effected & thier dissatisfaction remained, & under their Influence Mr. Smith was supposed to neglect coming, & ye next news was he would not come but the upriver Schollars gathered at Wethersfield and were instructed by him & Mr. Williams all ye year—rebelling against ye Rev'd Trustees, & under this disappointment the Senior Class at N. H. were instructed all ye year by Mr. Noyes ye Minister of ye Town & the rest under mySelf, a few yet residing at Saybrook under Mr. Mather.

These disappointments had indeed a very melancholly Aspect, & Mr. W—ge & B—m contrived a remonstrance in ye name of ye Counties of N. London & Hartford to be sent about to raise a faction against Newhaven which was afterwards fully answered by an Antiremonstrance. Things were indeed bad, but ye Seaside Trustees were resolved to make the best of a bad market.

The Committee of ye Trustees for building an House met Several Times & at length addressed his Hon'r. Gov'r. Saltonstall according to Agreement for a plan of ye House who accordingly gave it and provision was making for ye building; by Jan'y. 8 1716/7 they began to get timber. Rumors were continually heard from the North, the remonstrance had grounded thier Dissatisfaction on 3 reasons, Scil. 1. because the School was set so far distant from those two bigger Counties in a lesser, & 2 only by an Equal number of Trustees aledging Mr. Mathr. of W—r who had been disabled for many years to be one, & Mr. Noyes of Stonningtown not being present, & 3 the Hartford act. The Trustees ye were for N. Haven did esteem that the Maj'r. part of ye numb'r. present was to determine, if all had a legal warning, as ye then had; but yet to answer their main Argument they sent to Mr. Noyes of Stonnington who signed all the Acts passed in Oct'r. with his own hand. & now they hoped they were secure, & so things rested till May Gen'l. Court 1717. At which Mr. N—s of Lyme, Mr. W—ge & B—m, he for Saybrook they for Hartford, addressed the Court, that the School might be settled on ye River Connecticut not Specifying the place. they argued that Mr. Noyes of Stonningstons signing was not good, & ye. Mr. Math was a Trustee & that Mr. Ruggles of Guildford was no Trustee, because chose before 40 yr. old, contrary to Charter. (indeed he was nominated before 40, but never accepted nor acted till after) by such arguments ye got it passed in the lower House but not in ye upper & so brought nothing to pass. & so things remained under ye extream dissatisfaction till Commencement at N. Haven Sept. 1717, when there was a meeting of ye Trustees but tho' all warned yet only Mr. James Noyes, Sam'l. Andrew, S. Russell, Jos. Webb. Jnso. Davenp't, Th. Ruggles, Steph. Buckingham present, who all agreed with one Consent to what was done ye Octobr. before & that Mr. Ruggles was a Trustee, Mr. Buckingham of Norwalk also agreeing in that, so that now things seemed incontestable, Six Trustees at least, against five at most, in truth against but 4, & they agreed that the rector with any two Trustees might choose another Tutor. And in the mean time the House was almost ready to be raised, and was raised in the first week of Octobr. following.

But all this satisfied not the dissatisfied party, who was resolved to make one Tryal more at ye Genl. Court at N. Haven Oct. 2 week &c. 1717, & accordingly it was moved by thier Instrumts. violently in the lowr. House to send for the Trustees & call them to Acco+, which after long debate it passed in the upper house to desire ye Trustees to appear & they all came as one man accordingly. They at first endeavrd an Agreement among themselves, but that proved impracticable, Mr. W—ge & B—m standing out to the last. And in the mean time the lower House were passing votes concerning the School and made first the Competition between SayBrook & any other place, upon wc. SayBrook had but Six votes, notwithstanding all the friendship Hartford Gentlemen had pretended to; & it now plainly appr'd. that they never intended SayBrook for the place. Then the House advanced ye Competition between Newhaven and Middletown, and Middletown carried the vote by 2 or 3, but all this discouraged not the Seaside Trustees, who in the mean time consulted first whither ye should offer any thing to the Court? to which ye agreed, & Then what to offer? and at last they Drew up answers to all ye Objections made against N Haven & Justified wt. they had done, & in the mean time the Upper house was determining in favour of them. At length after many debates, it was agreed to dispute it out before both houses which was accordingly done Saturday Oct. 26, when first His Hon'r. the Gov'r. G. Saltonstall Esqr. made a Speech signifying his Sorrow to see the difference & propounding the design of the present Convention, viz. for the peaceable issue thereof, prescribing ye method of ye Debate; according to which first Mr. Davenport in the Name of the Seaside Trustees gave a Memorial of all their proceedings & vindicated the same, showing likewise the Irregular & factious Managements up ye river; & especially of the petition preferred to ye Genl. Court in May 1716. After which Mr. Woodbridge offered against what was alledged & endeavoured ye Vindication of wt. they had done up ye river. To ye Mr. Davenport made answer. The reasons insisted on in ye remonstrance & that of Mr. Ruggles's being no Trustee were to all impartial Hearers taken off & so ye Dispute ended. After ye some of ye Discontented of ye Lower House argued that the Trustees's Charter intimated, that they must be all agreed, or the School is not settled, but that came to nothing.

The Upper house all as one man agreed that they would advise the Trustees settling ye School at N Hav. to go on with it, esteeming thier Cause just and good, & they sent it down to ye Lower House, where ye was great throws & pangs & Controversy & mighty Strugglings; at length they put it to vote and there were six more for ye side of N. Haven than ye Contrary; the majr. part thus Joyning with the Upper House to advise ye Rev'd. Trustees to go forward with ye Collège at N. Haven. & thus at length the Upriver party had thier will in having ye School settled by the Genl. Court, tho sorely against y^r. will at N. Haven, but many own’d themselves fairly beat.

The Trustees thereupon Agreed to send again for Mr. Smith to assist in Tuition, & for ye Schollars to come down, but to make all things easy allowed six or 8 to abide there till Spring, & allowed according to act of ye Genl. Assembly, that ye Tutors at Wethersfield & SayBrook have tquier proportion of ye Monie given out of ye Colony Treasury, and impowred Mr. Ruggles & Mr. Russel junr. to go to Saybrook & demand the Library and thus things were left.

But after some Time, the News was Mr. Smith (tho’ indeed he had been down & given encouragmt.) would not come down nor any of ye Schollrs. & that it was by Mr. W—ges advise, & upon Mr. Ruggles & Mr. Russells demand SayBrook people refused the Library.

These things looked dark & malencholy & even Spightfull & malicious. The Committe of ye Trustees then met Dec. 16, & entreated Mr. S. Russel to undertake the Tuition of Schollars again, but he refused and they at length prevailed on Mr. Moss of Derby & Mr. Noyes of N. H. to take Care of the upper Class who did accordingly & thus things rested all the year, the Wethersfield Schollars yet continuing there. The building went forward a pace, so that the Hall & Library were finished by Commencement. A few days before Commencement came the news of the good Success of some Gentlemens endeavours to procure some Donations from G. Brittain, for at Boston arived a Large Box of Books, the Picture & Arms of K. George and two hundred lb. Sterling worth of English Goods, all to the vallue of 800lb, in our money, from Govern^r. Yale of London, which greatly revived our hearts & Disheartened our opposers, who notwithstanding was resolved to have a Commencemt. at Wethersfeild and so had one ye same Day of o^rs. here, when they pretended to Graduate 5 of their Schollars, but we having so fair a building in so good a progress & so much authority for the Settlement & so much Encouragemt. therein that we regarded not their managements, & was favoured and Honoured with the presence of his Honr. Govr. Saltonstall & his Lady & the Honble. Col. Taylor of Boston & the Levtenant Govr. & whole Superior Court at our Commandent Sept. 10, 1718, where the Trustees present (those Gentlemen being present) in the Hall of our New Colledge first most Sollemnly named our Colledge by the name of YALE COLLEDGE to perpetuate the Memory of the Honble. Govr. Elihu Yale Esqr. of London who had granted so Liberal & bountiful a Donation for the perfecting & adorning of it, upon which the Honble. Colll. Taylor represented Govr. Yale in a Speech expressing his great Satisfaction.

Which ended we passed to the Church and there the Commencement was carried on in which affair in the first place after prayer an Oration was had by the Saluting Orator James Pierpont & then the Disputations as usual, which concluded The Revd. Mr. Davenport offered an Excellent Oration in Lattin expressing their Thanks to Almighty God, & Mr. Yale under him for so public a favour & so great regard to our Languishing School after which were graduated 10 young men whereupon the Honble. Govr. Saltonstall in a Lattin Speech congratulated the Trustees on their Speech and on the comfortable appearance of things, with relation to their School.

All which ended the Gentlemen all returned to the Colledge hall where they were Entertained with a splendid Dinner, & The Ladies at the same time were also Entertained in the Library, after which they sung the 4 first verses in ye 65 Ps. and so the Day ended. Every thing was managed with so much Order & Splendour that the fame of it extremely disheartened the Opposers & made opposition fall before it, & an Account of the whole whereof was sent to our Honourable Patron Govr. Yale.

And after a months vacation the Schollars all repaired to Colledg again that had been here with the addition of 5 ffreshmen, & upon the 8 of Octobr. Mr. D. Brown (whom the Trustees had chosen to assist in Tuition of the Colledg) with myself and as many Schollars as with Conveniency could, first lodged in & inhabited the Colledg, four or 5 Chambers being in a measure finished, & the next Day sat the Gen"ll. Court. His Hon'r. the Govern'r. desired & had the Trustees Consent that the upper house should sit in the Library & accordingly they did, and towards the end of these Sessions an Act was passed in fav'r. of the Colledg & for the Encouragement thereof; indeed it met with opposition & difficulty at first but at length the Thing was pretty comfortably issued to the Satisfaction of every man in both Houses.

The Act Expressed That all Controversy about the School should henceforth cease, that the Schollars should come down from Wethersfield and all repair to N. Haven, That Hartford should have 600 pound to build them a State house or an Equivalent, That all the Books of the Library that were at Saybrook should be resigned up, & that Saybrook should have 90 pound for their town School as an equivalent, & every one seemed to be well satisfied in what was done, & so the Court broke up. Upon Oct. 30 came Gov'r. Yales Donation, with the Arms & Picture of K. George. One thing which also dashed the upriver Gentlemen out of Countenance was that while the Gen"ll. Court sat the Honble. Jahleel Brinton of Newport was pleased to bestow 100 pound on the School & to send it down from Hartford (he being there) by one of their own Magistrates, whereas they had been courting him to have given it to them to build there, & besides many that had bidden for the School there, withdrew.

We expected all things would have been easy, but not long after altho some of the Schollars came down from Wethersfeild yet Mr. W——ge perswaded as many as he could to continue, & they returned to their accustomed managements under the pretense of waiting for a Trustee's Meeting & whereas Mr. Russel & Mr. Ruggles went over to Saybrook for the Library supposing there would be no difficulty yet they continued to refuse the Books. Thus both Wethersfeild & Saybrook rebelled against the Court Acts for present. But at length about the last week of Novemb'r. the Schollars came down all to a man under a pretense of obedience to the Court ...Act but indeed (as afterward appeared) with (at least in some of them) a Design to disgrace our Colledg & Tutors, and either to unhorse our Tutors & get Creatures of their own or to return again & set up a School of their own; however, they came with a mighty Specious appearance of Submission & order. His Hon: the Govr: hearing of the refusal of the Library calls together the Council to Saybrook where they Ordered Mr. Buckingham in whose house they were to deliver ym. but he refused, then after pains taken with him by persuasion to no purpose they bound him over to answer to the next Genl. Court in an 100th bond, and immediately ordered the Sheriff to Siez the Books who went accordingly but met with such opposition that he returned again & took new orders with him to break doors & call assistance which he did & broke the door of Mr. Buckinghams house & entered & siezd the Library & it was guarded all night & provision was made next day for the Transporting of it by Carts, but in the night the Carts were broken & confounded & oxen turned away; nevertheless they made new provision & the next day under ye Major of ye County’s Conduct they were transported out of Town, & some of the opposers that talk’d sausily were bound over to the next County Court. The books tho’ they met with opposition by the way in that some of the bridges were broken up yet in 3 days they arived at ye Colledg at N. Haven, about ye beginning of Decembr., but we found about 260 wanting; however all we had being above a 1000 vulloms of choice books we fixed up in order in ye Library.

The Schollars from Wethersfield tarried wth: an appearance of Order (but very immoral in their Conversation so that they became odious to the people of ye Town) about a month, when the black design whereof we had for many good reasons been all along suspicious was manifest, for by this time they had got together a Collection of faults (which we all along observed y: were watching for) which they found wth: the public Expositions & Disputations & management of the Tutors & especially the two upper Clases which were under me i.e. one of the 3 Senior Sophisters & 5 of the 10 Junr. Sophisters leveld their Spight especially against me & ye Colledge & the Town. Their objections were sent up clandestinely to Mr. W——ge and as we were informed afterwards were approved by him as sufficient, altho' they were all of them either Designed misunderstandings or misrepresentations or else absolute falshoods; however ye attained their end, for presently thereupon comes 3 of the parents of the Scholars to see how it was, & they designed to have them away, but we sent for Mr. Andrew, Mr. Russel being here, & they discoursed the Gentlemen and told them that they had no power to do anything without a meeting of the Trustees, they judged the Tutors to be sufficient, & tho' it hard that the Schollars should be judges for ye Contrary and advised them to keep the Schollars here at least till a Meeting of ye Trustees. They went away with a pretense to advise ye Schollars to be quiet, but before they went away out of town gave leave for the Schollars to go away. The Schollars were going away all so fast, but Mr. Noyes the Minister after advising with the 2 Trustees as abovementioned & Tutors offered to take care of the Junr. Sophisters class himself, & that he would endeavour to procure Mr. Moss to tend the Seniors, so that the Sophimores should be under me & ye Freshmen under Mr. Brown. They hereupon saw themselves in a Snare & sent up to take advise with the Gentlemen above, & their Messenger took an unwearied deal of pains to perswade the parents to the Contrary & after 10 days returned with horses for the Schollers and upon the 10 of Jan'y they all went away again but one. Some of them & especially two of the Senr. Sophisters who were honestly disposed went away with great reluctance & with a design to return again. Thus we were left with but Seventeen Schollars, wth. whom we yet continued, in a steddy course of business untill the second week in March when by Order of our Honble. Govr. Saltonstall there was a Meeting of the Govr. & Council and ye Trustees at Newhaven, & his Honr. had ordered the Schollars who went away so Disorderly to appear and give an Account of their so doing, but not one appeared nor ye Trustees upon ye River, whereby it was plain that their reasons were frivolous & such as themselves were ashamed of; & since they had no opportunity to inquire into that matter, it was Judged Convenient for the answering of all objections that could be made against the provision that was made for instruction & Governm't, that there should be a Resident Rector provided. Accordingly at the Advice of ye Gov'r. & Council The Rev'd. Trustees (justifying & commending ye Tut'rs. finding not the least fault in them) chose the Rev'd. Mr. Timothy Cutler ye Minister of Stratford to be the Resident Rector for the Present till the next meeting we should be on the 3d of June, & thereupon ye Rev'd. Mr. Cutler was applied unto by ye Trustees, and consented to come over and take Care of ye Colledg till the next Meeting & on ye 24 of March came, & undertook ye Affair & instructed one Class, & the Tut'rs. Mr. Brown & myself yet continued also in the Colledg, & The Rector & Tut'rs. together conspired in promoting the Instruction & order of ye Colledg, & thus things were to remain till the next Meeting, & the Schollars were to return down to N. Haven again.

But notwithstanding this provision, yet the Schollars above came not Down but yet continued under Mr. Williams & Hall and carried on their business, and great endeavours were used in the discontented parts of ye Governm't to procure the leaving out of o't. Excellent Gov'r. Saltonstall and set up Mr. Gould, and indeed they had but too nearly effected it, & Mr. Woodb—ge & Mr. Buck—m were chosen Deputies for the Town of Hartford; their projection was that if Mr. Gould were at ye Head of the upper house & Mr. W—ge of the lower, they might effect something destructive to the Colledg at N. Haven.

But the Election approached when the Gov'r. was chosen as before and their measures broken: Mr. Buck—m would not set in the Lower house; Mr. W—d—ge came & upon offering to take ye Deputies oath was refused and voted out of the house by a major part of ye house by four or five & their objection was his having charged the Gov'r. & Council of the breach of the 6th. & 8th. Commands in what they had done at SayBrook about the books whereupon he was tried and the Lower house acquitted him of Defamation, yet he stands condemned of it by the upper house. Thus they were not only disappoynted but defeated in their designs; and had no further hopes, but the Majority of both houses voted the addition of 40^{th} per annum to the Colledg Salary for the maintenance of the Rector.

The Trustees met according to their agreement on ye 3^{d} of June, some of them, & confirmed their choice of Mr. Cutler & procured the Subscription of 7 or 8 Trustees to the Choice & offered 140^{th} per annum, and agreed y^t. some of their body should concert matters with Stratford about removing their Minist^r. & Mr. Cutler undertook the further Care of the Colledge, & in three weeks time all the upriver Schollars came down again who for a month or two had been in no business.

LXXXV. LETTER OF COTTON MATHER

January 14, 1718

[From a copy in Quincy's History of Harvard University, vol. 1, pp. 524-526, Cambridge, 1840]

The letter was addressed to Governor Elihu Yale, of London.

Boston, New England, 14th d. 11th month, 1717-18

Sir,

. . . . . . . The Colony of Connecticut, having for some years had a College at Saybrook without a collegious way of living for it, have lately begun to erect a large edifice for it in the town of New Haven. The charge of that expensive building is not yet all paid, nor are there yet any funds of revenues for salaries to the Professors and instructors to the society.

1 Voluminous papers relative to this trial of the Rev. Timothy Woodbridge, of Hartford, in 1719, are preserved in the State Library.
Sir, though you have your felicities in your family, which I pray God continue and multiply, yet certainly, if what is forming at New Haven might wear the name of Yale College, it would be better than a name of sons and daughters. And your munificence might easily obtain for you such a commemoration and perpetuation of your valuable name, as would indeed be much better than an Egyptian pyramid.

We have an excellent friend, our Agent, Mr. Jeremiah Dummer, who has been a tender, prudent, active and useful patron of the infant College at Connecticut. . . . . . He will doubtless wait upon you, and propose to you, and concert with you the methods in which your benignity to New Haven may be best expressed.

Nor will it be any disadvantage unto your person or family, for a good people to make mention of you in their prayers unto the glorious Lord, as one who has loved their nation, and supported and strengthened the seminary from whence they expect the supply of all their synagogues. . . . . .

I subscribe, Sir,

Your most sincere friend and servant,

Cotton Mather.

. . . . . In your last Letter you mention'd the receipt of the Catalogue of your Library, but took no notice of having receiv'd another case of books at the same time, which however I hope went safe to you. I took no bill of Ladeing for 'em because the Master carryed 'em Gratis. I am endeavouring to get you a Present from Mr. Yale for the finishing your Colledge, of which I shall write you more particularly in a little time. . . . . . .

Revd. Gentn.

We received yo/rs giving us notice of ye meeting of the Trustees at Gilford, & desiring our attendance there. Such is or. desire of a peaceable accommodation of the differences respecting the Collegiate School that we are willing to take much more pains than that if we could have any prospect of putting an end to them. they are burthensome to us; grievous to the Country & a hurt to or. holy Religion, giving the enemies to Learning & Religion too much occasion to rejoice, & a breaking of the bond of charity between the good, & we think that it highly concerns us that preach ye gospel of peace to others to be Leaders therein ourselves. tis in vain to propagate that we are the Persons that make all the trouble till you can reconcile us to this, that those that are Sufferers are obliged not only to bear patiently what injury is done them but alsoe to be well pleased with those yt. doe it, & that they are ye troublers yt. complain of it. we orelves are very desirous to doe what is proper to us to end the disputes & to put an end to these troubles by some practical accomodation, unto wch. the vote of the Lower house this Court (a Copie of wch. is inclosed) doth fairly lead up. They (as you will see) advise the Trustees to consent that the Comencements be inter-changeably held at Wethersfield & Newhaven till ye place of the School be fully determined. We freely comply with ye advice & desire the same of yo.rselves, & are hopefull it may be a very fit medium to promote our unity & peace, wch we hope hath such weight that you will as readily comply with it as we doe; & we shall (if refused) as we think have just reason to suppose that a peaceable composing of our difficulties in a way soe agreeable to the greater part of ye Country is not enough at heart with you & ye you have a purpose of forcing others to a complyance with you wch we cannot think is a spirrit should govern christians much less the Ministers of a peaceable Gospel; the wisdom that is from above is pure, peaceable, Gentle & easie to be entreated. We look upon yo'selves as those ye have seperated us from you, & that we are the Persons that desire to be at unity, & that strife & variance should be laid aside. if you see cause to take the above-mentioned advice we shall desire ye same service may be performed by Mr. Andrew as formerly; we desire noe alteration there, & o: Scholars will readily come to him to take the usual directions. we pray these things may be well weighed & not rejected on niceties & ye you would give us a speedy answer & if you comply with us please to continue or adjourn your meeting to ye next week & we shall endeavour to wait upon you. We desire yo: prosperity & are yo:rs: in the Duties of Love & peace.

LXXXIX. LETTER OF BENJAMIN COLMAN

June 4, 1718

[From a copy in the Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, vol. 6, p. 184, Boston, 1904]

The writer was graduated at Harvard College in 1692, and was now one of the Fellows of that Corporation, being pastor of the Brattle Street Church in Boston.

The son of Woodbridge referred to in this letter was Elisha Lord, a child of Mrs. Woodbridge by a former husband.
Rev'd & dear Sir,

I hope you will excuse my not answering your last to me sooner, remembrance what a busie time it has been of late with me. But ye more I think & the more I have enquired into ye Circumstances of your College, the more I grow in my Opinion that it is necessary for the Well-being of it that ye Classes with Mr. Williams do not desert it. I am assured also that it will be heavily born by the Gentlemen Overseers & others in Governm't with you, who have come into ye Vote for ye building at New-haven. And since ye House is now fixed there, how much so ever it might be desired by you that it had not been so, I know your generous public spirit will now dictate to you ye best Methods wherein you may support & serve it. It will I fear weaken & dishearten your Academy when your Commencement comes on, if several Graduates, it may be of ye best Literature should decline receiving their Honours from her. We must in a thousand instances deny our Selves for ye common good. I cannot therefore bring my Self to be willing that any number of your Scholars should at this critical time offer themselves to us, but if your Son alone do so I have nothing against it, but shall be glad of any Opportunity to testify my regards, unto you, & how much I am

Rev Sir Your Affectionate humble Servt.

For the Reverend
Mr. Timothy Woodbridge
Pastor of a Church in Hartford.

XC. LETTER OF THE TRUSTEES

June 5, 1718

[From the original draft in the University Archives]

An answer to the letter of Messrs. Woodbridge and Buckingham, of June 2.

Revd. Gentlemen,

Being convened at Guilford (where we might have hoped, to meet all ye Trustees concerned for ye welfare of ye collegiate School, & desirous yt there might be no misunderstandings among Gentlemen of such a character as hath been to ye great disadvantage of ye holy religion we are to assert, maintain, & propagate, as well as ye detriment of ye nursery of Learning we have ye care of, & ought to secure and defend from those yt haue a Spirit against such means of Education,) We found yo- places empty, but finally Recd. yo- Lines, were glad to see you have such serious thoughts of full-filling ye trust reposed in you, & so desirous to put an end to ye troubles yt have been in ye Govermt. about ye School. We hope we have done nothing willingly to hurt any of those great interests of ye school, our holy religion, or ye credit of ye ministry, & these affairs lye so neare our hearts yt. we shall not do any thing to shut your selues out of our company, nor yours out of our favour; we haue & shall show all ye favour & condensation to those yt are uneasie, as is consistent wth. Goverment & good order, w't ever reports or surmisises may be spread abroad to the contrary.

We cannot see it consistent wth. our publick work, or family interest, to continue or- meeting, or adjourn ye same to ye next week: But propose that if any thing yt. we can remone be grievous to you, or you have any proposals to make wch. are likely to be consistent wth. w't. we have regularly done that you signify them to ye Revrd. Rector Mr Andrew, who may ex officio relieve you, or if need be speedily call an other meeting of the Revrd. Trustees to accommodate these affairs.
We also would inform that sufficient provision is made at N. haven for instructing & governing ye Schollars belonging to ye School.

We would always shew our selues men of peace, as we are preachers, & desire to be propagators thereof, & hope we shall always so appear to persons ye do not beleive all ye reports ye are spread abroad, & do carefully view our actions & proceedings. Wee being full of busines & in haste, may not add, only our desires ye our, & your endeavours to do service in the world, & for our generation in all our way & walk and particularly respecting ye School may be succeeded of the Lord, & that we are yours in all Xan bonds

XCI. LETTER OF COTTON MATHER

August 25, 1718

[From a copy in Quincy's History of Harvard University, vol. 1, pp. 526-527, Cambridge, 1840]

Addressed to Governor Saltonstall.

25th d. 6th month, 1718.

Sir,

'Tis an unspeakable pleasure unto me, that I have been in any measure capable of serving so precious a thing as your College at New Haven.

Governor Yale now gives you a sensible proof, that he has begun to take it under his patronage and protection. But I am informed, that what he now does is very little in proportion to what he will do, when once he finds, by the name of it, that it may claim an adoption with him. Yale College cannot fail of Mr. Yale’s generous and growing bounty. I confess, that it was a great and inexcusable presumption in me, to make myself so far the godfather of the beloved infant as to propose a name for it. But I assured myself, that if a succession of solid and lasting benefits might be entailed upon it, your Honor and the Honorable Trustees would pardon me, and the proposal would be complied withal.

It is a thousand pities, that the dear infant should be in danger of being strangled in the birth, by a dissension of your good people about the place where it shall be nourished in the wilderness. But probably the Yalean assistance to New Haven will prove a decisive circumstance, which will dispose all to an acquiescence there. . . . . .

Your Honor's most sincere servant,

COTTON MATHER.

XCII. PROCEEDINGS OF THE TRUSTEES

September 10, 1718

[From the original minutes in the University Archives]

Henry Caner, who now begins to figure in the College records, was an Englishman by birth, a master carpenter of reputation in Boston, who had been invited to settle in New Haven, to superintend the building of the new College house, and otherwise to prosecute his calling.

At a Meeting of the Trustees of ye Collegiate School at Commencement in Newhaven. Sept 10th 1718.

Present the Revd
Mr James Noyes
Mr Samuel Andrew
Mr Samuel Russel
Mr Joseph Webb
Mr John Davenport
Mr Thomas Ruggles
Mr Stephen Buckingham

The Revd Mr James Noyes was chosen Moderator of this Meeting
The Revd John Davenport & Saml Russel were chosen Scribes of ye Meeting.

XCIII. LETTERS OF THANKS OF THE TRUSTEES

September 10-12, 1718

[From contemporaneous copies in the University Archives]

The first two letters are in the handwriting of Tutor Samuel Johnson, with autographed signatures; the third (addressed undoubtedly to the Rev. Cotton Mather) is in the handwriting of the Senior Trustee, James Noyes. A fourth letter was also written, to General Francis Nicholson, Governor of Nova Scotia (who had been in close relations with Connecticut a few years before during his command of the troops sent against Canada), acknowledging a donation to the Library; this is here omitted, as adding no points of interest.

The specially grandiloquent style of the letter to Governor Yale may be explained by its being in part a version of the Rev. Mr. Davenport’s Latin oration on the Commencement stage.

Honble. Sr.

Our Concernment with the Collegiate School here gives us Special Advantages and lays us under Deepest Obligations well to observe the various Disposals of Divine providence thereabouts; & we may truly say there is nothing to us more worthy of our Special remark, than these repeated instances of favour to our Infant School from generous Gentlemen, so remote from, & so little interested in the same, as those in London thro' your unwearied instrumentality, which we now, & alwayes acknowledge with deepest Gratitude; and if it be (as we hope it is) an indication that our School shall be established a blessing in the kingdom of our Great Lord in these American Corners of the Earth; then such who so generously concern themselves for its flourishing, shall neither fail of due acknowledgments here, nor a glorious reward in the Coming World.

Indeed S'ry our small beginnings ashamed us that we can no more suitably echo back our grateful acknowledgments from our new Hall in our new Yale Colledg, as our hearty Acknowledgment of our bountiful Benefactor, the Honble. Elihu Yale, Esqr. Also S'ry we enjoy now the Great Satisfaction to view the room prepared for the reception of your very valluable Collection of books which we hope will shortly adorn the same at a better rate than any America can pretend to; here we shall (we trust) & now do offer as our sincere praises to God, and unfeigned thanks to your honble. Self whose name we shall always mention with honry. & humbly crave we may still enjoy your refreshing Aspect upon ory. Colledg. So ory. honry. shall further add to the great Obligations we are laid under ever to subscribe ourselves

Honourable Sir

We Trustees of the Collegiate School of Connecticut, fixed in the Ancient famous Town of NewHaven, have convened on our Academical Solemnities, where we have had the Honour done us of seeing the names of the famous Books sent us from yr. Honr. appearing in the Catalogue of the Books of the noble-spirited Benefactors of our School, and of knowing your most generous Bounty of a Large Quantity of very agreeable Goods, together with a further Ornament of choice Books, his Majesties Picture & arms are safely arrived at Boston, and had the Happiness of the Honoble Coll. Tayler, Representing yr. Honr., gracing the Solemnities of our Commencement. In whose presence, a great number of Learned Men & autors of Learning attending, We the Trustees in the Large & Splendid Hall of our Building, Have done our School the Honour of naming it with your Illustrious Name & have called it Yale-Colledge, and read off a Memorial of it in the Lattin Tongue, and also a Memorial of the Same in the English Tongue, answered with a Counterpart in Lattin, which Coll. Tayler was pleased to say was very agreeable to him representing yr. Honr. From the Hall the Schollars in the Way usual walked to the Meeting house, where in the presence of the Honoble Govr. Saltonstall & his Generous Lady, the Honoble Coll. Tayler representing your Person, the Honoble Deputy Governr. Gold, with sundry worshipful Assistants, the Judges of the Circuit, a Great Numbr. of Rev. Ministers, & Learned men, & of a great frequency, your Honrs. bounty hath been opened with the great gratitude by the Saluting Orator, & after the Disputations were well performed, in an oration managed by one of our Body hath been proclaimed the wonderful Goodness of a most Bountiful God, & the Benefits of Liberal Donors, & in a Distinguishing Degree the Admirable Munificence of your Honr. with earnest Prayers to the God of all grace to inrich your Honr. more and more with all Spiritual Blessings; & that after the long Continuance of a publick blessing so rich in Good works, a multitude, who have been Satisfied with your beneficences, may receive their Generous Benefactor into Everlasting Tabernacles. Immediately after which ten Deserving proficients received their Degrees, which being given, our Hon^ble. Gov-erno^r. Saltonstall was pleased in a famous Latin Speech to do us the Hon^r. of crowning the Solemnities of the Day, extolling with profound respect your Hon^ble. Name. The Solemnities being perfected, in Colledge Order from the Meetinghouse we returned to Yale-Colledge Hall & Library, wherein were Generously Entertained with a large Colledge Dinner a vast number, & in the Library yr. Hon^rs. Representative the Hon^ble. Ingenuous & Generous Coll. Tayler was pleased to seat himself at the Table of the Ladies. The Day hath, with Divine Countenance, been carried on in a Splendid manner. We rejoice in the Goodness of Almighty God, who hath provided for our School so honourable a protection, & revived our Hopes, that so great & Glorious a work, for the Hon^r. of Almighty God, for the Service of Religion and Learning, for the Ornament & weal of our Colony, & in particular for the Accomplishment of many your worthy Relations may under your great name flourish & increase in Glory.

As we offer humble & hearty Thanks to yr. Hon^r. for your many bounties, so we are & shall be constant Solicitors at the Throne of Grace, that your abundant Charity and Liberality flowing from your pious Breast may be found to the making very weighty your Crown of Glory to be received from the hands of adorably free grace in the Day of our Lord Jesus: & we humbly desire Leave to do our Selves the Hon^r. of Subscribing, Hon^ble. Sir

Very Reverend Sr.

The Trustees of the Collegiate School fixed at New Haven having been favoured with an encouraging account of your noble and charitable regard to our infant Nursery evidenced in your excellent Letter to the Honourable Elihu Yale Esq. for the moving his generous spirited bountyfull benefaction to our school, which hath had so good success, that we have the Joyfull intelligence, that the Honourable Gentleman hath very largely contributed towards the finishing our edifice, as doubtless your selfe hath heard; his large donation arrived at Boston hath obliged the Trustees to give our building the name of Yale’s Colledge, on our last Commencement the tenth of this month; and we remembering, how far your Rev’d. selfe hath honoured and favoured us in your seasonable endeavours to encourage our great undertaking, which we hope will be for the glory of God, and the advancement of religion and Learning in the present and succeeding generations, do with greatest gratitude acknowledge your commiseration of our low circumstances and readiness to do so great a service for the interest of our glorious Lord in this part of the Country, and confess our deep obligations unto your selfe, not doubting your future forwardness to encourage the same good work according to your opportunity, and requesting your constant prayers for divine guidance in so difficult a day among us, we remain

Att a General Assembly Holden at Newhaven on the ninth Day of October Anno Dom 1718

An Act for the Encouragement of Yale College

Whereas some difficulty and Misunderstandings hapned in this Colony upon the fixing the Collegiate School and building the House for it at NewHaven, therefore for a small Conclusion of said differences and Misunderstandings and for preventing the Unhappy Consequences that might Ensue and for the Introduceing a good and happy Agreement in this as well as in all our publick Affairs, It is Resolved by this Assembly that the following proposals be Concluded upon as an Expedient for those Ends and it is hereby Agreed & Enacted—

1. that the Annuall Sallary allowed out of the publick Treasury to said Collegiate School for the year past shall be Distributed to the Tutors at New Haven Weathersfield and Saybrook in proportion to the Scholars under their Tuition.

2dly. That the Scholars who performed their Exercise at Weathersfield shall have their Degree at Newhaven without further Examination and all Schollars Entered in the School at Weathersfield shall be Admitted to the same Standing in the School at Newhaven.

3dly. That there shall be five hundred pounds allowed for the building a State House at Hartford which money shall be procured by the Sale of Lands belonging to this Colony and put into the hands of such Committee as this Assembly shall Appoint for that Use. And it is ordered that the Scholars at Weathersfield come down to the School at Newhaven.

4thly. That fifty pounds be procured by the Sale of such Lands as Above said and given to the Town of Saybrook for the use of the School in s'd. Town.

5thly. That the Governor and Councel be desired to give, at the desire of the s'd. Trustees of said College, such Orders as they think proper for Removing the Books belonging to the said College left at Saybrook to the Library provided for the placing them in Yale College at NewHaven.

6thly. That the Several particulars Abovementioned that Relate to the s'd. College be Recommended by the Governor and Councel in the Name of this Assembly to the Trustees of the said School for their Observation and that sd College be carried on, promoted, and Incouraged at Newhaven and all due Care taken for its flourishing.
XCVI. Orders of the Governor and Council of Connecticut

October 28, 1718

[From the printed Colonial Records, vol. 6, pp. 90-91, Hartford, 1872]

At a Meeting of the Governour and Council in New Haven, October 28th, 1718.

Ordered, that the secretary draw out the act passed in this Assembly for encouraging the proceedings in Yale College in this town, and inclose it in a letter to the Reverend Mr. Andrew, rector of the said school.

Ordered, that the secretary write an order on Mr. Daniel Buckingham of Say Brook, requiring him to deliver to the rector of Yale College, or his order, the books and papers belonging to that college, which were by direction of the trustees of the same left in his house, when the said college was removed to N. Haven, and which he has held in his keeping since that time; and that the said order be inclosed in the forementioned letter to the rector.

Addressed to the Rev. Cotton Mather. The author was the well-known printer, of New London.

New London, Octob. 30, 1718

Reverend, Honoured, and Dear Sir,

. . . . . Yesterday I came home from New-Haven, & can inform you that there is like to be Peace in our Colony respecting Yale College, the Scholars at Weathersfield &c are to go to New-Haven, & take their Place there according to the years, they have been learning. So things are like to be easie.

Your very humble servant,

November 20, 1718

[From a copy in the Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, vol. 6, pp. 185-186, Boston, 1904]

The writer was the Governor, and the recipient the Secretary, of the Colony.

N Lond: Nov: 20 1718
Mr Secretary.

This comes express to You, for a Copy of the Act of the late Assembly, respecting the Settlement of the Colledge Affairs, which I would have, with your publick Seal annexed to It, sent to Me, by this Messenger. . . . . . I am Sr

Yr very humble Servt

G: Saltonstall

P. S.

You have among the Papers left on the Council board at N Haven, when I took my leave of You; The Minutes of the Orders We made, relating to the Money to be paid to the Trustees, and the Colledge Books at Saybrook; which You must also Send Me, with an Account what You have done upon those Orders. . . . . .

Mr Secry Wyllys.
Since my writing what is before, I understand Some Persons have a design to proceed at Weathersfield, in opposition to the Act of the late Assembly, relating to a Colledge at N Haven, & Schollars belonging to It at Weathersfield, Which thò I can hardly believe, Yet I think It may be best for You to draw a Copy of that Act, and cause It to be delivered to the Constable of Weathersfield with an Order as from Me, that he publish It immediately in ye s\textsuperscript{d} Town. Which You are accordingly to take care of; This will be a sufficient Means to prevent any Such Disorder as is said to be designed there.

XCIX. Proceedings of the Governor and Council of Connecticut

December 2-4, 1718

[From the printed Colonial Records, vol. 6, pp. 92-98, Hartford, 1872]

Mr. Daniel Buckingham was a son of one of the original Trustees, the Rev. Thomas Buckingham, of Saybrook, and an ancestor of the distinguished War-Governor, William A. Buckingham. He was a leading citizen of Saybrook, often (after 1713) a deputy to the General Court, and Justice of the Peace from 1716.

At a Meeting of the Governour and Council in Say Brook, December 2\textsuperscript{d}, 1718.

The Governour communicated to the board the return made by the Reverend Mr. Samuel Russell and Mr. Thomas Rugles of the order made by this board October the 28th, 1718, which said order was directed to Mr. Daniel Buckingham of Say Brook, requiring him to deliver the books and papers belonging to Yale College at New Haven, which he the said Buckingham had in his house and custody in Saybrook, to the Rev. Mr. Samuel Andrew, rector of the said college, or to his order; which said order was by the said rector indorsed to the said Mr. Russell and Mr. Ruggles, or either of them, who were appointed by him to receive them. And their said return thereupon sheweth, that on the 11th day of November, they by virtue of said order demanded the said books and papers, and that the said Buckingham did refuse to deliver them, declaring he did not know that he had any books belonging to Yale College, but when he did, and should receive authentick orders, he would deliver them.

Upon consideration of this matter: Resolved by this board, that the said Buckingham refusing to deliver the said books and papers upon the said order given pursuant to the said act of the Assembly, has a manifest appearance of great misdemeanour and contempt of authority; and that a precept be issued to the sheriff of the county of New London, signed by Capt. Christopher Christophers, clerk of the Council, by order of this board, commanding him in his Majesties name to arrest the said Daniel Buckingham, and have him before the Governour and Council, tomorrow morning at ten of the clock, at the house of Major John Clark in Saybrook, to be examined concerning his said misdemeanour and contempt, and dealt with as the law directs.

At a Meeting of the Governour and Council in Saybrook, December 3d, 1718.

. . . . . This day the sheriff of the county of New London, by virtue of the precept given him and dated yesterday, brought Mr. Daniel Buckingham before this board. The precept was read in his hearing. . . . . . And the act of the late Assembly, intituled An Act for the encouragement of Yale College, was also read to him. And the said Buckingham . . . . . answered, that he could only say as he had done.

It was thereupon declared to him, that the collegiate school to which the said books and papers demanded did belong, was erected by this government; that they had put the said school into the care of divers trustees, and had settled and approved of their carrying on the affairs of the said school at New Haven, as also of the name of Yale College, given to the said collegiate school; and had not only directed the trustees in the removal of the books and papers belonging to it, to the room prepared for them in Yale College at New Haven, but had provided particularly that the necessary orders for the removal of them should be given by the Governor and Council; and that since he had accepted the charge or keeping of the said books and papers, he was thereby an under officer or servant of the said school, in the nature of a library keeper, and was absolutely under the will of the trustees or masters of the said school, to render the said books to their order and to the use of the said school, as there should be occasion or as they should be required of him by order of the government; and that its unaccountable for any one intrusted in like manner to keep the said books from the use of the said school.

And this board, pursuant to the aforesaid act of Assembly, did moreover require of him the said Buckingham, as intrusted with the keeping of the said books, now to deliver them to this board, that they might give order for the safe conveyance of them to the library in Yale College; which he, the said Buckingham, refused to do, still saying that he did not know he had any books belonging to Yale College.

And it appearing to this board that the books and papers belonging to Yale College are at this present time in the dwelling house of the said Daniel Buckingham, in a chamber of the said house, where they were brought by order of the trustees with consent of said Buckingham, to be kept safe for the use of the said college; and that the said Buckingham in contempt of the aforesaid order for the rendering of them, designing to hold them from said school, and prevent the said trustees of said college, and students therein, from the use of the said books and papers, whereby the declared resolution of the General Assembly to encourage the said school, and the aforesaid act will be greatly defeated, and the orders they have given for that end become ineffectual,

Ordered, That a precept be made to the sheriff of the county of New London, requiring him to demand the said books, and upon his refusal, to enter into the said house and chamber, and deliver and cause them to be delivered to the rector of the said college, Mr. Samuel Andrew, or to either of the gentlemen . . . . . by him appointed to receive them.

Ordered, That the said Buckingham do give bond with sureties, in the sum of one hundred pound, to the publick treasury of this Colony, for his appearance at the General Court to be holden at Hartford in May next, to answer for his misdemeanour and contempt, in refusing to deliver the said books and papers, according to the aforesaid act of Assembly, and also for his good behaviour in the mean time, and that he stand committed until he give bond as aforesaid.

And the said Daniel Buckingham as principal, and Nathaniel Chapman and Joseph Dudley as sureties, acknowledge themselves bound joyntly and severally to the publick treasury of this Colony, in a recognizance of one hundred pounds, that the said Daniel Buckingham shall appear at the General Court to be holden at Hartford in May next, to answer for his aforesaid misdemeanour and contempt, and that he shall be of good behaviour in the mean time. . . . . .

Whereas the sheriff of the county of New London has certified this board, that this evening, in the execution of a special warrant from this board dated this day, to enter into the house of Daniel Buckingham of Saybrook, . . . . . Abraham Chalker of the said Saybrook resisted him at the door of the said house, by threatening him, that if he came into the said house it should be upon his peril, contrary to the peace of our sovereign lord the King, and the law in such case provided,

Ordered, that a precept be directed to the said sheriff, commanding him in his Majesties name to arrest the said Abraham Chalker, and have him before the Governour and Council to-morrow morning at nine of the clock, at the house of Major Clark in said Saybrook, there to answer for the said breach of peace and high misdemeanour.

At a meeting of the Governour and Council in Saybrook, December 4th, 1718.
The sheriff of the county of New London made return, that by the warrant of this board, dated yesterday, he had entered into the house of Mr. Daniel Buckingham of Saybrook, and in the chamber of said house found several books belonging to Yale College, in New Haven, and was ready to deliver them to the Rev. Mr. Thomas Ruggles, as directed by said warrant.

Ordered, That the sheriff have a precept given him, enabling and commanding him to impress men, and carts, and oxen, as shall be sufficient for conveying the said books safely to Guilford, and at the house of Capt. Janna Meigs in the said town, to deliver them to Mr. Ruggles, who pursuant to an act of the last Assembly, intituled an Act for the encouragement of Yale College, has been appointed by the rector of the said college to receive them, taking his receipt of them, and make return to this board.

C. Proceedings of the Governor and Council of Connecticut

March 11 and 13, 1719

[From the printed Colonial Records, vol. 6, pp. 98-102, Hartford, 1872]

At a meeting of the Governour and Council in New Haven, on Wednesday, March the 11th, 1718/9 . . . . . .

The Governour signified to the Council, that he had desired their convening at this time, to visit the trustees of Yale College, and to enquire into the state of it, and particularly into the occasion of several students lately deserting, or refusing to attend order there, said to be returned to Weathersfield, from whence, by especial order of the Assembly, they removed to the said college:

That he had given notice hereof to the rector and trustees of the said college, who were several of them attending for that end, in the said college; and that he had received account that the Rev. Mr's. Noyes of Stonington and Lyme, trustees, &c. were prevented by their age and indisposition.

William Pitkin, Esq., acquainted this board, that he had communicated to the Rev. Mr. Timothy Woodbridge and Mr Thomas Buckingham, of Hartford, trustees, &c., the Governour appointing this time for a meeting of the said trustees and the gentlemen of the Council in this place, and read the paragraph of the Governour's letter for that end to them, wherein he signifies to them that, as he had to the rest, so he desired of them to attend at New Haven this meeting, and should accordingly expect them; and that the said Mr. Woodbridge declined going to New Haven, saying he had not advised the scholars in their going to or coming from New Haven, and therefore should not concern himself in that business, and declined going to said Council and meeting of the trustees.

Joseph Talcot, Esq., acquainted this board, that the Rev. Mr. Thomas Buckingham aforesaid, upon reading the Governour's letter to Mr. Pitkin, did say that he had long ago declared to the trustees, that he would never contend any more with them in the affairs of the college, and therefore did not intend any more to concern himself as a trustee in that affair, and thought he should not attend the meeting proposed, with the trustees.

Also, Mr. Pitkin acquainted this board that the said scholars were at Weathersfield, and said to be under the tuition of Mr. Elisha Williams, &c.

The Governour and Council thereupon proceeded from the Council Chamber to Yale College hall, where they were received by the Rev. Mr. Samuel Andrew, rector, and the Rev. Mr. Samuel Russell, and Mr. Thomas Ruggles, trustees of the said college; several other of the said trustees being not yet come into town, but expected.

The Governour acquainted the rector, that the government which had with great satisfaction founded the said college at first by their charter, and had lately professed, with such solemnity, their desire and firm resolution to contribute to its prosperity, could not but take notice of what had lately happened, in the desertion of such a number of the students, in so uncommon a manner; and that he had no other information of it than by common fame, yet that was grown so loud, and was by many evil minded persons industriously spread abroad, both to the injury of this college and to the great disturbance of peace and good order in the government, that he judged it necessary on that occasion to appoint this meeting, that having a right understanding of the management of the said deserters, which had occasioned so much disorder, proper measures might be taken to redress what should be found amiss, and prevent the like for the future, and particularly all needful support and encouragement given to the said college.

To which the rev. Rector made a brief reply, wherein he took suitable notice of the care the government took for the prosperity of the college; and added that the only pretended cause, which he knew of, of the forementioned desertion, was the insufficiency of one of the tutors; but he doubted not it would be found, upon enquiry, most unreasonable. That they were in expectation of several of their number, and would send to meet them by express, when they should be in readiness to attend what might be further necessary in this affair.

Mr. Pitkin further acquainted this board, that upon his receipt of the Governour's letter he went with it to Weathersfield and shewed it to four of the elder scholars there, and gave them notice to be present at the Council, to shew their grievance, in order to their being redrest; and their answer to him was, that they understood that Mr. Woodbridge and Mr. Buckingham would not be there, and could not tell whether they should be there or not.

Fryday morning, nine of the clock, the Council met, and,

Upon consideration had of the state of the college, the trustees present did declare, that Mr. Johnson, against whose learning it has been reputed that the deserting scholars had objected, had been for some years improved as a tutor in the said college, and was well known to be a gentleman of sufficient learning; and that they cannot but look upon it as a very unworthy part in them, if any of those that have deserted the college have endeavoured to scandalize a gentleman in such a manner, whom much more competent judges highly esteem as a man of good learning, and in that respect very well accomplished for the charge he is in.

And further they declared, that they had been endeavouring to procure a rector to reside at the college, tho' their endeavours had hitherto been unsuccessful; and were of the opinion that it was highly necessary to procure immediately some gentleman to be resident there, as a rector pro tempore, till the latter end of May next, who should take the charge of the college, with a tutor under him, to assist in the tuition of the students; which they hoped would put the affairs of the college into a desirable state, and give entire satisfaction to all that wished for the prosperity of it.

And the gentlemen of the Council, being unanimously of opinion that no expedient could conduce more to the benefit of the college and satisfaction of all, recommended it to the trustees that they would proceed to make choice of a person to reside in the college as a rector pro tempore; that he might be as soon as possible obtained.

The Rev. Rector, Mr. Samuel Andrew, Mr. Samuel Russell, and Mr. Thomas Ruggles, trustees, &c. personally communicated to this board, that according to the recommendation made them from hence, to consider of some fitting person who might be obtained to reside as a rector in Yale College, they had considered that matter, and resolved that the Rev. Mr. Timothy Cutler, minister of Stratford, was a person of those qualifications that they could not but think him very proper to take charge of the tuition and government of the students in Yale College, from this present time to the last Wednesday of May or the first Wednesday of June next, in the quality of a rector to reside there; and that they had pitched upon him for that end, and designed to procure his residence there forthwith. To which the Rev. Mr. Davenport added particularly for himself, that he did with the rest of the gentlemen before-mentioned fully concur in his opinion of Mr. Cutler's qualifications for that service, but had some scruple of removing him from the church, which he doubted might be attended with unhappy consequences, as to the affairs of that church and town in particular; wherefore he could not tell how to concur with them in their election of him to this service, unless it be considered strictly as under the limitation to that time set, vizt. the last Wednesday in May, or first of June.

And the gentlemen thereupon desired the advice of this board.

Who, after consideration had, did advise them, that if the trustees could by any means obtain the Rev. Mr. Cutler to come and reside in Yale College, and take the charge of a rector upon him for the time limited, it would prove an expedient universally acceptable to the Colony, as it was to this board, and to all persons who have been under any uneasiness respecting the state of that college, and prove a good means to put an end to the contentions, which are unhappily arisen, for want of such a person residing there.

And that altho' the church and town of Stratford must be allowed to be unwilling altogether to part with their reverend pastor, who is worthy of their great respect and honour, yet for so short a time, and for so great and general advantage, as its hoped his residing at Yale College may prove, we can't but think they'll be perswaded to deny themselves, and be satisfied with that provision to supply his desk which you may be able to make for them.

And we cannot but add our assurance, that if you may be succeeded so far as to gain him to attend the proposed service, it will give a particular satisfaction to the Assembly; and they will be encouraged to come into the consideration of, and favour, the measures which, after that, may be thought best to supply the college with an acceptable resident rector for the future. . . . . .
CI. LETTER OF JONATHAN EDWARDS

[From a copy in Dwight’s Life of Edwards, pp. 29-30, New York, 1830]

Edwards, now in his third College year, was one of the seceding students who had lately returned to Wethersfield from New Haven.

Wethersfield, March 26, 1719.

Dear Sister,

. . . . . . I think it fit that I should give you some account of my condition, relative to the school. I suppose you are fully acquainted with our coming away from New-Haven, and the circumstances thereof. Since then we have been in a more prosperous condition, as I think, than ever. But the council and trustees, having lately had a meeting at New-Haven concerning it, have removed that which was the cause of our coming away, viz. Mr. Johnson, from the place of a tutor, and have put in Mr. Cutler, Pastor of Canterbury, President; who, as we hear, intends very speedily to be resident at Yale College, so that all the scholars belonging to our school expect to return there, as soon as our vacancy after the election is over.

I am your loving brother in good health,

Jonathan Edwards.

. . . . . . I heartily congratulate you upon the happy union of the Colony in fixing the Colledge at New Haven, after some differences which might have been attended with ill consequences. Mr. Yale is very much rejoic’d at this good news, & more than a little pleas’d with his being Patron of such a Seat of the Muses, saving that he express’d at first some kind of concern, whether it was well in him, being a Church man, to promote an Academy of Dissenters. But when we had discours’d that point freely, he appear’d convinc’d that the busi­ness of good men is to spread religion & learning among mankind without being too fondly attach’d to particular Tenets, about which the World never was, nor ever will be agreed. Besides if the Discipline of the Church of England be most agreeable to Scripture & primitive practice, there’s no better way to make men sensible of it than by giving them good learning. Mr. Yale’s picture at full length with his nephew’s on the same canvas is drawn for a present to your Colledge Hall; & he’ll send you by the same conveyance another parcel of books, part of which he has promis’d me shall be the Royal transactions in seventeen Volumes. He propos’d sending you a pair of Globes, but when I told him you had two pair already, we agreed that in lieu of them you shall have some mathematical instruments, & glasses for making philosophical Experiments, as Microscopes, Telescopes, & other glasses for use as well as for ornament & curiosity. I have some books & other things for you of my own Collection, which I’le either put up separately or pack them with what Mr. Yale sends . . . . . .

CIII. An Act Introduced in the Upper House of the Connecticut Assembly

May, 1719

[From a copy in the Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, vol. 6, p. 186, Boston, 1904]

This Act failed of passage in the Lower House, of which the Journal for this period is not extant. Another Act at the same session, which succeeded in passing, granted £40 to the College yearly for seven years, from the sale of country land.

An Act for the further Incouragmt of Yale Colledge

Whereas it Is thought Needfull for the Good Govermt of the Colledge at Newhaven and promoting learning there, to have a Resident Rector, who with one Tutor may be Sufficient to Instruct the Students belonging to the Said Colledge untill there Number be Considerably Increased. and whereas the Suũ of one hundred pounds 2 year already Given out of the publick Treasury to the tutor of s^d Colledge Is not Sufficient for a Resident Rector & a Tutor. It Is therefore Enacted by the Governt Counsell &c. that there shall be the Suũ of Eighty pounds more paid yearly out of the publick Treasury for the Incouragmt & support of a Resident Rector & one Tutor. which makes one hundred & Eighty pounds in the whole. for Such time as there shall be a Resident Rector. or untill Such time as the Suũ of one hundred pound a year Can be Raised for them Some other way. & then the said Eighty pound a year shall not be paid out of the Treasury but only the Suũ of one hundred pound a year as it hath been of late.

New-Haven, July 21, 1719.

Ever honoured Sir,

. . . . . I take very great content under my present tuition, as all the rest of the scholars seem to do under theirs. Mr. Cutler is extraordinarily courteous to us, has a very good spirit of government, keeps the school in excellent order, seems to increase in learning, is loved and respected by all who are under him, and when he is spoken of in the school or town, he generally has the title of President.

The scholars all live in very good peace with the people of the town, and there is not a word said about our former carryings on, except now and then by aunt Mather. . . . . . I have enquired of Mr. Cutler, what books we shall have need of the next year. He answered he would have me get against that time Alsted’s Geometry and Gassendus’ Astronomy; with which I would intreat you to get a pair of dividers, or mathematician’s compasses, and a scale, which are absolutely necessary in order to learning mathematics, . . . . .

Your most dutiful Son,

JONATHAN EDWARDS.

CX. Proceedings of the Trustees

June 8, 1720

[From a copy of the original minutes in the University Archives, made about 1733]

At a meeting of the Trustees by Adjournment June 8th 1720 at Yale College.

Then being present the Rev'd Messrs.

Mr Samuel Andrew,
Mr Tim: Woodbridge,
Mr Sam'l Russel,
Mr Joseph Webb,
Mr Thos Buckingham,
Mr Stephen Buckingham,
Mr Thos Ruggles.

The Rev'd Mr Thos Ruggles was chosen Scribe for ye present Meeting.

Agreed that Mr John Punderson be desired to get ye Well of the College cleansed.

For Explanation of ye Law referring to Schollars Absence from College we agree that at the Commencement there be a Months Vacation allowed and as to any other Time of particular Schollars Absence there is no claim of Liberty by the Law but as ye Rector or Tutor shall see Reason to give them Leave notwithstanding any Custom to the contrary.

Whereas at a Trustees Meeting April 20, 1720, it was left to Mr Cutlers Election whether to build himself or ye Trustees build a Rectors House Mr Cutler at this present Meeting declared to the Trustees his Choice is that the Trustees do build. Agreed & unanimously voted that the Rev'd Mr Eliphalet Adams is nominated and chosen a Trustee of Yale College.

Agreed that a Letter of Thanks be sent to Govr Yale & another to Mr Dummer and that Mr Woodbridge and Mr Thos Buckingham do write in the Name of the Trustees to the aforesaid Gentlemen.

Agreed yt Mr Samuel Russel be impowered to reckon with Mr Bishop, Mr Prout the Treasurer and Mr Cutlers Landlord and make such Payments to them as ye Treasury will enable them to do.
Agreed that since Capt Munson hath not provided a Cook as we expected he would, upon w't we discoursed to him (when we were here April 20th last), we will take Care to provide a Cook who shall have the whole management of y' Kitchen & shall reject w't is not suitable for y' Schollars & make Complaint to the Rect'r & Tutors of y' want of what is needful and they if y' Steward do not seasonably repair y' defect shall have Power & hereby are impowered to make such abatement in y' Steward’s Quarter Bill as his evident Faultiness may make reasonable.

Agreed that y' Widow Hannah Beacher be applied to be a standing Cook in Yale College & the Treasurer of the College is desired to agree with her & see her paid out of y' Quarter Bill deducting her Wages out of the Steward’s Part provided she doth not demand more wages than hath been usually given to the Cook and Sweeper & in Case M'rs Beacher cannot be obtained we desire & impower the College Treasurer with y' Advice of y' Rector & Tutor to put in a Cook as likewise in all the intervals of the Trustees as there may be occasion y' Same we order as to a sweeper. Agreed that there be fresh meat provided for the Schollars Dinner 3 times a Week till Commencement.

Agreed y' M'r Russel & the Rector be desired to take effectual Care y't those Things proposed in the Gov'rs Letter to be sent to Coll Nicholson to be presented to Gov'r Yale be performed & y' Charge of it defrayed out of the College Treasury.

The above written Acts all were regularly passed by the Trustees in the Affirmative.

CXI. Letter of Gurdon Saltonstall

July 13, 1720

[From the University Archives]

From some scribbling upon the sheet, it appears probable that this letter was directed to the Rev. Samuel Russel, of Branford.

N. Lond. July 13, 1720.

Sr,

I have now before me yours of the 21st of the last month and the 5th of this.

Tho' I was in hope that had the Act in favor of this Colledge passed last Assembly, It would have been attended with other advantages which are very much wanted for the support of the charge of the School at this Juncture, Yet if that may be compensated, and any thing of better service to that Society obtained at the next Court, I shall greatly rejoyce in It. It falls out very well that you'l have a large opportunity at the Commencement to consider what may be best, and hope you'l find the Court in a good disposition to do whatever is in their Power for the encouragement of the Colledge.

I think exceeding care ought to be taken whenever the Court goes about to enlarge the Privileges & Powers granted in your Charter that it should not be done in such a manner as to endanger it. No doubt that Act which was proposed last Court may be amended both as to the Matter & Form of it which you'l have the best advantage now of considering & recommending whatsoever you think proper in it, or further needful, to the Court in October.

As for the Plan you mention in your last, it will be time eno' to perfect it at the Commencement, where I shall gladly be if my occasions suffer it. I have already in my letter excused the sending of it with the Catalogue & Orders which I received from Mr. Rector & have forwarded; that being a matter which will require more time.

My Thoughts upon it are, That there may be 2 Planns A Smaller comprehending the Town, Harbour, Colledge, in which the Village belonging to the Town may be well eno' & handsomely expressed without the charge of a nice surveigh of the whole Town.

The other by a larger Scale, A Plan of the Colledge, and Green before it, Church & Court house, in which the Building may be beautified with Colours, to make a better appearance, than it will in small.

I shall be sure to put Mr. Adams on being at the Commencement meeting tho I should be prevented of being there my self.

[From a copy in the Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, vol. 6, pp. 187-188, Boston, 1904]

This letter is addressed to the Rev. Timothy Woodbridge, of Hartford. The publication referred to in the fourth paragraph is otherwise unknown; the Rev. Moses Noyes, of Lyme, appears to be the alleged author.

N. Haven Decr. 31. 1720.

Revd. Sir

Having communicated to the Revd. Mr Andrew and Mr Russel, a Letter which I recd. from the Govr. bearing Date Dec. 24. relating to the Building a Rector’s House here, and desireing the Result of ye Revd. Trustees Thoughts as soon as may be: it is their concurrent Opinion, That with all convenient speed there should be a meeting here of the Rev'd. Trustees of this School upon this affair, as well as others that may then be offered to Consideration

They have therefore empower'd me in their names to signify their desires, That you would give your attendance at s'd. meeting on ye 24 of January next ensuing: which I accordingly do, and entreat your Favour in the notification of it to Mr Buckingham.

Sir, I am sensible that Riding such a journey on this Time (especially as the case may be) will be very difficult, and I think that nothing but the urgency of affairs can call for it. But I think that this is the present case. You are not insensible of the Difficultys of my present Habitation, and my Tenure of it also is as uncertain as possible. If any thing be done respecting a Building this year it is requisite there be a present Consideration that the Timber be cut for it in the Winter Season. I know, S'r, that such is your age and Distance, That you may as fairly put in for an Excuse from coming as any Gentleman, but having a particular dependance upon your coming I can by no means be easy in a Submission to it, and do therefore take the Freedom, to Importune your mindfullnesse of us at that time. And having had so many Instances of your goodness in affairs of this nature, I must promise my self the Hon'r & Happinesse of a Visit at that time.

There is lately come amongst us a Dream of one Wait-still Hoping, referring to Stratford & Lime under late & present Circumstances, particularly relating ye affairs of ye late Council at Stratford, & favouring ye Determinations of it, particularly magnifying the Character and conduct of a Rev'd Gentleman Mr Izzard. The Representation of it is in ye way of a design'd wedding, the Legality whereof is contested and disproved by one Mr Immoveable. The air of it is pompous and rapturous, and pretty taking with us. The Rev'd Mr Izzard who is called the Author may possibly be here at ye meeting if his great Distance or Vapours hinder not.

The College Bell is now raised and gives a very pleasant clear Sound, and we are humbly thankful to Madm. Woodbridge's Generosity in it. To whom I give my service as well as to your self, who am, Rev'd Sir

Your Hum. Serv't.

Sr.

. . . . . . I visited Mr. Hollis & deliver'd him the letter you sent me for him, & afterwards red to him a paragraph out of your letter to me on the same Subject, with both which he was extremely well pleas'd. His answer was that he had not yet finish't what he intended to do for Harvard Colledge, & till then he could not go upon any new design. I am satisfy'd you'll find him a benefactor e're long.

Mr. Yale has ship't a hundred pounds Sterl. in goods for your Colledge. They go consign'd to Mr. Cradock, who carries them with him, being upon his return to Boston by Capt. Letherid. This however is but halfe what Mr. Yale promis'd me a month ago, when he assur'd me he would remit you 200 lb. Sterl. per annum during his life, & make a setled annual provision to take place after his death. But old Gentlemen are forgetfull. I was with him last night, to refresh his memory about the books, pictures, & other presents which I formerly mention'd to you, & to see if they could be ready to go with the goods, but it seems they won't be in order 'till a month hence. I shall be glad if they are ready then. . . . . .

CXVI. LETTER OF JONATHAN EDWARDS

March 1, 1721

[From the original in the Andover-Harvard Theological Library]

Edwards had graduated in the previous fall, and was now residing at the College as a student in theology. Another letter by him, probably written about three months earlier, and relating to the behavior of his Freshman cousin, Elisha Mix, was printed in part in the Yale News for October 26, 1880.

Yale Coll: March 1st. 1721

Honoured Sir

. . . . . . As concerning the complaint of the scholars about their commons; the manner of it I believe was no less surprizing to me than to you: It was on this wise, Every under-graduate, one, and all that had any thing to do with Colledge Commons, all on a sudden, before Mr. Cutler, or (I believe) any body knew yt they were discontented, entered into a bond of 15s never to have any more commons of the steward, where-upon they all forewarn’d him never to provide more for them, telling him if he did they would not pay him for it, Mr Brown notwithstanding ordered commons to be provided, and set upon the table as it used to be, and accordingly it was, but there was no body to eat it: Mr Cutler as soon as he was apprized of this Cabal sent, on the same day for Mr Andrew, and Mr Russel, who came on the next, and with the Rector ordered all to appear before them; where the Rector manifested himself exceedingly vex’d, and displeased at the act, which so affrighted the scholars that they unanimously agreed to come into commons again. I believe that the scholars that were in this agreement have so lost Mr Cutler’s favour that they scarce ever will regain it. Stiles (to my grief and I believe much more to his) was one that set his hand to this bond; he did it by the strong instigation of others who perswaded him to it; neither had [s has been crossed out] he a minutes time to consider before his hand was down: as soon as I understood him to be one of them, I told him yt I thought he had done exceedin [g lacking at end of line] unadvisedly, and told him also what I thought the ill consequences of it would be, and quickly made him sorry that he did not take advice in the matter. I am apt to think that this thing will be the greatest obstacle of any to Stiles’s being Butler. I must needs say for my own part, that although the commons at sometimes have not been sufficient as for [? to ? Hole in paper at fold] quality, yet I think there has been very little occasion for such an insurrection as this. Although these disturbances were so speedily quash’d, yet they are succeeded by much worse, and greater; and I believe greater than ever were in the Colledge before, they are occasion’d by the discovery of some monstrous impieties, and acts of immorality lately committed in the Colledge, particularly stealing of hens, geese, turkies, piggs, meat, wood &c,—unseasonable nightwalking, breaking people’s windows, playing at cards, cursing, swearing, and damning, and using all manner of ill language, which never were at such a pitch in the Colledge as they now are; The Rector has called a meeting of the trustees on this occasion, they are expected here to day, tis thought the upshot will be the expulsion of some, and the publick admonition of others: Through the goodness of God I am perfectly free of all their janglings. . . . . .

CXIX. A Brief, Issued by Order of the Connecticut General Assembly

June 13, 1721

[From a printed copy in the University Library]

A Brief.

Whereas Upon a Representation made to the General Assembly Holden at Hartford, the Eleventh Day of May last: It appeared, That the want of a House for the Rector of Yale College at New-Haven, was a great Disadvantage to the good Order and Education of the Students there,

And, Among the several Ways which were Proposed to supply that Defect, and raise a Sum of Money for that End,

It was thought most suitable to Endeavour it, in such a Method as might give, to all among us, who wish well to the Promoting of Learning and Piety, design'd in the Founding of that Society, the most agreeable Opportunity of expressing their Regard thereto, on this Occasion,

And Whereas Thereupon The Assembly taking Encouragement, from the Generous Donations already made to the great Comfort and Support of that Society, by Persons of Distinction in both Englands,

And Moreover Considering, That a suitable Portion, out of what Divine Providence has blessed us with, being Voluntarily Dedicated to Pious Uses, is the most easy and acceptable Way of expressing our hearty Gratitude, to Almighty God, the Fountain of all the Blessings we Enjoy; To whose Goodness it is that we owe, both our Ability to Contribute for the Encouragement of that Society; and all the growing Hopes we have to see it prove a great Blessing,

Resolved & Enacted, That there be a Brief for a Publick Contribution, to be made throughout this Colony, for the aforesaid End,

I have therefore in Pursuance of the said Resolution and Order, (by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council) Appointed the Twenty-third Day of July next, being the Lord's Day, after the concluding of Divine Worship in the Afternoon, to be the Time for attending to the said Contribution; And the Deacons of the Respective Congregations, or in their Absence, such other Person as the Minister of the said Congregation shall Appoint, are hereby directed to receive what shall be Contributed; and to give Notice as soon as may be, of the Sums which shall be so Collected, to Me in Council, that further Orders may be given, for the Application of them, in the most Effectual manner to the aforesaid Use.
And, To the Intent that all Persons who may be inclined to Contribute to the said Vse, may be acquainted with the afore-said Resolve of this Assembly, and the Time hereby appointed for attending to it,

It is hereby Recommended to the Ministers of the several Towns and Parishes, to Publish this Order in their respective Congregations, on the Sabbath Day, before that herein appointed for the proposed Contributions:

And the Constables of the several Towns, are hereby Required, to fix this Order, in some Publick Place within their respective Precincts, at least Fourteen Days before the afore-said Twenty third Day of July next.

Rev'd. Sir

I humbly thank you for your Concern abt ye College Mony to be procured for us by Capt. Wadsworth. But I do not understand that there is any come to us besides wt you sent down a little while agoe, and I am very much affected with it from my Engagement in ye Purchase I have made of a House, for which I shall shortly want 35lb to pay ye man, besides another 55lb yt I have taken upon Interest on ye same accot.

I have last night rec'd a Letter from His Hon'r. Encouraging us to hope Mr Yale will further remember us in such an Annuity as you Speek of. His Hon'r. writes, That He sh'd. have now sent to Mr Hollis by ye ships going for England, but that He could never obtain a sight of ye Letter which the Trustees formerly wrote to Him & so could not write in concert with them. I suppose He never was addressed by the Trustees, & yt wt was done was done by your Self in a Letter to Mr Dummer taking notice of Mr Hollis's Generosity to ye College of Cam. intimating yt we tho't He would not be regardlesse of us did He know our State; & this in complany with Mr Dummer's Motion Gov'r. Yale hath remembred us in a Present of 105lb. 0.3. The last Post bro't a Letter from Mr Lyde signifying it was in his hands and desireing ye Trustees orders abt it. Mr Russel & Andrew & Ruggles wrote down to Him praying His care abt ye goods till further Orders. Now ye Gov'r. hath sent us ye Invoyce from Him. with a Letter also frō His Hon'r. They are in a Trunk; Mohair Buttons, Stuffs, Silk sowing &c.

He supposes they will sell at Boston for 200 per Cent. but to get ready Mony is Impracticable. He adds y^t y^v have the good news of Col. Tailer’s Arrival. & y^t there is a Prospect of His being again on y^e Establishment for a Coll. in half pay & hopes to be upon his return home sometime in Augt next The Gentlemen here have tho’t y^t y^e Goods might be sold in these parts to much better advantage than In Boston. I hope Sir you will use your utmost care to conceal this advice I now give you, least it totally hinder y^e Good Effects of y^e Brief out, as y^e Gentl. news we are afraid in part will.

I almost forgot to say y^t y^e Gentlemen Trustees afores^d. desired Mr Lyde to send y^r Service & Thanks to Mr Yale. & to signify y^t He might expect a further addresse for y^t and upon y^e first meeting together. . . . . .

CXXII. Act of the Connecticut General Assembly
October, 1721

[From the printed Colonial Records, vol. 6, pp. 282-283, Hartford, 1872]

The Rector’s house on College Street, built in part by means of this Act, was occupied by the Rector (or President) for most of the time from 1722 to 1799; and was torn down in 1834.

Additional gifts for the same purpose were made by the Assembly in 1722 from debts due to the Colony.

An Act for the better Regulating the Duty of Impost upon Rhum.

Be it enacted . . . . . That from and after the first day of November next, all masters of vessels or other persons importing any rhum into this Colony shall, in the first port where he shall enter his said vessel and before such entry, produce to the naval officer of the said port a true invoice of the number of gallons of rum imported in such vessel . . . . . . And the said master or importer shall pay to the said naval officer four pence per gallon for every gallon of rum so imported by him as aforesaid, excepting only such rum as shall be imported directly from the West Indies in some vessel part owned by one or more inhabitants of this Colony, in which case the master or importer shall pay three pence per gallon . . . . . .

What shall be gained by the impost on rum for two years next coming shall be applied to the building of a rector's house for Yale College.

CXXIII. LETTER OF GURDON SALTONSTALL

October 28, 1721

[From the University Archives]

N Haven, Oct: 28, 1721

Gentlemen,

I have with the Consent of the General Assembly ordered what was collected by the late Brief for a Rectors house, into the hands of yr. Treasurer, which will amount to about one hundred Pounds. And They have also made a further Provision which I hope will procure 200\textsuperscript{th} more for the same Service. Had They been better acquainted with the State of the Colledge Treasury, they might have done more; There was some discourse of making Enquiry into It, but It would have taken up time, and was deferred; concluding the Provision already made would answer the Occasion with what might be spared from your Stock. If It prove otherwise there's no doubt but the Country will advance more, and not Suffer the College to be under such disadvantages as It must needs feel, while the Presid[\textsuperscript{t}] lives at such a Distance.
I doubt not but you will enter on ye Work as soon as the Season will admit, and am glad you have in yr. view such an able Undertaker as Mr. Caner. If in any thing relating to the Form of the House or any other Matter belonging to It, my Thoughts and Assistance may be any Service to you, I shall be glad to know It, and forward a Work so exceeding Necessary.

I am    Rev’d. Gentlemen

Yr. very humble Serv’t.

G. Saltonstall.

CXXIV. PROCEEDINGS OF THE TRUSTEES

April 4-6, 1722

[From a copy of the original minutes in the University Archives, made about 1733]

At a meeting of the Trustees of Yale College at New Haven April 4th 1722.

[Samuel Andrew chosen Moderator
Timothy Woodbridge,
Samuel Russel,

Then present the Rev’d Mr
Joseph Webb,
Thomas Buckingham,
Stephen Buckingham,
Eliphalet Adams, chosen Scribe

It was Agreed & Voted that we do comply with the demand which the Church of New Haven hath made (of fourty three Pounds) for the Church Lot adjoyning to Mr Atwater And the Rectr & Treasurer are ordered to pay the afores’d. money & take a sufficient Deed for sd. Land to the Rectr & Trustees & their Successors, From the Pastor & Church of New Haven.
Ordered that Mr John Prout the Treasurer of ye College do demand the subscriptions which were made to the College that are yet behind and upon refusal of Payment that he do prosecute them in the Law at the Charge of the College.

Messieurs Samuel Russel, Thos Buckingham & Eliphalet Adams were chosen a Committee to go & treat & agree with Mr Caner about the Rector's House.

Messieurs Samll Andrew Samuel Russel & Timothy Cutler three of the Committee who were appointed to treat with the Town about the seating of the Schollars in the meeting House declared they could not agree with the Town about that matter upon any Terms and so resigned their Trust.

Agreed with Mr Caner to build an House for the Rector fourty four ½ foot long, thirty eight foot wide and eighteen foot Stud with a Barn & well the House to be fit to live in by next Commencement if possible for which he is to have 600 Pounds 400 of which to paid before the winter & the rest as soon as we can conveniently do it allowing him Interest for the last Two Hundred till it be paid reserving a Liberty yt if any difficulty or Doubt should arise about the Work or the price the matter be referred to indifferent Persons mutually chosen.

Voted.

Upon what was offered to the Trustees by the Committee of the Society in the Town of New Haven respecting ye seating of the Schollars in ye meeting House, It was agreed & Voted yt an Answer should be returned to them in the following Terms.

April the 5th 1722

Gentlemen

We have considered your proposals & the utmost we can offer (in Consideration of the Schollars yr having the one Half of the foreseat in the Front Gallery and so much of the Seats behind as is necessary conveniently to contain them so as to sit together) for the Space of twenty years is thirty Pounds, but if a new meeting House should be set up before the Expiration of s\textsuperscript{d}. Term we do expect there should be a deduction from that Sum in proportion, & whencesoever it shall be erected the Trustees of the College will be ready to agree to bear y\textsuperscript{r} Proportion of the Charge of y\textsuperscript{e} Building provided they may have the Liberty of some suitable Accommodations in the front Gallery for y\textsuperscript{e} Schollars to y\textsuperscript{e} Satisfaction of the Trustees.

With respect to y\textsuperscript{e} Case of Hubbel fallen into the sin of Fornication and afterwards married and his father having applyed to us to have his Son continued in the College upon manifestation of his Repentance we agree that it shall be declared to him that we Judge it inconsistent with y\textsuperscript{e} Glory of God and the Welfare of the School as well as y\textsuperscript{e} Customs & practices of Colleges in other places in such Cases & y\textsuperscript{t} it will be very offensive to the Country y\textsuperscript{t} he should be continued as a member of this Society. Voted in y\textsuperscript{e} Afirm\textsuperscript{t}.

Memorandum April 6: 1722. Captn Munson appeared and after some Representation of his Difficulties and Losses sustained in attending the Work of a Steward &c. he desired that he might be considered on the Account thereof.

CXXV. EXTRACT FROM A LETTER OF JOSEPH MORGAN

May 28, 1722

[From the original in the Library of the American Antiquarian Society]

Addressed to the Rev. Cotton Mather. The author, who was born in Groton, Connecticut, in 1672, was the pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Freehold, New Jersey. At an earlier date he had served churches in Bedford and East Chester, New York, and Greenwich, Connecticut. He had recently received the honorary degree of Master of Arts from the Yale Trustees.
From East Chester
ye 28th. of May 1722

Very Revd. Sir

. . . . . I hear some in Connecticut complain yt Arminian Books are cryed up in Yale Colledge for Eloquence & Learning, & Calvinists despised for ye contrary; & none have ye courage to see it redressed. I know nothing personally, but was frightened at ye Report, & were I assured of it, wd take my Son from thence I have received such Obligations from that Colledge, yt if I appear, as Informer, it would be more unkindly taken from me yn from any, & be tho' t Ingratitude. You may inform your self; for if it be true, we may be alarmed, & every man ought to cast in his mite to help it.

In all I have written I give but Suggesting Hints, & hope not to be named in ye last, & am

CXXVII. LETTER OF JOHN DAVENPORT AND STEPHEN BUCKINGHAM

September 25, 1722

[From a copy in the Collections of the Massachusetts Historical Society, 2d series, vol. 4, pp. 297-301, 2d ed., Boston, 1846]

Two other letters to Cotton Mather, dated one week later, and relating to the same occurrences, are printed in the second volume of the same series, with Mather’s reply; they are here omitted, as adding no new facts.

Very Reverend Sirs,

We have taken it, that yourselves were consulted upon the first erecting a collegiate school in our colony, nor can we account it improper, that yourselves and our reverend fraternity in the principal town of our country be apprized of the dark cloud drawn over our collegiate affairs, a representation whereof may already have been made by some of our reverend brethren Trustees: But if not, and the case being of general concern, we are willing to make our mournful report, how it hath been matter of surprize to us (as we conclude it hath been or surely will be to you) to find how great a change a few years have made appear among us, and how our fountain, hoped to have been and continued the repository of truth, and the reserve of pure and sound principles, doctrine and education, in case of a change in our mother Harvard, shews itself in so little a time so corrupt. How is the gold become dim! and the silver become dross. and the wine mixt with water!
Our school gloried and flourished under its first rector, the Rev. Mr. Pierson, a pattern of piety, a man of modest behaviour, of solid learning, and sound principles, free from the least Arminian or Episcopal taint: But it suffered a decay for some years, because of the want of a resident rector. But who could have conjectured, that its name being raised to Collegium Yalense from a Gymnasium Saybrookense, it should groan out Ichabod in about three years and an half under its second rector, so unlike the first, by an unhappy election set over it, into whose election or confirmation, or any act relating to him, the senior subscriber hereof (though not for some reason, through malice or mistake bruited) never came. Upon the management of our college three years and an half, how strangely altered is the aspect thereof! that its regents, sc. rector and tutor are become such capable masters of Episcopal leaven, and in such a time so able to cause how many to partake of it! . . . . . .

Upon our commencement, Sept. 12, the rector distinguished his performance by the closing words of his prayer, which were these, viz. and let all the people say, amen.

On the evening of said day, it was rumoured there, that on the next day the gentlemen become Episcopal, designed to propound to the trustees three questions [about ordination] . . . . . .

But the day following the commencement after dinner, these gentlemen appeared in the library before the trustees, where many other ministers were present, and first declared themselves vivâ voce, but after that, on the direction of the trustees, declared themselves in writing, a copy whereof is not with us. But the substance thereof is this, sc.

Some of us doubting the validity of Presbyterial ordination in opposition to Episcopal ordination, and others of us fully persuaded of the invalidity of said ordination, shall be thankful to God or man helping us if in an errour. Signed, Timothy Cutler, John Hart, Samuel Whittlesey, Jared Eliot, James Wetmore, Samuel Johnson, Daniel Brown. The persons doubting were Mr. Hart and Mr. Whittlesey.
Consequent to this declaration, the trustees advised, that the doubters continue in the administration of the word and sacraments, but that the fully persuaded forbear sacramental ministration, until the meeting of the trustees, which was appointed on the Tuesday evening at New Haven, following the opening of our General Assembly there, the said Tuesday being the 16th of the next month. The trustees also advised, that the said ministers would freely declare themselves to their respective congregations.

It may be added, that Mr. C. then declared to the trustees, that he had for many years been of this persuasion, (his wife is reported to have said that to her knowledge he had for eleven or twelve years been so persuaded) and that therefore he was the more uneasy in performing the acts of his ministry at Stratford, and the more readily accepted the call to a college improvement at N. Haven.

But then if he knew the college was erected for the education of such as dissented from the church of England (and how could he not know it) and knew himself not one: with what good faith could he accept said call and the considerable encouragement he had, and the rather if he disseminated his persuasion so contrary to the very design of its erection, and the confidence of those that called him. Indeed he hath said, that he hath laboured only with one to be of his persuasion: Were it so, there would, in one instance, be a foul frustration of the confidence reposed in him, but what a number above one of the students have been leavened by him, who can be assured, but coming time may discover the unhappy instances of it. . . . .

It must be acknowledged to the divine goodness, that all the trustees then present (and of the whole number wanted only three, sc. of Lime, N. London, Stamford) shewed themselves constant to your principles, and affected to the trust committed to them: yet desirous that the meeting of the trustees might (if possible) be fuller, and also their doings might be in the face of the colony, represented in General Assembly, they took care, that Mr. C. might have the use of the house they had hired for him until the Wednesday next after the opening of the General Court, viz. October 17.

We subscribe ourselves, Reverend Sirs,
Your unworthy fellow-partners in the ministry of the gospel,

John Davenport,
S. Buckingham.

Stamford, Sept. 25, 1722.

The very Reverend,
Increase Mather, D. D.
Cotton Mather, D. D.

CXXVIII. Relation of the Declaration of Rector Cutler and Others for Episcopacy

This anonymous relation was probably written in October, 1722.

A faithful relation of a late occurrence in the churches of New-England.
New-England has lately had in it an occurrence, that has been a matter of some surprise, and much discourse, unto the country.
The colony of Connecticut being willing to have their churches well supplied, from an education in the principles which moved their predecessors to settle in those parts of the world, erected not long ago a college at New-Haven. This little college or collegiate school, which wears the name of Yale College, was lately so unhappy as to borrow a pastor of a church at Stratford, whose name is Mr. Timothy Cutler, for a rector. This man was a secret Episcopalian, of such high flights that he looks upon his Presbyterian ordination as a nullity; and the acts of his ministry as invalid; and his invitation to the rectorate of that collegiate school, was the more agreeable to him for its delivering him from a ministry which he took to be a cheat: it also gave him an opportunity privately to destroy the principal intention of the academy, and blow up the churches which he appeared a friend unto. He privately for some time carried on a conversation with several young ministers of the neighbouring churches, whose frequent meetings at his house were what the people knew not what interpretation to put upon. At last, by a strange coincidence of several circumstances, the plot broke out sooner, than it is thought they would have had it; for on September 13th, the day after their commencement, these men appeared in the publick library before the trustees of the college, and many other ministers; and there exhibited a short instrument wherein they declared that some of them doubted the validity, and others of them were fully persuaded of the invalidity of their Presbyterian ordination: signed by Cutler the rector, and Brown a tutor of the school; and five more that were young ordained pastors of churches in the neighbourhood. The trustees were very much distressed on an occasion so unexpected, and so likely to be attended with a train of unhappy consequences; but they treated the men with all the charity, and lenity, and forbearance that the case would possibly admit of.
CXXIX. Proceedings of the Trustees

October 17-22, 1722

[From a copy of the original minutes in the University Archives, made about 1733]

A Meeting of the Trustees of Yale College in the College Library at New Haven October 17, 1722.

CXXXIV. Letter of Nathaniel Williams
May 13, 1723

[From the University Archives]

The author was a graduate of Harvard College in 1693, and headmaster of the Public Free Grammar School in Boston since 1708.

Boston May 13th, 1723.

Rev'd. Srs.

I do with Thankfullness acknowledge the great Respect you have shown me in your Election of me to the Rectorship of your College.

When the notice was first given me of it by your Honourable Govern'r, I thought my self obliged to give it a room in my more serious Thoughts, and have ever since endeavourd to treat it with a Solemnity becoming an affair of so great moment: The weighty Considerat'n under which his Honour left it upon my thoughts have had their due impression upon me, and althô they found me already placed in a Station wherein I have been and may still be serviceable to the great interests of Learning & Religion, yet I was ready to hearken to any Call of the same Providence that placed me in That, to a removal to some other, wherein I might be more so, thô I might be called thereby to deny my self of many desireable Interests.

And when it came more Immediately & Fully from your Selves, with whom that affair was betrusted, I thought my self obliged still more solemnly to consider it, and to seek the guidance of Divine Providence therein, and meekly to submitt my self to whatever it might direct to, and carefully to weigh every thing that has offerd to guide me thereto.

And whereas there are Others, my Wife and Family particularly, greatly concern'd in the determinat'n, I have thought my self obliged to consult them, to lead me herein, and accordingly have laid before their serious thoughts, the Salary you have offered to encourage them to comply with the Proposal.

And since I find these so averse to comply with your present offers, I must give you this result of my thoughts—viz. That thò I would think my self obliged to sacrifice my own ease and private Satisfaction to the Service of God and the great interests of Religion, yet I cannot think my self obliged to urge my Wife and Family to that which may hereafter make them uneasy.

These are my present thoughts under the views in which the Proposal lyes before me now, & I choose that they should be Determinate and Conclusive, that the Interests of that Society may not suffer by any farther delays of mine. I pray God direct you to One that may better supply and adorn that important Trust, and to build up that Society wherein so much of your Glory as well as the great Interest of his Kingdom is so greatly concern'd. I am Rev'd. Sr's. Yr. humble Serv't.

CXXXV. LETTER OF JEREMY DUMMER

June 3, 1723

[From a copy in the Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, vol. 6, pp. 194-196, Boston, 1904]

Addressed to the Rev. Timothy Woodbridge, of Hartford.

Dear Sr.

I have two letters to thank you for, one of Sept., & the Other of Nov. last. You have heard before now of the death of Mr. Brown, the youngest of the three ministers who came over here from Your Colony . . . . . . Our News papers have told us that Mr. Cutler is made a Doct. of Divinity at Oxford, & Mr. Johnson Master of Arts, but I think it is not true, thô it’s very probable it may be true in a little while for they are gone to the University with that view. When these Gentlemen came first over, I shew’d them the civility of a countryman, but resolv’d not to meddle in their Affairs, & accordingly I did not accompany them to any Bishop or other great person of my acquaintance. I was the more cautious in my carriage towards them, because I understood by letters from Boston that their defection from the religion of their Country was owing to the Library I had sent over, with this particular Slander, that I had fill’d the Library with every book for the Church & not one of the Other Side. You, Sr., that have Seen the books, know that the reverse of this is true, & that there never was an Eminent Dissenter & Author whose works are not in that Collection. Unless some of the books are lost or Stollen (which indeed I hear) You’ll find Goodwin, Owen, Baxter, How, Bates, Carryl, Manton, Charnock, Pool, Henry, Calamy; & Others who have learnedly oppos’d the Ceremonys & Hierarchy of the Church, such as Didoclavius, Ames, Peirce & Others. And yet I find I have bin reproach’t as before mention’d, which will discourage me from sending any more books At least ’till I hear from you about it . . . . . .

The validity of Mr. Yale’s will is not yet determin’d, but is depending in Doctor’s Commons . . . . .

I am with great regards

Much Honoured Sr,

. . . . . . It was a wrong Step when the Trustees by the Assistance of Great Men removed the College from Saybrook, & a worse when they put in Mr. Cutler for Rector. The first Movers for a College in Connecticut alledged this as a Reason, because the College at Cambridge was under the Tutorage of Latitudinarians, but how well they have mended, the Event sadly manifests. . . . . .

Sr

Not only my Broth'r Roger's visit but several other Affairs relating to the publick at this Juncture, have obliged me to lay aside all Thoughts of being at the Commencement.

Upon which I have in a Lettr to M Andrew suggested my Thoughts relating to the better government of the Colledge, as particularly to the setling of a Resident Rector. It is not that I have any Inclination to insert my Self into Matters committed to ye Care of the Trustees, but as I hope and believe We are of one mind to promote the Benefit of yt Society, I concluded the Freedom I have taken, would not be thought amiss of. If any thing should happen of a Contrary Nature; You may be assured, and I desire You to Assure all the Gentlemen concern'd with You, that notwithstanding what I have hinted, I heartily wish well to, whatsoever Resolves You shall come to relating to that Affair; But I hope You will think it necessary, that much more time Should not be lost, in filling up that Vacancy. . . . . .

I am endeavouring to make Some Oblique impressions on Mr Hollis in your favour, for there’s no attacking him directly He being very much a humourist. CXLII. Questions Proposed by the Trustees to the Connecticut General Assembly

[From the original in the State Library]

In consequence of their appeal, the Act next following this paper was passed.

A brief Account of the Obstructions ye Trustees of Yale Colledge have met wth. in their endeavours to provide a Resident Rector for that School, humbly offered to his Honr. the Governo. & the honorable Council in obedience to their Commands, Received by Mr. Secretary this day.

1 The great Scarcity of men well qualified for ye Post.
2 The great difficulty of obtaining such as are otherwise impolyed.
3 The insucesfulness of attempts that way, wth. ye necessary expanse of time, in waiting ye issue of such applications.
4 Different sentiments among our selues concerning the Rule of our practice, wth. some other matters relating to ye affair.

And we are of opinion that if the present Generall Assembly will favour us wth. a resolution of the following Questions, it will much facilitate our future endeavours. Viz.
1 Q. If a Trustee by divine Providence be utterly disabled from attending the duty of his place, & there be no Rational prospect of his being farther serviceable in ye trust. Whether ye Trustees may not Regularly proceed to ye choice of another?

2 Q. Whether the Act of our Constitution doth not require the presence of ye Majority of the Trustees in being to make a Quorum?

3 Q. Whether when such a Majority is met, it be necessary that they all be consenting to make a valid act, or the major part of sd. Quorum be not sufficient thereunto?

4 Q. Whether a Trustee desiring for good reasons to be released from his Service, Wee may not dismiss him, & choose another to succeed?

CXLIII. AN ACT OF THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN ADDITION TO THE CHARTER

October, 1723

[From the official copy in the University Archives]

Att a General Assembly held at New-Haven Octob. 10th, 1723.

AN ACT IN EXPLANATION OF AND ADDITION TO THE ACT FOR ERECTING A COLLEGIATE SCHOOL IN THIS COLONY

Whereas Pursuant to the Powers and Priviledges granted to Certain Trustees for Erecting a Collegiate School in this Colony Entitled an Act for a Collegiate School The said Trustees have Erected the Sd School in the Town of New Haven which School is now known by the Name of Yale Colledge; And Whereas it appears to this assembly that an Explanation and Enlargement of the Powers and Priviledges granted by Sd Act is Necessary for the Carrying on the affairs of the said Colledge; for Want of which It has Laboured under great difficulties Very much to the prevention of that Order and good Education which is to be desired there

Bee it therefore Enacted &c That the said act which provides that the Number of the said Trustees be not under Seven, nor above Eleven is not to be Understood or Taken so as to be restrictive of the power of the said Trustees, Never to Choose any person to be a Trustee when there is of such persons as have been Chosen and Acted as Trustees Eleven persons Living in the Colony or Elsewhere, But that in Case any person so Chosen be by Providence Incapacitated from attending that service or shall himself decline the same thro' the Necessity of his own Affairs or for any other such Reason as he shall Judge requisite The Trustees in any of their Meetings lawfully Called may be Understood to have and It is hereby Enacted and declared that they shall be Taken to have full power by the Majority of such Meeting to proceed to the Choice of Another Trustee in the Room of any such person.

And It is hereby further declared and Enacted to be the True Intent and Meaning of the Act aforesd that the said Trustees shall be Impowered and they are hereby declared to have power to Meet Together for Considering advising about and Resolving upon all Matters belonging to the Trust of the said Colledge Committed to them as aforesd and to Agree and Conclude Order and determine Concerning them by the Majority of the said Meeting and by the Same Majority to Choose and Appoint a Clerk who shall in a fair Book prepared for that End register and Carefully preserve the Acts of all such Meetings.

And Whereas it has been doubted what Number of the said Trustees may be Lookt upon as a Sufficient or full Meeting, Inasmuch as there is not in the afores'd Act any Express mention made of any Meeting of the said Trustees It is therefore to prevent all scruple of that kind for the future hereby provided and declared that due Notice being given to the Trustees by Consent of any three of them, of a Meeting of the Trustees desired at any Time or place any Seven or more of the Trustees present at such Time and place shall be Esteemed a full Meeting. And It is hereby declared and Enacted, that in all such Meetings, so Called, or otherwise as the said Trustees in any such full Meeting shall agree, all affairs und'r the Care of the said Trustees shall be determined by the Majority of such Meeting.

And Whereas it has been found Inconvenient that in the Election of Persons to be Trustees, the Trustees Election by the afores'd Act should be Limitted and Restrained so as that the person who shall be Chosen must Necessarily be fourty Years of Age; It is hereby declared and Enacted that for the future the S'd Trustees in any Election of a Person into that Trust shall not be Esteemed or held Obliged by said Act to Choose such Persons as shall be above 40 Years of Age, but may choose such Persons otherwise qualifiyed according to S'd Act, provided he is 30 years of Age.

And it is further hereby allowed Enacted granted and provided, that whosoever shall be Chosen and made a Rector of the S'd Colledge shall by Vertue thereof become a Trustee of the same; and be so Esteemed and Taken during his Continuance in the S'd Rectorship.

CXLVI. Action of the Connecticut General Assembly on the Measures Taken by the Trustees for the Appointment of a Rector

May, 1724

[From the original Journal of the Upper House in the Secretary of State's office, and other original papers in the State Library]

From the Journal of the Upper House, May 22, 1724.

Upon Information that the Rev. Trustees of Yale Colledge are now assembled in this Town Ordered that Capt. Hamlin and Hez: Brainerd Esqrs. and such other person as the Lowr. House shall appoint signify to those Gentlemen our great desire that an able Rector of Yale Colledge may be provided and settled there as soon as may be and to understand what prospect they have of such a Setlem't as that, which We cant but look upon as of great Necessity to the flourishing of that Society.

The Journal of the Lower House for this session is wanting.

To the Honble. The Governour; Council & Representatives in General Court Assembled.

The Trustees of Yale Colledge now met in this Town, having this day received a Gracious Message from this Honourable Assembly, by Gentlemen Deputed from both the Houses, Expressing their great Desire that an Able Rector of Yale Colledge may be Provided & Settled there as soon as may be, & to Understand what Prospect we have of Such a Settlement, so Necessary to ye Flourishing of that Society.

We beg Leave to return our hearty Thanks for Your Generous Concern for the Welfare of that School, in this, as well as many former Instances thereof; as also to Lay before You the Steps that we have taken in that Affair at this time.

We have Unanimously Chose the Rev’d Mr. Wigglesworth, Professor of Divinity at Cambridge, to be the Rector of Yale Colledge.

And in Case of a Disappointm’t of our hope of obtaining him, we have Chosen the Rev’d Mr. William Russel of Middletown to that Office. And in case our Expectations should there fail us also, In a farther Attempt, the Rev’d Mr. Elisha Williams of Newington, hath had the Voice of the Major part of the Trustees here present.

We have also Chosen Mr. Jonathan Edwards to be a Tutor of the said Colledge.

As we have been Exceedingly Concerned at the Disappointm’t of those Measures wch. we have heretofore taken, so we shall be very Thankful, if thro’ the Smiles of Divine Providence upon our present thots. & Endeavours, we may do any thing that shall be Serviceable to the School & grateful to the Countrey.

Wth. Hearts full of Gratitude we Acknowledge the Generosity of this Honourable Assembly, in applying the benefit of ye Impost Act to the Support of the Colledge for the two Years last past; and our Necessityes still Continuing & Increasing upon us in our present broken Circumstances, we would humbly Pray, that in your Compassionate concern for us, You would please to continue to us the same benefit for some time longer.

TO TIMOTHY WOODBRIDGE

February 25, 1725

[From a copy in the Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, vol. 6, pp. 201-203, Boston, 1904]

The second paragraph has reference to Governor Yale's will.

Rev'd & Dear Sr

I have your's before me of Septem'r last, which is very obliging as all your letters are. The Diploma for Dr. Turner as also the letter that came with it I deliver'd; and tho you are so modest as to make an apology for the bad Latin, I think they were drawn up in a true Roman diction, & both for language & sentiments exceed any thing I ever yet saw from My Own Alma Mater. I must at the Same time observe that the Diploma is sent in a fine hand, & so hansomly ornamented with flourishes, that I was very much pleas'd to See it. As Religion & polite learning have bin travelling westward ever since their first appearance in the World I hope they won't rest 'till they have fixt their cheif Residence in Our part of the World. You have inclos'd Dr Turner's answer to your's by which you'l see he Continues his friendship to your Colledge, & I beleive (from his great Modesty) will do more than he promises. I have Sent You in a Box directed to Mr Read of Boston a few more books that were given me, which I hope he will take care to convey to you.

It troubles me every moment I think of it that we lost Our Cause in ye Commons by the vile decree of the Dean of the Arches, who, I verily beleive was corrupted; But as this can't be prov'd & an Appeal to the Delegates will be very Expensive, I am forc'd to Sit Still, & content my Selfe with this Reflection that I have given the Colledge a fair chance to recover the Legacy, without putting it to any Expense.

I condole with you upon the surprizing death of your late Excellent Governour, whose Memory will be to me always precious. I need Say nothing of his worth to you who knew him so well, But I always thought it so great, that there was no other person but your Selfe in the Colony capable of Succeeding him in the Chair of Government. The Gentleman, who is chosen Governour, is wholly unknown to me, but by a letter I have receiv'd from him he appears to be an honest & Sensible Gentleman. I desire you'l Assist him in an Affair which I have a Commission to write to him of. The Indian Corporation have now a pretty large Sum of money in their hands, & the Governour has promis'd me to propose to the Corporation that this money as well as their Constant Annual Remittance Shall be divided for the future between your Colony & the Massachusetts. He has already made a beginning by Nominating your Governour One of the Society's Commissers. But before this thing can be Compleated, Govern'r Talcott must write Govern'r Ashhurst a letter to be laid before the Corporation showing what Number of Indians there are in Yr Colony, & what prospect you may have of doing good among them, & particularly setting forth that Your Colledge is founded upon principles agreeable to the Religion of the Countrey, for they have heard a foolish Story, as if you design'd it as a Nursery for the Church of England. The Letter must be thus directed

To The Honble Robt. Ashhurst Esq.
Governour of the Society for propagating
The Gospel in America

CL. EXTRACT FROM A LETTER OF JOSEPH TALCOTT

June 11, 1725

[From a copy in the Collections of the Connecticut Historical Society, vol. 4, pp. 55-58, Hartford, 1892]

This letter of the Governor of Connecticut is addressed to the Colony's Agent in London, Jeremy Dummer.

Hartford, June 11th, 1725.

Sir:

. . . . . As to the notion of our Colleg's being intended for a nursery of the church principles, I don't greatly wonder at, when I consider that Mr. Cutler the Rector of the College, who for so long a time under a disguise of being a Presbyterian was improved as Rector in that College, and then went immediately with 2 or 3 brought up under his conduct to the Bishop for Commissions, and not only so, but also held that the administration of the Seals, both of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, being administered by the Presbytery is of no validity, I suppose a principle condemned by all except the Non-jurors, or High Church; I say this might be a sufficient cause for the rise and life of such a notion: yet I should think that upon its appearing that Mr. Cutler was displaced from his Rectorship in our College, upon the very first appearance or knowledge of his being of the Church principles, it may and must convince every man that hath the knowledge of it, that our College was not set up, nor is not intended to uphold the Church principles, but the Church here by law established.

I am, Sir,

Your very humble servt,

J. Talcott

CLII. MEMORIAL OF THE TRUSTEES TO THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY

October 14, 1725
with the action thereon

[From the original Memorial in the State Library; and the printed Colonial Records, vol. 6, pp. 569-570, Hartford, 1872]

The Memorial is in the handwriting of the Rev. Samuel Whitman.

To the Honourable the Govern'r. Councill & Representatives in General Court assembled at New-Haven Octob'r. 14: 1725.
The Memorial of the Trustees of Yale Colledge humbly sheweth that the said Trustees after many endeavours for the gaining A Rector for Yale Colledge, have at our late meeting in Newhaven Unanimously chosen the Rev'd. Mr. Elisha Williams Minister of Newington a Parish belonging to Wethersfield, unto that service; and Judge him a person well qualified for the work we have called him to, and in him have a fair prospect that he will be a repairer of the breach that has been made in that Society: & as that School has had its being from this Honourable Assembly and testimonies of their good will in supporting it hitherto; so we count it our duty not only to inform this Honourable Assembly of the measures we have taken for the promoting ye good thereof: but now pray that by your Act you will give your publick approbation of our choice, which we shall take as a favour. We (as appointed by the Trustees) have made Application, both to the Rev'd. Mr. Williams and to the people of the Parish, with him: and have a likely prospect of obtaining him both from him and them; But the Parish being small and generally new beginners it will necessarily bring a considerable Charge upon them in settling of another minister: The Colledg out of their small Stock cannot fully answer the charge we shall put them to: We therefore humbly pray this Honourable Assembly that as they have often done to divers places in this Goverment that upon Mr. Williams's removal to ye Colledge, so you will please to allow them their Country Rates (which are but little) for the space of four or five years, and by your act state it to be applyed to the setting the next succeeding minister in their Parish: and we shall accept it as a token of the favour this Honourable Assembly bears to the Colledge, and a manifestion of their delighting in its prosperity

At a General Assembly holden at New Haven, on the 14th day of October, 1725.

. . . . . . Upon consideration of a memorial laid before this Assembly by the Reverend Trustees of Yale College, signifying that they have made choice of Mr. Elisha Williams of Newington parish to be Rector of said College, desiring this Assembly would free the inhabitants of said Newington from their country rates: This Assembly rejoice in the good providence that conducted the reverend trustees to fill up the vacancy of a rector in said college with a gentleman so agreeable to the country, and so very acceptable to the Assembly; and do enact that when the said Mr. Elisha Williams shall remove to New Haven into the service of rector in Yale College, according to appointment of the said reverend trustees, that Newington, or the inhabitants of said parish, shall be freed from paying their country tax for the space of four years next coming; on condition that the money be improved towards settling another minister in said parish.
CLIII. Petition of the Trustees to the Connecticut General Assembly

May 12, 1726
with the action thereon

[From the original in the State Library]

The petition is in the handwriting of the Rev. Samuel Whitman.

To the Honble. Govern'r. Council and Representatives in General Court assembled in Hartford May 12, 1726.

The Memorial of us the Subscribers in behalf of Yale Colledge humbly Offered.

Whereas for Publick benefit the said Colledge hath been erected, and hetherto supported in great measure by the favour and beneficence of the Honourable Assembly of this Collony, so as our necessities have required, upon application to them by the Trustees of said Colledge: It has from time to time been supplyed: Wherefore we make bold to inform this Honourable Assembly that it stands in great necessity of releif: It is well known that the Sufferings of the Sufferings of the Colledge thro ye defection of ye Rector have been long and great and will increase till there be a Rector setled in it. Thrô ye good hand of gods Providence the Trustees have been directed to make choice of the Rev'd. Mr. Elisha Williams of Newington Parish in Wethersfield to supply that place: which this Honourable Assembly has well approved: and given a good token of their approbation: We according to the instructions given us by the Trustees have applyed to the said Mr. Williams and to the people of his parish: and have tho not without difficulty obtained the consent of Mr. Williams and his people that he shall remove to New Haven & as it appears both just and reasonable, that the people should be made good in their temporal interests: We have Agreed with their Com-p sons in stating their accounts, who have given their judgment in ye case and have determined what they judge to be just and reasonable for the people to receive: to make up what they have expended in settling Mr. Williams amongst ym.: which sum ariseth higher then what the Colledge can pay: and what the General Assembly in October last Granted: Wherefore we make our humble Addresse to this Honourable Assembly to Assist the Colledge which will be in danger of sinking without it: we therefore humbly pray that this Honourable Assembly would according to yr. usual bounty & from their good will to ye support of the Colledge Grant to ye Trustees for ye use of the Colledge the Impost settled by Law on the importation of Rum from the begining of the last may, to be continued till ye May next coming which possibly may reach to what is due to the People of Newington: to repair the Rectors house and fitt it to dwell in: and we hope and desire that the Divine goodnesse will graciously accept your offering— and we obliged ever to pray as in duty bound &c

Voted that if the Rector shall find it needful he shall put the Freshmen under the Tuition of Sr Hubbard and we will allow him if he does that Service such Recompence as we shall think Convenient.

CLIX. Memorial of the Trustees to the Connecticut General Assembly

October, 1727
with the action thereon

[From the original in the State Library; with the final Act in the printed Colonial Records, vol. 7, p. 133, Hartford, 1873]

The Memorial is in the handwriting of the Rev. Samuel Whitman.

To the Honourable the Governour, Council, & Representatives in General Court Assembled, in New Haven Octobr. 12, 1727: The Memorial of the Trustees of Yale Colledg, in New Haven humbly sheweth.

That whereas this Honble. Assembly gave being to the said Colledg by charter, which by the favour of Divine Providence hath been succesfully prospered, so that many Churches at this day are supplied with burning and shining lights from the said Colledg, which favour engageth us the Trustees, to follow divine providence, in the way that is thus Blest, in improving their faithfull endeavours for encouraging the continuing of so good a work, the benefit of which is not only for ye present but future generations, and when the Trustees had chosen a Rector for said Colledg, this Honble. Assembly gave their publick Testimony of their being well pleased with our choice: & his faithfull administration in the Concerns of the Colledg give occasion to us to be thankfull to god, that directed us to such a choice: this Honourable Assembly were pleased to enable us to make up our accounts with the people of Newington, which we acknowledge with all thankfulness, & we find that the usuall Salary allowed from the publick Treasury with ye standing perquesites from the Schollars, is not sufficient to support the Rector, and the necessary Tutorage of the Students, & not being willing to make the Charges of Tuition, and Chamber Rent, unreasonably burthensome, which would prove a means to sink ye Credit of our Colledg: we therefore are necessitated to make our humble request to this Honourable Assembly for our releif, & that which seems least (to us) burthensome, and can without any sensible increase of charge to the publick be allowed us: We pray that the Custom raised on the importing of Rhum may be granted to us for the use & support of the Colledg during the pleasure of this Honourable Assembly: tis our utmost necessity that moves us to this application: and we cannot but beleive that our fathers of the Common Wealth will afford maintenance to their own offspring: and we hope that those parents whose children have had their education in our Colledg: and those and others that are members of this honourable Assembly that have formerly been members of our Colledg will own their Relation to us & Sympathize with our straitned Circumstances, & we hope as we have had a supply in our necessities from this Honourable Assembly so they will not let us find the streams of their goodness dried up. CLXI. LETTER OF ELISHA WILLIAMS

[From a copy in the Publications of the Colonial Society of Massachusetts, vol. 6, pp. 207-209, Boston, 1904]

Addressed to the Rev. Timothy Woodbridge.

Rev'd Sir.

Since you allow me on all occasions the Freedom of offering my Thoughts, & have ever a Mantle ready to Throw over Them yt discover my weakness. I presume to offer Something that has occurred to me in the present Conjuncture of affairs, yt Surprize & fill everybody with Concern what ye I fear may be. For my own part I must Confess my fears are greater w'th relation to our religious than Civil Interests. Thô if our Law respecting Intestate Estates be Declared a Nullity ab Initio, & So the Common Law of England, from thence to take place, we are Thrown Into ye greatest Confusion . . . . .
Will they not Say our Ecclesiastical Establishment is a Nullity? Our College Charter a Nullity? (Can we plead & make it Good when we have done y t ye Governour & Company have a power to Make a Body Politick?) . . . . . .

Now what I would propose to Your Consideration is whither it would not be adviseable That The Agent The Government now Sends, be directed in the Prudentist Methods Possible, to obtain a Charter for the College from the King. and if it might be, also, Something in favour of our Ecclesiastick Constitution.—and These Considerations Seem to render it not Entirely hopeless

1. The King has but Just come to the Throne,—& so it is not an Unlikely Hour for acts of Grace
2. The Incomparable Good Temper of ye Queen wth whom perhaps a good Interest might be made for it.
3. What ye King has Done & after all our Endeavours to releive our Selves will probably do, with relation to our Civill Interests will be No Small Shock and Grievance to us—& phaps to do us a favour in another Matter as yt of a Charter for ye College may be ye more easily granted—Since tis not Uncommon nor disagreeable to ye Wisdom of a Prince to Shew an act of Grace when he has manifested Severity— . . . . .

If Sr. You Think it advisable that what I have proposed be endeavoured, You will please to Communicate it (phaps before ye Courts Sitting) to his Honour, with whom the Matter Must be Solely left to give it in Direction to the Agent. For if the Assembly—or Indeed his Council Should know it, it would take so much air; as That our Bigotted Churchmen would get it, & endeavour all ways Possible to Defeat it—

You will please to forgive me The Trouble of This—& I will add No More Than my Humble Service to Your Self & Madd— and That

I am Yr Very Humble Servt

CLXIII. MEMORIAL OF THE TRUSTEES TO THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY

May 8, 1729
with the action thereon

[From the original in the State Library]

To the Honourable the Governour, the Councell, and Representatives, In Generall Court Assembled; In Hartford: May the 8th. 1729. The prayer of Some of the trustees of Yale Colledge, In New-Haven, In Behalf of said Colledge Humbly Sheweth—

That Whereas Address Was made to this Honourable Assembly In October last by the Joynt Concurrence of the trustees of Yale Colledge, praying Releif for Support of Said Colledge In their Necessary Expences, and through Some Misunderstanding between the 2 Houses, No Conclusion was come too. Wee therefore abovesaid Trustees do take liberty to Renew the Application to this Honourable Assembly In behalf of said Colledge, that you will please as hitherto you have done to Own that Society as Erected by your Selves, as a testimony of your pious desires for the promoting of learning amongst us, and for the Supplying our Churches, when a vacancy doth Happen, with persons Qualified for the work of the Ministry, which Good purposes through the blessing of God Have been Manifestly Crowned with Success, and the present flourishing of our Colledge promiseth Services of this Nature yet to come, but under the favour of divine Goodness our dependance is on your Selves, that you would favour your own Ofspring, so hopefull, and not suffer it to dye for lack of bread. The State of the Colledge as to its necessary Expenses and Incomes was fully set forth to this Honourable Assembly, att the Meeting att October last when it Appeared that the layings out Exceeded the Incomes Upwards of an 160 pound which if not Releived it will necessarily Sink. The most Easy way, as appears to us is to make us an allowance of the Rhum Act, but if any other Method Seem more Agreeable to the Honourable Assembly We shall, not for any particular benefit to our Selves but in behalf of the whole Government, Accept it thankfully. And we would further pray that the payments of what may be allowed may be made in May and October, the Necessity of Rector and tutors Requiring it. And we would further Humbly Inform this Honourable Assembly, that the disorders committed at the Colledge in Cambridge at publick times by those that were not Members of the Colledge, moved the Government there to Give the president a Commission for the Peace. May not this Court from the like disorders Happening with us Att our publick times conclude the like Necessity of Such a Commission to our Rector. And your memorialists shall ever pray.

The Trustees received of the Rector thirty one Pounds which was the Sum then paid by the graduated Persons for the Commencement Dinner.

The Miscarriages Delinquencies & Crimes of Mix a Student of this College have been by the Revd Rector & Tutors (the Delinquent also being present) laid before the Trustees Board which were striking of several Students & after that running away without the leave of ye Rector or Tutor near forty miles distant from ye College & not long after that striking & fighting with a man of this Town whose Name is Chatterton & all said Crimes confessed by sd Mix on the hearing of which Crimes therefore the Trustees here assembled give Judgement in the Case as follows viz: that sd Mix for sd Crimes & Offences shall be suspended from all College Privileges for a Year & then it appearing by good Testimonials that he is reformed in his manners and is become a diligent improver of his Time & Studies his Suspension may be removed he making an Acknowledgement of his Faults publickly in the Hall & answering all College Dues to the Time.

Samuel Whitman Scribe.

After the Trustees had come into this Agreement & Judgement they received an open letter from sd Mix's Father saying that he sees cause to take his son Mix out of the College. Dated September 12 1729.

CLXV. Memorial of Elisha Williams to the Connecticut General Assembly

October 9, 1729

with the action thereon

[From the original in the State Library]

To The Honourble. The Governour Council and Representatives in Generl. Court assembled—The Memorial of Elisha Williams Humbly sheweth—

That when the Revd. Mr. Timothy Cutler was Rector of Yale College The Assembly were pleased to order, that himself & his Estate should be free from all Taxes during his Continuance in that Office; which seeming so plainly to Point out a Favour as Intended by the Assembly to be annexed to ye office. That when I obeyed ye Call of This Government in accepting the aforesd. Charge I could do no other than assure my Self The Assembly would continue ye sd. Favour to that office—unless some way or other The Frowns of The Assembly should be merited. And The Assembly nor any Person has yet Intimated to me that my Service in that office is less acceptable to them Than Mr. Cutler's as a reason why I should not Like him Share in that Benefit. That ye Revd. Trustees for the College in their Memorial Laid before ye Assembly in Octobr. last past Did shew to the Assembly that ye allowances hitherto made were not sufficient to support ye Rector in his office. To which I only beg Leave to add, that I who best know my own Circumstances, Do assure your Honours, That in my Coming from Newington to this Service to which you have seen fit to call me, I have not Advantaged but Disadvantaged my Temporal Estate—which I am ready to demonstrate to yr. Honourable Assembly If it Thinks fit to hear me upon it.

It is yr. fore my request to ys. Honourble. Assembly That you would graciously please to Grant me the Same Freedom from Taxes, as you have done to my Predecessor, which will Encourage me Cheerfully to Pursue the Great Trust Committed to me—And I shall as In Duty Bound Ever pray &e

[From a copy in Beardsley’s Life of Samuel Johnson, pp. 73-75, New York, 1874]

This extract, from the first extant letter of the correspondence between Dean Berkeley and the Rev. Samuel Johnson, is printed as being the earliest known reference to Berkeley’s interest in the College.

Rev. Sir,

Yours of Feb. 5th came not to my hand before yesterday.

I send you herewith ten bound books and one unbound. You will take yourself what you have not already. You will give the Principles, the Theory, the Dialogue, one of each, with my service to the gentleman who is Fellow of New Haven College, whose compliments you brought to me . . . . . .

Your very humble serv’t,

Pray let me know whether they would admit the writings of Hooker and Chillingworth into the library of the College in New Haven.

CLXVIII. Memorial of the Trustees to the Connecticut General Assembly

September 9, 1730

with the action thereon

[From the original in the State Library]

To the Honble, the Governor, Council, & Representatives in General Court assembled now sitting in New-haven October the 8th. 1730.

The Memorial of ye Trustees of Yale-Colledg humbly sheweth, yt it hath been justly accounted to the honr of this Religious & Generous Assembly, yt Their Provident Thoughts for ye Interest of Religion & Humane Literature have for Twenty nine years past exerted themselves in founding by their Authority a Collegiate & Academical Nursery in this Colony: & althô by Reason of the Vicissitude of Times It hath known a declining State, yet more lately to ye great Satisfaction of Yourselvs, Us & or Country in general it has arrived at & appears in a flourishing State by a full Supply of Officers Academical, vizt: an accomplisht & agreeable Rector, & Worthy Tutors, & a pleasing Increase of Students hopeful for a publck Improvemt to ye Credit of s.d. Colony: Also that to the honr. of s.d. Assembly thrô ye divine favours your Smiles have been benignly cast on s.d. Nursery by a favorable Donation from ye beginning of s.d. Founding, & since by Reason of ye sinking Value of Bills of Credit, there have been additional Donations many times from ye Assembly, the last whereof expires wth. this present Session. We entertain, may it please yo. honors, a perswasion therefore yt. this Honourble Assembly will in no wise be wanting generously to provide for the honble. Subsistence of s.d. Nursery yo. selves have founded, countenanced & supported to this time, & humbly intreat yo. tender affection & beneficence in annually granting the Summ of two hundred & fifty pounds in bills of Credit, in consideration yt. ye necessity of ye Colledg credible Subsistence appears to us to require so much, besides wt. is obvious to every one among us the Estate of ye Bills of Credit is so exceedingly fallen; or in addition to ye hundred Pounds annually Granted by ye Honble Assembly would please to grant the Impost Money during their Pleasure—And yo\textsuperscript{r}. September 7, 1731

Addressed to the Rev. Samuel Johnson, of Stratford.

Rev. Sir,

I am now upon the point of setting out for Boston, in order to embark for England. . . . . .

My endeavors shall not be wanting, some way or other, to be useful; and I should be very glad to be so in particular to the College at New Haven, and the more as you were once a member of it, and have still an influence there. Pray return my service to those gentlemen who sent their compliments by you.

I have left a box of books with Mr. Kay, to be given away by you . . . . . The Greek and Latin books I would have given to such lads as you think will make the best use of them in the College, or to the school at New Haven. . . . . .

Considering the ill Practice of firing the Gunns at the anniversary Comment. to prevent the same for the future, we strictly forbid it & resolve that if any of the Undergraduates be found to have a Hand in such firing of the Gunns for the future either directly or indirectly during that whole week they shall be punished with Degradation or other such Punishment as the Governours of the College may judge their Fault deserves.

Whereas there are several Books in the Library that are duplicates we resolve that one Book or Sett of each duplicate be sold by the Rector & Tutors & the money improved in purchasing of other Books that the Library at present is not furnished with.

The Revd Mr Ebenezer Williams of Pomphrett was chosen a Trustee of Yale College.

Voted that the Salaries of the Rector & Tutors be the same for this Year as they were the last, To the Rector 300 £ & to the eldest Tutor 70 £ & the other 65.

Voted That the Rector give an Order to the Treasurer for the payment of the Commencement Dinner, to Mr Caner, to the Monitor, & to the Schollar of the House the respective Sums due to ym & also to the Treasurer.
Voted that Mr Daniel Hubbard be allowed 8 £ for former Services for which his Allowances were small in Case there be a Sufficiency for it after the College Debts are paid.
Voted that Mr Samll Whitman be joyned with the Rector to overlook the Papers belonging to Yale College & determine concerning them what are proper to be put on Record & what not & prepared them to be set before the Trustees at their next Meeting.
Ordered that a Note be drawn of seven Pounds to pay for the Binding Mr Baxters Works given to this College by ye Honble Samuel Holden Esqr of London by ye Hand of the Revd Mr Coleman.
Voted that Mr Daniel Hubbard late Tutor be desired to take Care to obtain the Money remaining due to the College by the Excise Act out of which he may have the 8 £ granted to him when the present Debts of the College are paid.
At ye Same Meeting Sr Sergeant was chosen Tutor of Yale College.

CLXXI. LETTER OF GEORGE BERKELEY

July 25, 1732

[From a copy in Beardsley’s Life of Samuel Johnson, pp. 79-81, New York, 1874]

Addressed to the Rev. Mr. Johnson. The enclosed deed of conveyance of the author’s farm on Rhode Island, for the endowment of scholarships, is in print elsewhere.

London, July 25, 1732.

Rev. Sir,

Some part of the benefactions to the College of Bermuda, which I could not return, the benefactors being deceased, joined with the assistance of some living friends, has enabled me without any great loss to myself, to dispose of my farm in Rhode Island in favor of the College in Connecticut. It is my opinion that as human learning and the improvements of Reason are of no small use in Religion, so it would very much forward those ends, if some of your students were enabled to subsist longer at their studies, and if by a public tryal and premium an Emulation were inspired into all. This method of encouragement hath been found useful in other learned societies, and I think it cannot fail of being so in one where a person so well qualified as yourself has such influence, and will bear a share in the elections. . . . . . This pacquet . . . . . contains the instrument of conveyance in form of law, together with a letter for Mr. President Williams, which you will deliver to him. I shall make it my endeavor to procure a benefaction of books for the College library, and am not without hopes of success . . . . .

I am very truly, Rev. Sir,

Your faithful humble servt,

with the action thereon, in May and October, 1732

[From the original in the State Library]

The Memorial is in the handwriting of Thomas Fitch (Yale 1721), of Norwalk, already one of the leading lawyers in the Colony; it was presented in May, 1732, and referred to the next Assembly.

To ye Honourable General Assembly now sitting in Hartford ye Memorial of Elisha Williams Samll. Andrew and ye Rest of ye Trustees of Yale Colledge Humbly Sheweth.
That ye sd. Colledge was first set up and has been much supported by ye favour of this assembly and yt yet y°. Memorialists are obliged to apply to you for its Support which thing we should be exceeding Glad if in future time you would take away ye occasion of by making some present Donation yt may hereafter prove advantageous to sd. School and we can think of nothing better than yt you grant a farm of land in each or some of ye townships at present only surveyed and hereafter to be Disposed of & settled which thing to us seems Reasonable.

first for yt° ye promotion of ye interest of such a School of Learning in Divine & humane Knowledge is very Laudable and a publick good.

2ly the gift itself at present is but little cost tho after may be Valluable.

3ly ye sd. All which and more we beg yr°. Hon°s. to Consider and Grant thereupon farms as aforesd. to ye sd. Trustees and their successors in yt° office for ye use of sd. Colledge &c. CLXXIII. Extract from a Letter of Timothy Cutler

September 4, 1732

Addressed to the Rev. Dr. Zachary Grey, of Cambridge, England, by the former Rector of Yale, who also maintained a correspondence with the Rev. Samuel Johnson, of Stratford.

He seems to intimate that Rector Williams was disposed to declare for Episcopacy. The suggestion was groundless.

Boston, New England,
Sept. 4, 1732.

My Reverend, most worthy, and obliging Friend,

. . . . . . Mr. Johnson has the pleasure of bettering the College in his neighbourhood, and seeing several of the Regents and Students advancing towards the Church of England, insomuch that the Rector, who would save his bacon whilst he is getting light, is in danger of having his public salary taken from him whilst he is dodging about; and nothing keeps the brightest of our youth from coming into the Church, but courage enough to starve. . . . . .

I remain, Reverend and dear Sir, your most affectionate, thankful, faithful, humble servant,

Timothy Cutler.

CLXXV. Letter of Benjamin Colman

December 2, 1732

[From the printed draft in Turell's Life of Colman, pp. 61-62, Boston, 1749]

Two other letters of the same author, addressed to Rector Williams and the Rev. Ebenezer Williams respectively, and of similar purport, are also printed in the Life of Dr. Colman, but need not be reproduced here.

To the Rev. Mr. Eliphalet Adams of New London.

Rev. Sir,

As you are one of the Trustees for Yale College, and I know you have the Welfare of that Society much at Heart, as well as the Doctrines and Laws of the Kingdom of Christ as received in these Churches; so at the Desire of some of your sincere and esteemed Friends here I take upon me to write to you at this Time, upon the Fame of the noble Gift to your College, from the reverend and learned Dean Berkley.

I hope it comes to you without the Clog of any Condition that is inconsistent with or subversive of the known and true Intent of the Honourable Founders of your College; and that the Reverend Trustees will carefully see that it does so before they accept of that or any other Donation.

Give me Leave to add one Word more concerning the Bruit of the Prevalence of Arminianism in the College. I am told that you were your self in such Apprehensions and Fears on that Head, that you enquired earnestly of your Son concerning it; and that the deceased aged Mr. Woodbridge of Hartford a little before his Death was under great Concern on that Account. It would be acceptable to some superior Friends here, if you would freely write upon that Head.

Your Brother and Servant,

B. C.

CLXXVII. EXTRACTS FROM "THE BENEFACTORS OF YALE COLLEGE, A POETICAL ATTEMPT"

Boston, 1733

The author was Col. and Dr. John Hubbard, of New Haven, born 1703, died 1773. He was also the author of "A Monumental Gratitude Attempted," New London, 1727, commemorating the saving of a party of students from shipwreck in crossing Long Island Sound in August, 1726,—which does not need to be further mentioned.
Two of the author's sons were graduated at Yale (in 1744), and a daughter married President Ezra Stiles.

Connecticut, be thou the destin'd theme,
Minerva deigns a visit to thy stream;

Between two riv'lets lie the chosen grounds;
On either hand a craggy mountain bounds
The landscape, and salutes the eye,
With artless beauties, wild variety:
Immortal trees their lofty summits grace,
And solemn Silence reigns thro' all the place.

The centre of these well-distinguish'd plains,
Devoted ground, the humble dome sustains,
Where without pomp divine Minerva reigns.

The pile by Yale's beneficence was rais'd,
Who pious honours to his country paid,
And deep and strong the sure foundations laid.
Of virtuous learning in his native soil;
A gen’rous bounty and a God-like toil,
His country back her grateful vows repeats,
And \textit{Yale} in ev’ry thankful bosom beats.

Here flourish \textit{Knowledge} and each useful \textit{Art}
That mends the manners or improves the heart.
The Tongue that jarr’d the air to harshest noise
Now sweetly moves and forms a pleasant voice,
And \textit{Language} guiltless of the Pedant’s care
With easy cadence charms the list’ning ear;

Now Logick gives a pondrous weight to sound
And Nonsense quits the long possessed ground:
Here nervous \textit{Locke} the sure foundation lays
Of sterling reason, and \textit{his} lasting praise.
Divinest \textit{Watts} too lends his helping hands
And Logick in a beauteous system stands.

By \textit{Dummer} nurs’d as by a Patron’s care,
Still \textit{Science} grows and grows divinely fair:
His opening hand her num’rous wants supplies
And next to Heav’n on \textit{that} her hope relies.
\textit{Yalensia’s} Sons in gen’rous \textit{Dummer} find \textit{Mecænas’s} bounty and great \textit{Tully’s} mind.

The \textit{Mathematicks} too our tho’ts employ,
Which nobly elevate the \textit{Students} joy:
The little \textit{Euclids} round the tables set
And at their rigid demonstrations sweat,
Till \textit{Truth} appears in a resistless light.

Divine \textit{Philosophy}, a \textit{Goddess} fair
Bespeaks our thoughts, our most indulgent care.

A tribe of heav’nly minds attend her shrine:
With well distinguish’d wreaths do Newton shine
And Berkeley, both immortal, both divine.

Yalensia owes the pow’r of knowing more Than all her Sisters on the western shore,
To Berkeley’s lib’ral hand that gave a Prize
(To animate her sons to glorious fame.)

... ... ...

The rival Youths engage our warmest care,
A crimson blush their modest faces wear.
Whilst ancient greek and latin try their skill, Inconstant tides of blood the vessels fill.

May Berkeley’s genius on your heads descend,
And happy infl’ence to the Victors lend.

My infant genius sinks beneath the song,
And only whispers Berkeley’s name along
In broken sounds: beneath the task it dies,
To gratitude a willing sacrifice.

To the Honble. the Genl. Assembly of Connecticut to convene at New-Haven on the 9th. day of October Anno Dom. 1735

The Memorial of the Trustees of Yale-College in New-Haven humbly Sheweth,

That this Assembly on our Application in October last was pleased to provide for the Support of the sd. College by Adding to the Standing Grant, one hundred pounds for the year then past and one hundred pounds for the Year then next coming; which Term having now expired, and ye Necessities of ye College being Still the Same; We renew our humble Address to this Honble. Assembly; that you would be pleased to renew a Grant of ye sd. Additional hundred pounds to the sd. College for Such Continuance as to your Honrs. may seem fit, in whose Wisdom & Goodness we confide: concluding that your Honrs. will think it fit, that the sd. Nursery of Learning erected at first and ever since patronized by this Assembly should be stil subsisted; for which it appears necessary that it have the usuall Supplies.

Furthermore, We look on our Selves obliged in Faithfulness to the Trust reposed in us by this Assembly, to Signify to yo$r$. Hon$^s$, that there appears a present Necessity of such Ex-\n\ns\nces for the Repairs of the College as We are utterly unable to defray. Whereupon we humbly move, that your Hon$^s$. will be pleased to Satisfie your Selves of the State of the sd. House by a Com$^t$. or otherwise as you shall think fit, and thereupon in your great Goodness provide for the needfull Repairs. And yo$r$. Memorialists shall as in Duty bound ever pray &c.

CXCIV. LETTER OF SAMUEL JOHNSON

May 14, 1739

[From the draft printed in Beardsley's Life of Johnson, pp. 99-101, New York, 1874]

Addressed to Bishop George Berkeley.

May 14, 1739.

May it please your Lordship,

I humbly thank your Lordship for your very obliging letter of May 11, 1738, which came not to my hands till precisely that day twelve months after it was written, and in the very interim when (having lately attended on the examination of the scholars at Yale College for your Lordship’s premium) I was meditating to write to your Lordship and give you some account of the condition of things among us; which is as follows: We had a good struggle this year for the scholarship, and it is very agreeable to see to what perfection classical learning is advanced in comparison with what it was before your Lordship’s donation to this College, though I cannot say it has much increased for these two years past, and I doubt it is got to something of a stand. Another son of Mr. Williams has got it this year, who had manifestly the advantage of the rest; but I think none have ever performed to so great perfection as one Whittelsey last year, who is son of a neighboring minister, whose performance was very extraordinary.

I remain, may it please your Lordship, etc.

Mr Samuel Whittelsey
Mr Joseph Noyes
Mr Anthony Stoddard.

The Com'tee of the Trustees appointed the Last Session to treat with the Com'tee of the prime Society in this place, the Affair of the Schollars Sitting in the Meeting house, reported to this Board the Vote of Said Society on that Affair which was accepted by the Vote of the Trustees.

The Said Society's Vote is in his terminis

"At a Meeting of the Inhabitants of the first Society in New Haven on the 14th Day of September 1739 Voted; that the Graduates of Yale College Sit in the North East half of the first Seat in the Front Gallery in the Meeting-House of Said Society for the Term of eight years, and that the Schollars of said College have Liberty to Sit in the Rest of the Seats of Said Gallery, so far as to accommodate them, during the s^d Term: Provided The Rev'd Trustees of said College pay for each Schollar two Shillings & Six pence money p'r Annum, for the Use of s^d Society, during the said Term; Also provided the s^d Trustees comply with the above Proposals by the last of October next, & make their Report thereof to the Standing Com'tee of said Society; And also that the Said Rev'd Trustees pay for the Use of said Society, two Shillings for each Schollar that has improved the s^d Gallery p'r Year for the two Years last past."

N H: Sep' 15th-1739 The above is a true Copie of the Minutes Certified p'r Sam': Bishop Clerk

Voted, that each undergraduate Successively for the Term of eight Years next be assessed two Shillings & Six pence p'r Annum for his Seat in the Meeting-House.

Appeared in the Meeting the Rev'd Mr Samuel Whitman.

The Rev'd Mr Elisha Williams having at the last Meeting of the Trustees Signified to the Board, a Necessity of his Resignation of his Rectoral Relation to the College on the Account of the Impairs of his Bodily Health; but at that Time was prevailed upon to suspend his last Determination of that Matter, for further Consideration till now; and having resigned the s^d Rectorate, & thereupon withdrawing; The Trustees by Vote make Choice of the Rev'd Mr Whitman for Moderator.
The Trustees Seriously considering the s\textsuperscript{d} Resignation of Mr Rector Williams and the Reason assigned, find themselves obliged, tho with great Reluctancy, to allow of the same; and do hereby Release him the s\textsuperscript{d} Mr Williams from the s\textsuperscript{d} Office, with hearty Thankfulness for all his past good Service in that Capacity. And do by Vote declare that the said Rectorate is now vacant.

Octor\textsuperscript{r} 31: Met according to Adjournment.

The Trustees proceeding after much Deliberation to the Choice of a meet Person to fill up the Vacant Rectorate, by Vote made Choice of the Rev\textsuperscript{d} Mr Thomas Clap of Windham for the Rector of this College, in the Room of Mr Rector Williams, who hath resigned.

The Rev\textsuperscript{d} Mr Ebenezer Williams & Mr Samuel Woodbridge are appointed a Com\textsuperscript{tee} of the Trustees to treat with the Rev\textsuperscript{d} Mr Clap, & likewise with the good People of his Congregation, as Occasion may require, for the obtaining his Acceptance of the s\textsuperscript{d} Trust, whereunto he is chosen as above\textsuperscript{d}.

Voted, that the Trustees Com\textsuperscript{tee} appointed to treat with the People of Mr Clap's Congregation, be authorized, and hereby they are Authorized, to make them a conditional Offer on behalf of this Board; in Consideration of their Consent to his Removal to the service of the College in the Post whereunto He is chosen.

Voted, that the Rev\textsuperscript{d} Mess\textsuperscript{rs} Jared Eliot, Samuel Cooke, Samuel Whittelsey & Joseph Noyes, or any two of them be a Com\textsuperscript{tee} of the Trustees, for the Inspection of the College, for the Government of it, during the Absence of the Rector; whencesoever the Tutors shall have Occasion to apply to them for that Purpose, or the s\textsuperscript{d} Com\textsuperscript{tee} shall apprehend it needful.

Mr Steward Day his Account of Sundries omitted last Commencement, & for his Disbursements on the present Occasion is allowed at £3–9–7
The Trustees are allowed for their Charges in ye present Meeting 7-11-0

The Rev'd Mr Williams the late Rector moving to this Board, that he be allowed for the Term intervening betwixt the last Commencement to this Date in Proportion to his Annual Salary: The Trustees considering, that it hath been their Constant Practise to Settle the Salaries at Commencement for the preceding Year; think it proper to refer the s'd Affair for Determination at the next Commencement.

Voted, that if the new elected Rector, either shall not Seasonably accept of the Office whereunto he is chosen, or be Providentially hindered from attending on the examination of the Candidates, that shall offer themselves to Trial on the 6th Day of May next; in Order to their Claim to the Rev'd Dr Berkley's Beneficence; in that Case the Rev'd Mr Williams the late Rector, is appointed Rector pro tempore for that particular Service

The Trustees Meeting is farther Adjourned till the Tuesday next following the next General Election; to Convene at the House of the Rev'd Mr Samuel Woodbridge in East-Hartford.

with the action thereon

[From the original in the State Library]

To the Honble. the Governour Council & Representatives of his Majesties Colony of Connecticut in Genll. Court assembled in Hartford May 8, 1740

The Memorial of the Trustees of Yale-College in New-Haven humbly sheweth—

1. That upon the Resignation of the late Revd. Rector Mr. Elisha Williams, the Revd. Mr. Thomas Clap Pastor of the Church in the first Society in Windham was chosen Rector of the said College & hath accepted the Same on the Application made to him by us, and the Subsequent Judgement of their Consociation conformable thereto.

2. That the sd. Society have applied to us either to agree with them upon some certain Sum as a meet Recompense for their temporal Damage sustained by this Means, or that we would agree with them to refer it to the Judgement of impartial & judicious Gentlemen to be mutually chosen for that Purpose.

3. That We have complyed with their latter Proposal and with them have referred as abovesd.

4. That the Gentlemen Referrees (having heard & considered the Case) have given their Opinion that 300-00-00 Pounds refunded to the said Society in Consideration of the Premises is an Equitable Recompense.

5. That your Memorialists have nothing in the Treasury of said College to enable them to advance the said Sum or any part of it; and have no other way but to apply our Selves to this Honourable Assembly; Whereupon

6. We become your Honours humble Petitioners on behalf of the said Society; that You would in your Wisdom & Goodness allow the said Society the Sum aforesd. for the Satisfaction of their temporal Damage sustained in the Removal of their said Pastor to a Post of greater & more general Serviceableness to the Whole Country; And your Memorialists shall as in Duty bound ever pray &c:

CCI. Journal of George Whitefield

October 25, 1740

[From the original edition of the Continuation of his Journal, part 7, pp. 50-51, London, 1741]

New-Haven, Saturday, October 25. . . . . . I dined at the Rev. Mr. C——'s, Rector of New-Haven College, about one third Part as big as that of Cambridge. It has one Rector, three Tutors, and about a hundred Students: But I hear of no remarkable Concern amongst them concerning Religion. I preached twice to the Consolation of God’s People, many of which, I have heard, live at New-Haven, and the Countries round about. There were sweet Meltings discernible both Times. I spoke very closely to the Students, and shewed the dreadful Ill-Consequences of an unconverted Ministry.

CCIII. Memorial of the Trustees to the Connecticut General Assembly

May 14, 1741

with the action thereon

[From the original in the State Library]

To the Honble. the General Assembly now Sitting at Hartford May 14th 1741.

Whereas upon the Memorial of the Trustees of Yale College in October last, Your Honours were Pleased to Appoint a Committee to View the Collège and Consider what Repairs or Additions were necessary, and the said ComTEE. among other things Reported that a New College should be Built, and that the Charge thereof be Defrayed out of a Certain Sum of £8000 then in the Treasury Unappropriated; And this Honourable Assembly were then Pleased Universally to Show a Just and Generous Disposition for the Encouragement & Support of Learning. But by Reason of the Difficulties and Uncertainties which they were then under about the Medium of Trade and the Heavy Charges of the War Your Honours were Pleased to Defer the Consideration of Building a New College to this Session. And whereas the same Difficulties still Remain and another greater has since arisen, viz. the Impoverishing Severity of the last Winter, and the Present Threatning Aspects of Scarcity. The Trustees would Choose for the Present to bear the great Inconveniencies which the College is under for want of better Accommodation, rather than that the People of this Colony should at this Distressing time have any greater Burden laid upon them than they are well able to Bear. And therefore humbly Submit it to The Wisdom of this Hon'ble Assembly, Whether they will be Pleased to Defer the Consideration of the Report of the said Committee untill the Present Difficulties be Removed, and divine Providence shall so Smile upon this Colony as to give the Trustees a Convenient Opportunity again to Put Your Honour in Mind of it.

Thomas Clap Rector,

Gen'l Assembly May 1741

Upon the Memorial of the Trustees of Yale College now preferred to the Assembly, Ordered that the matters mentioned in the within Report, referred to the consideration of this Assembly, be now continued and referred to such future Session of the General Assembly of this Colony as the said Trustees shall see cause to make Application to to take the same into their Consideration.

CCVI. Extract from the Boston Evening Post
April 26, 1742

From Connecticut, that in divers Parts of that Colony, they are in great Confusion on religious Accounts; and that at Yale College in New-Haven the Divisions are so great, that the Students have all left it, and are gone Home. They are in Hopes that the General Assembly which is soon to meet, will find out some Expedient for composing their Differences.

CCVII. Report of a Committee of the Connecticut General Assembly, on a Passage Relating to the College in Governor Law's Speech

May 13, 1742
with the action thereon

[From the original in the State Library]

The Report is in the handwriting of Colonel James Wadsworth, of Durham, the senior member of the Committee. The passage in the Governor's speech was as follows: "The unhappy Circumstances of our Colledge which for want of supporting due Order and Regulation has dispersed ye Students at an unusual Season should be rectifyd before ye Return least it suffer a fatal Dissolution."

The Comtee. appoynted to take into consideration that paragraph in his Honours Speech (made to this Assembly) relateing to the unhapie ciercomstences of the College, pursuant to the order of this assembly, have made Inqueiery of the Reuer'd Rector of sd' Coledge, and of others likelie to Inform us respecting the State thereof, and after deliberation, take leaue to Report to your Honour, & to this Honourable Assembly, as followeth.

That Sundry of the Students of sd. College, haue as the reuer'd Rector Informeth us by the Instigation perswation & example of others, fallen into Seueral Errors in principal and disorders in practice, which may be very hurtfull to Relegion, and Some of them Inconsistant with the good order, & gouernment of that Societie.

Perticulerly, Some of the Students haue fallen into the practice of Rash Judgeing & censureing others, euen Some of the Gouernours, teachers & Instructors of the Colege, as being unconverted, unexperienced & unskillfull guides, in matters of Religion, and haue thereupon contentuously refused to submit to their authoritie, and to attend upon & harken to their Religious Exercises & Instructions, but rather to attend upon the Instructions & directions of those to whom the care of Instructing ye Students is not commited.

Some under-Graduate Students haue made it their practice by day & night, & Some times for Seueral days together, to go about in the Town of Newhauen, as well as in other Towns, and before greate Numbers of people, to teach & Exhort, much after the same manner, that ministers of the Gospel do, in their publick preaching.

That much pains hath been taken, to prejudice the minds of the Students, against our Ecclesiastical constitution and to perswade them to dissent & withdraw from the way of Worship & ministry Established by the Laws of this Gouerment, and to attend on private & Seperate meetings and that Sundry of the Students haue so don, in contempt of the Laws & authoretie of the Coleledge.

that these things haue occationed greate expence of precious time, by disput among the Scholers, and Neglect of their Studies & exercises at Colege, and haue been a hindrance to the florishing of Religion & vital pietie in that Societie, and if Tolerated, may defeate the good ends & designs of it's Institution.

Your Com'tee, thereupon are humbly of opinion, that it is of greate Importance, both to our Civill & Ecclesiastical State that the true principals of Religion & good order be maintained in that Seminary of Learning.

and that it be Recommended to the Reuer'd Rector, Trustees & others concerned in the Gouverment & Instruction of the Colege, to be uerry carfull to Instruct the Students in the true principals of Religion, according to our confession of faith & Ecclesiastical constitution; and to keep them from all Such errors as they may be in danger of Imbibing from Strangers & foraigners, and to use all such proper measurs, as are in their power, to preuent their being under the Influence & Instruction of Such as would prejudice theire minds against the way of worship & Ministry Established by the Laws of this Gouverment, and that order & authorety be duly maintained in that Societie; and that those should not Injoy the preueledges of it, who contumatiouously refuse to Submit to the Laws, orders & Rules thereof, which haue been made, or shall be made, according to the powers & Instructions giuen in theire Charter, but we thinke it highly reasonable, that all proper meanes be first used with Such Scholers, that they may be reclaimed & reduced to order, before they be dismissed the Colege as Incourageable.

Your Comtee. are also Informed, that at a late meeting of the Trustees, they concluded, that in order to the remoueing the difficulties of the Colege, it was proper that Some experienced Graue Devins repayer to Newhauen, and there to Instruct the Scholers by theire Sermons, that may be by them prepared for that end; and forasmuch as such devines must be taken from other pulpits, and the Trustees not haveing money in theire Treasury, suffetient to hire a person, to suply such pulpit or pulpits; we therefore recommend it to this assembly to Grant to the Trustees a suffetient Sum, to enable them to hire a meet person to suply such pulpit or pulpits.

CCXII. MEMORIAL OF THE TRUSTEES TO THE CONNECTICUT GENERAL ASSEMBLY

October 13, 1743
with the action thereon

[From the original in the State Library]

To the Honourable the General Assembly of the Colony of Connecticut at their session in New Haven Oct. 13, 1743.

The memorial of the Trustees of Yale College humbly sheweth:

That whereas this Honble Assembly of their Fatherly Care and Concern for the religious as well as Civil Intrest of the People of this Colony were pleased to Found & Establish Yale College, which by the Blessing of God has been very Serviceable to Promote the Intrest of Religion & Learning in the Land, and has been the Visible Means of Qualifying Many for doing Special Service in Church and State: and this Honbl. Assembly have from time to time shown a just & Generous Disposition to grant such supplies as ware necessary for the support of it. Yet your Memorialists would Inform your Honours that of late years by reason of the great Fall of Bills of Credit, your memorialists have not been able to well support the great and necessary charges thereof. And here your Memorialists would beg leave to put your Honours in mind of what this Assembly have heretofore done upon that acount. When this Assembly granted the College Charter in the year 1701 they ware pleased therein to Grant 120 pounds annually in Country Pay. Afterwards, viz. in the year 1712 (when the manner of Payment was altered,) this Assembly were pleased to grant 100 Pounds annually in silver money or Bills in lieu of the aforesaid 120 Pounds in Pay. And after some grants of the Impost Money this Assembly in the year 1729, (in Consideration of the fall of Bills) were pleased to grant 80 Pounds, & in the year 1731 to grant 100 Pounds per annum in addition to the aforesaid 100, which two Hundred Pounds have continued ever since. And now your Memorialists would inform your Honours that by reason of the continual depreciating of the said Bills, your memorialists have not been able to defray the current Charges & to well support the Officers & Instructers of the College, but they have been obliged to serve the Public out of their own private Fortunes (in part,) and besides by reason of the Increase of the Number of the Students, that two Tutors are not able well and sufficiently to instruct three classes: and therefore there is great need of a third Tutor if we had herewithall to support him. Your Memorialists therefore would humbly pray that your Honour would be pleased to take the Premises into your wise Consideration, and that from a Generous Regard to the Flourishing state of Learning would be pleased to grant such a Sum of Lawful Money as may be equal to, and in lieu of the original Grants which we suppose, all Circumstances considered to be nearly Equivalent to 100 Pounds, which we apprehend will be requisite in Order to Support another Tutor, and the other necessary Charges of the College, and such Grant to Continue for such a Time as your Honours in your Wisdom and Goodness shall think Proper.

And so your Memorialists, as in Duty Bound, shall ever pray, &c.

Thomas Clap

Upon the Memorial of the Trustees of Yale College.
This Assembly do hereby grant unto the Trustees aforesaid for the Use of said College in lieu of all former Grants to them, or the College, for its support, such Sum in Bills of publick Credit, to be paid out of the publick Treasury in two equal Payments in October and May annually as shall . . . . . . be equivalent to one hundred pounds lawful money of this Colony, This Grant to continue during the Pleasure of this Assembly.

CCXV. The Judgment of the Rector and Tutors Concerning John and Ebenezer Cleaveland

November 19, 1744

[From the printed Judgment of the Rector and Tutors, pp. 5-8, New London, 1745]

At this date John Cleaveland was a member of the Senior class, and his brother was a Freshman. Both were subsequently admitted to degrees:—John under President Clap, in 1763; and Ebenezer, under President Daggett, in 1775.

Yale-College, November 19th, 1744.

Present, The Rector and Tutors.

Upon Information that John Cleaveland and Ebenezer Cleaveland, Members of this College, withdrew from the publick Worship of God in the Meeting-house in Canterbury, carried on by Mr. Cogswell . . . . . . ; and that they the said Cleavelands, with sundry others . . . . . , did go to & attend upon a private separate Meeting in a private House, for divine Worship, carried on principally by one Solomon Paine, a Lay-Exhorter, on several Sabbaths in September or October last.

The said Cleavelands being several times sent for, Acknowledged the Facts, as above related, and Justified what they had done, and gave in the Reasons given in Writing by the said Separatists for their Separation, aforesaid . . . . .

Whereupon it is Considered by the Rector and Tutors,

. . . . . That this practice of setting up Lay-Exhorters (which has of late prevailed in the Country) is without any Scripture Warrant, and is Subversive of the standing Order of a Learned Gospel Ministry, and naturally tends to introduce spiritual Pride, Enthusiasm and all manner of Disorders into the Christian Church Whereupon it is Considered and Adjudged by the Rector and Tutors, That the said John and Ebenezer Cleaveland, in Withdrawing and Separating from the publick Worship of God, and Attending upon the Preaching of a Lay-Exhorter, as aforesaid, have acted contrary to the Rules of the Gospel, the Laws of this Colony and of the College; and that the said Cleavelands shall be publickly Admonished for their Faults, aforesaid: And if they shall continue to Justifie themselves, and refuse to make an Acknowledgement they shall be Expelled.

Thomas Clap Rector.

CCXVI. Extract from the "Declaration of the Rector and Tutors against Whitefield" in a letter dated February 25, 1745

[From the printed Declaration, pp. 10-12, Boston, 1745]

Rev. Sir,

. . . . . It has always appeared to us, that you and other Itinerants have laid a Scheme to vilify and subvert our Colleges, and to introduce a Sett of Ministers into our Churches, by other Ways and Means of Education. In your Journal, P. 96. you say, As to the Universities, I believe it may be truly said, that the Light in them is now become Darkness, even thick Darkness that may be felt. . . . . .

Upon the best Information, we suppose, that altho' at the first Erection of this College, and while it was for some Years destitute of a resident Rector and compleat Government, there were sundry Instances of Vice and Irreligion; yet by the good Government of the late Rector, under the Inspection of the venerable Trustees, it was by Degrees brought into a very well regulated State as to Learning, Religion and Manners. And that as many learned and godly Ministers have been educated here as at any College or private Seminary in the World, of no longer Standing. But this is certain, that soon after the Publication of these Slanders upon the Colleges, this was upon several Accounts in a worse State than it was before. Sundry of the Students ran into Enthusiastic Errors and Disorders, censur’d and reviled their Governours and others; for which some were expell’d, denied their Degrees, or otherwise punished; and some withdrew to that Thing call’d the Shepherd’s Tent. And we’ve been inform’d, that the Students were told, that there was no Danger in disobeying their present Governours, because there would in a short Time be a great Change in the civil Government, and so in the Governours of the College. . . . . .

We are, Rev. Sir,

Your humble Servants, in all that we may,

Thomas Clap, Rector
Chauncey Whittelsey, Tutors.

CCXVII. A Letter Concerning John and Ebenezer Cleaveland, Expelled Students

[From the New York Post-Boy, March 17, 1745]

The authorship is unknown.

Sir;

The Friendship you have always honoured me with, encourages me to trouble you with this Letter, upon an Affair, I think very extraordinary in its Kind, as well as Consequences: It is a Fact that, I believe, will not be controverted by any Person in the College; it is as follows; Two of the Students went, the last Vacation, to see their Parents; at the Time of their being at home, they were by them persuaded, desired or ordered, to go and hear a neighbouring Minister preach, who is distinguished in the Colony by the Name of a New-Light; they accordingly went, it may be with their own Inclinations, without any Persuasion, Desire or Order of any Person; for I can’t say which it was, but go they did: When the Vacation expired, they returned to College: The Governors of the University were informed, they had been to hear a New-Light Preacher; it is of little Consequence how the Information came, or who was the Informer; but the Fact was, they had been to hear such a One; for which, and for no other Cause, they were both expelled the College. How this is agreeable to Reason, Justice, or the Principles of natural Equity, I can’t see . . . . . .

You must excuse me, if I am a little warm upon this late Stretch of College Power; it is the utmost Cruelty and Injustice, take the Thing in what Light you please: Had the civil Magistrates undertaken the Affair, and punished them for a Breach of the Law of the Colony (lately made to prevent the New-Lights from disturbing the Government) that might have been just, but for a College to inflict so cruel a Punishment for a Crime not committed within their Jurisdiction, and for which they had not the least Glimpse of Authority, is not a little surprising. . . . . .

I am,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

Hezekiah W——r.
Mr. Parker,

I have seen in your Post-Boy of the 18th of March last, an anonymous Letter publish’d, giving an Account of the Expulsion of two Scholars; which was therein asserted to be for no other Reason, than going to hear a neighbouring Minister preach who is distinguished in this Province by the Name of a New Light; and this fact, he says, will not be disputed by any Person in the College. It is surprizing to me, that any Person should assert such a notorious Falshood, or expect it should find Belief: For it is known to the World, that a great Number of the Ministers in this Colony have the Name of New Lights, and sundry of them have Sons at College; and that the Scholars have always had free Liberty to go and hear any of them, and there never was any Thought of a Prohibition: Tho’ this indeed is true, that they were prohibited from following Lay-Exhorters, and Separations, whoever preach’d at them. I don’t think it is worth while for me to give a particular Account of this Affair . . . . . But this is the best Account that can be given of it in a few Words, that they were expelled for being Followers of the Paines, two Lay-Exhorters, whose corrupt Principles and pernicious Practices are set forth in the Declaration of the Ministers of the County of Windham . . . . .

I am &c.

Thomas Clap.
